NORTHCLEFFE UNDER FIRE OF KING IN COMMONS

Alleged Statements Credited To Publisher Arouse Ire of His Majesty

IRISH PEACE INVOLVED

Noted Newspaper Man Under Boycott In U. S. Hurls
Lie At Accusers

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Ambassador Geddes will not attend the dinner tonight to be given by Mrs. E. B. McLean in honor of Lord Northcliffe, it was learned from the British embassy late today.

United Press Leased Wire
LONDON, July 29.—King George today was drawn into the Lloyd George-Lord Northcliffe feud.

The premier, carrying his fight on Northcliffe into the house of commons, read a message from the king repudiating the accuracy of a statement said to have been made by Northcliffe in America.

This statement, as cabled here, alleged Northcliffe was reported as saying that the king told Lloyd George there must be no more killings in Ireland.

"I hope," Lloyd George told the commons, "that the king's statement may do something to sterilize the effect of the criminal malignity which for personal ends is endeavoring to stir up mischief between allies, misunderstanding between the British empire and the United States and frustrate the hope of peace in Ireland."

Prejudice Settlement
"The statement," Lloyd George said, "appeared in certain Irish and English papers, attributing words of the greatest concern to his majesty relating to the Irish policy."

"It is quite impossible to deal with calumnious statements but these were of the most categorical character, calculated at the present moment to prejudice seriously the Irish settlement."

King George's message as read by the premier was:

"His majesty has had his attention directed to certain statements reported in an interview with Lord Northcliffe which appeared in the Daily Mail and some Irish newspapers."

King Denies Statement
"The statements are a complete fabrication."

"No such conversation took place, nor were any such remarks as those alleged made by his majesty."

"His majesty, therefore, desires to make it quite clear, in as much as the contrary is suggested in the interview, that in his speech at the opening of the northern parliament he followed the invariable constitutional practice relating to speeches from the throne in parliaments."

In the repudiated interview Lord Northcliffe was credited with repeating a conversation between the king and the premier in which the king was said to have asked:

"Are you going to shoot all the people in Ireland?"

"No, your majesty," Lloyd George was said to have replied.

"Well, then," said the king, according to this version, "you must come to an agreement with them. I cannot have my people killed in this manner."

The king's command was said to have been issued before Lloyd George undertook the present Irish peace negotiations and before the king made his "forgive and forget"

LORD NORTHCLEFFE,
British publisher, now visiting in Washington, whose recent newspaper articles have aroused the ire of King George, Premier Lloyd George and Lord Curzon and has resulted in a boycott against him at the British embassy in Washington.

MILLER TO SEEK

BERGDOLL'S POT OF HIDDEN GOLD

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Efforts will be made by the federal government to force Mrs. Emma Bergdoll, mother of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, the Philadelphia slacker, to dig up the $105,000 in gold her son is alleged to have buried somewhere in Maryland or West Virginia.

Thomas W. Miller, alien property custodian, who recently seized the Bergdoll property, informed the house Bergdoll committee today that he will seek to have the gold produced, if it is buried, in order that a complete accounting of the estate may be made.

L. A. COUNCIL HITS

POWER CONTROL PLAN

LOS ANGELES, July 29.—The city of Los Angeles went down to defeat in the first round of its fight with private power companies here today when the city council declined to endorse resolutions passed by the City Attorneys' association of Southern California, favoring municipal development of the water and power resources of the Colorado river.

Pleas from Councilmen W. C. Mushet and Robert M. Allan that they wanted more light before voting on the resolutions led the council to refer the questions to its public service committee.

This was not done, however, until President Ralph L. Criswell had delivered his gavel to Councilman R. S. Sparks and made a vigorous argument against delay.

"This was not done, however, until President Ralph L. Criswell had delivered his gavel to Councilman R. S. Sparks and made a vigorous argument against delay."

"30" BULLETINS

SAN DIEGO, July 29.—William Hoyt Colgate, son of one of the Colgate brothers, nationally known manufacturers of toilet articles, was named defendant in a divorce action filed today in the office of the county clerk by Louise Colgate of this city.

LOS ANGELES, July 29.—Erie Mulligan will be a free woman tonight. This seemed a certainty late today with the announcement of District Attorney Woolwine that, as soon as the prosecution presents its case, he would move that the charge of murder against the girl be dismissed, "unless something unforeseen develops in the testimony of the few remaining witnesses."

ATTORNEY SLAIN BY PATROLMAN IN CHICAGO COURT ROW

Spectators In Panic As Enraged Officer Kills Lawyer, Shoots Self

United Press Leased Wire
CHICAGO, July 29.—Just as Judge Charles A. McDonald sentenced Desk Sergeant Harry D. Kellogg to serve fifteen days in jail today, the policeman whipped out a revolver, killing Lemuel Ackley, attorney, and then shot himself.

Five shots were fired in the crowded court of domestic relations, throwing the spectators into a panic. Four struck the body of the attorney, killing him instantly, while the fifth was fired by Kellogg into his own body. He was believed in a dying condition when rushed to the county hospital.

Sentences For Contempt.
The judge, after hearing the case in which Kellogg had been ordered to vacate some property, sentenced the policeman for contempt of court.

Kellogg pulled his revolver from his holster and rushed toward the judge's bench. Judge McDonald crawled under the bench.

A bailiff rushed between the judge and the assailant.

Mrs. Stella Hickley, daughter of Kellogg, who was in the courtroom, screamed and fell in a faint.

Seeing his way toward the judge blocked, Kellogg turned and fired at the attorney who was standing five paces away near the bench.

Screams went up from the crowd in the courtroom as they pushed and jammed toward the doors.

On Force Thirty Years.
Kellogg was a member of the Chicago police force for thirty years. During the trial he sat mumbly to himself. After the shooting, Judge McDonald said he believed the shots which struck Ackley were intended for him.

The land which Kellogg was ordered to vacate was owned by Mrs. Salina E. Bartow. She was represented in court by Ackley. Two previous notices had been served on Kellogg to vacate the premises but he had ignored the court's ruling each time.

L. A. WOMAN OPENS
FIGHT OVER ESTATE

HUDSON, Wis., July 29.—Preliminary steps are being taken here to contest the will of the late Mrs. Anna E. North, the richest woman in St. Croix county, who was found dead in May at her summer home.

The estate, valued at more than $1,000,000, is disposed of by will and Mrs. Georgia Salmon Jennings of Los Angeles, a cousin, will ask the court to set aside the will because it is alleged Mrs. North was not of sound mind at the time it was executed.

The contestant was not mentioned in the will.

FORD'S FREIGHT CUT WORRIES UNIONITES

WASHINGTON, July 29.—The American Federation of Labor officials are considering the advisability of having a union-labor delegation investigate the method by which Henry Ford proposed to reduce freight rates and raise wages on his railroad, the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton.

A leather strap used by the lad to tie newspapers was found tight around his neck. Shortly before the death of the boy the youth had been scolded because his face was dirty, police said.

GRAIN AND PRODUCTS MOVE IN VOLUME

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Grain and grain products are moving in greater volume than at any time within three years, "despite the increase in freight rates," said a statement by the American Railway association.

Between June 4 and July 16, the statement said, 297,881 cars were loaded with grain products, or 87,403 more than during the corresponding period of 1920 and 70,043 more than in 1919.

TOUSISTS IN AUSTRIA ARE AMONG MISSING

VIENNA, July 29.—Five men and one woman, all tourists, have disappeared from summer resorts in Salzburg province, within a fortnight, according to reports reaching police here.

Police are inclined to believe that responsibility for the disappearance rests with a band of criminals who murder and rob their victims and bury their bodies.

Idaho-Bound Brooklyn Caravaners Happy After Night on Road

United Press Leased Wire
CROTON, N. Y., July 29.—After extricating one of their three-ton trucks from the mud, the Idaho-bound Brooklyn caravaners who spent the night in the grounds of Tumble Inn, on the Boston post road near here, started on the second leg of their 3,000 miles journey today, heading to reach the Dutchess county fair grounds at Rhinebeck for their camping ground tonight.

The night was spent with few of the discomforts which ordinarily accompany amateur campers. The trailer-bungalow-tent arrangement, which nearly all of the 23 automobiles carried furnished ample accommodations. The supplies of provender were still ample and many of the travelers preferred the luxury of dinner and breakfast at the inn to canned meat on the grounds.

SIBERIANS KILL CHIEF OF STAFF OF JAPAN ARMY

TOKIO, July 29.—Outlaws blew up a Japanese military train near Nizhny Novgorod, killing Colonel Miwa, Japanese chief of staff, and many other Japanese officers, according to meager reports received here today.

Extensive military operations between the organized outlaws and the Hunghezes are reported in progress, several clashes already having taken place.

It is believed that these events may delay the Japanese plans for the evacuation of portions of Siberia.

CHEAP PIG IRON IS JAP DISCOVERY

TOKIO, July 29.—The discovery of a process for smelting magnetic iron ore, whereby Japan will be rendered independent of outside sources for its iron supply, has just been announced by Goro Matshukata and Dr. Asabu Natio, who claim the process permits production of pig iron for 25 yen (normally about $12.50) a ton.

Numerous Japanese authorities, including Admiral Arisaka, a big gun expert and a leading metallurgist of the country, endorse the discovery, claims for the process. It is asserted that the process will remain a national secret.

DES MOINES STREET CAR LINES TO QUIT

DES MOINES, Ia., July 29.—Des Moines will be the only large city in the nation without a street car system next Monday.

Federal Judge Martin Wade today told the street car company that it "could get ready to quit August 1."

The receivers have told the court that unless a new franchise could be granted, service could not be continued.

Additional motor busses have been placed on the streets and several firms have asked the city council for a franchise to cover the complete city transportation.

BOOST IN HOUSE MEMBERSHIP IS RECOMMENDED IN REPORT

California To Have Four More Congressmen If Proposal Carries

United Press Leased Wire
WASHINGTON, July 29.—Increase of the house membership from 435 to 460 was recommended today by the house census committee.

Six of the sixteen members of the committee opposed the increase on the ground that the house as now constituted is sufficiently large.

The ratio of representation is one member for each 228,882 persons. Under the 460 plan, only two states, Maine and Missouri, would have their representation reduced. Each state would lose one representative.

The states that would gain follow: California, four; Michigan and Ohio, three each; New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Texas, two each; Arkansas, Connecticut, Georgia, Illinois, Massachusetts, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oklahoma and Washington, one each.

LEGION PLEA WINS WANDERER REPRIEVE

CHICAGO, July 29.—Carl Wanderer, convicted of the murder of his wife and a "ragged stranger," was seeing spirits in his cell today.

"I have these spirits out, will you?" he yelled at jail attendants.

Physicians believed his seeing "spirits" was the reaction on his mind from the reprieve granted him ten hours before he was scheduled to step on the gallows. Governor Small agreed to reprieve him until September on petition of American Legion officials, who asked that a full investigation be made into Wanderer's sanity.

HARDING NOMINATES HAWAIIAN OFFICIALS

WASHINGTON, July 29.—The president today sent the following nominations to the senate:

To be circuit judge fourth district, Territory of Hawaii, Homer L. Ross, of Hawaii.

To be United States marshal for District of Hawaii, Oscar P. Cox, of Hawaii.

To be postmaster: Roy Freer, Fowler, Cal.

MORE APPOINTMENTS MADE BY GOVERNOR

SACRAMENTO, July 29.—Appointments under the newly re-organized state department of finance announced from the governor's office today were:

James M. Cremin, division of printing. Cremin was formerly state printer.

William J. Ferguson, division of librarians. Ferguson was formerly state librarian.

Charles Chenu, division of motor vehicles. Chenu was formerly superintendent of motor vehicles.

McSHANE'S FATE IN HAND OF L. A. JURY

LOS ANGELES, July 29.—The fate of W. P. McShane, former president of the Sutherland Fruit Co., was placed in the hands of a jury in Federal Judge Trippett's court shortly before noon today.

McShane is charged with forging bills of lading on fruit shipments totaling $300,000.

Taking the stand in his own defense, McShane denied that he had forged any bills of lading and asserted there was nothing irregular in his conduct. Upon cross-examination, McShane admitted that he owned the entire 5,000 shares of the company with the exception of 30 shares.

HUGHES TURNS DOWN BRITISH PROPOSALS

WASHINGTON, July 29.—The United States has declined to Great Britain's final offer of opposition to the proposals for a preliminary conference to the Washington disarmament and Pacific conference, it was learned today.

Secretary of State Hughes is understood to have made plain the American attitude in detail to Sir Auckland Geddes, British ambassador, in response to continued and persistent suggestions from the British government for an early preliminary conference.

LAUDS STATE BANKS AS 25 MILLION GAIN IN 63 DAYS

United Press Leased Wire
SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—California state banks increased their assets $25,500,000 during the period of April 28 to June 30, according to a statement issued today by Jonathan S. Dodge, state superintendent of banks.

"The fiscal year that has just closed has been one of serious and dangerous vassitude but in the sixty-three days from April 28 to June 30 our banking institutions have increased their assets $25,500,000 until they aggregate now $1,500,000,000."

"The moral relationship between loans and discounts on the one hand and deposits on the other has, in a very remarkable way, been restored," the statement added. "Our banks are to be congratulated on this notable achievement."

JAIL SENTENCES ARE ASKED FOR PLAYERS IN DIAMOND SCANDAL

United Press Leased Wire
"CHICAGO, July 29.—Jail sentences were demanded for the "black box" by the prosecution today as the penalty for besmirching the national game.

Edward Prindle, special prosecutor, in opening the state's arguments to the jury, urged the jurors to find the players guilty of conspiracy, and recommended that they be given prison sentences.

The "black box" alibi was the state's target at the opening of the case today.

Prosecution attorneys presented witnesses to relate the testimony of the defense which whitewashed the former White Sox stars of any part in throwing the 1919 world series for gamblers' gold.

Alfred Austrian, vice president of the White Sox, who aided in the grand jury baseball probe, was called. His testimony was designed to bolster up the statements of Harry Redmon, East St. Louis, who implicated Carl Zork, alleged gambler.

The state maneuvered to prevent the case from going to the jury Saturday, fearing a quick "Sunday" verdict. In view of this, the jury will not decide the fate of the "black box" until the first of the week.

The defense during cross-examination of Austrian attempted to show that he, while conducting the probe of crooked baseball, acted as attorney for Arnold Rothstein, alleged New York gambler.

Austrian admitted taking Rothstein to the grand jury but denied acting as his attorney.

Newspaper reporters had testified Austrian had posed as the gambler's lawyer.

Rothstein, whose name has been linked with the scandal, was exonerated of all blame by the grand jury.

PEACE AND DISARMAMENT MAIN TOPICS OF JAPS SAYS ROWELL ON RETURN HOME

United Press Leased Wire
SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—Peace talk, disarmament and the labor movement—these were the things which attracted the attention of H. Rowell, noted California editor and political leader, while in Japan. Rowell returned here from the Orient today.

Peace talk, he declared, is heard everywhere in Japan.

Japan will enter the disarmament conference," Rowell declared. "She would like to have several things included in the conference and other things excluded."

"She would like to omit the question of Shantung and the Islands."

"She would like to include the land ownership question."

Rowell took the prevalence of peace talk as an indication that there had been much war talk in the past.

"There is quite a labor movement in Japan," he said. "I saw in Kobe a great union parade. A year ago that could not have happened."

GUAM-YAP CABLE TO BE ALLOCATED U. S. VIEW OF SECRETARY

WASHINGTON, July 29.—It is probable that the Pacific cable from Guam to Yap will be allocated to the United States, Secretary of State Hughes stated in a letter received today by Senator Jones, Washington.

The United States government should construct a trans-Pacific cable only if its construction by private capital cannot be arranged for, Secretary Hughes declared in a report on the matter to President Harding, which Harding today forwarded to Senator Jones.

Hughes added, however, that he did not favor federal expenditures on the project just at this time.

DECIDE WAR'S OVER.

SAN ANTONIO, July 29.—The war is over. Residents along Pershing avenue have had the name changed to the original name—King William street.

RAID PAJAMA DANCE.

CHICAGO, July 29.—When deputy sheriffs raided a road house near here last night they found three couples dancing in their pajamas and nightgowns. The dancers were put to bed in the lockup.

WIDOW BARES HORRORS OF VIGIL OVER HUSBAND'S REMAINS

Victim of Mountain Tragedy Tells Story As Doctors Minister To Wounds

WITNESSES DEATH FALL

Loses Way On Ledge In Efforts To Reach Side of Mate In Deep Crevasse

United Press Leased Wire
BANFF, Alta., July 29.—Mrs. W. E. Stone, lying in a fly tent on the side of Mount Eon, today told the United Press correspondent of the tragedy which befell her husband as they were scaling an unscaled peak.

Mrs. Stone is being ministered to in the tent while a raft is built on which she can float down the Spray river to Banff. She will recover.

"We were on our way to the peak in the afternoon of July 15," Mrs. Stone said. "The doctor was scaling a steep precipice. A projecting rock gave, either under his foot or at the pressure of his hand, and he was hurled into the crevasse below. He was slightly in advance of me and I looked up just as he fell. The piece of rock which gave way accompanied his body to the bottom of the abyss."

"I saw the body turn over and over in the air until it was lost to sight in the depths below. Immediately I began to descend in the hope of finding his body, if not to save his life."

Mrs. Stone described to guides the exact spot where Dr. Stone's body fell. She was unable to reach it and rescuers will have great difficulty in getting it out of the abyss, if they are able to get it out at all, it was said at the camp.

In her efforts to get to her husband's body, Mrs. Stone said, she found herself on a narrow ledge, unable to progress or return. She had nothing to eat for eight days and drank only the drippings from the rocks where a spring seeped through. She slept only one or two hours during the eight days, but was in good physical condition.

MAY DIE AS RESULT OF 310-FOOT DIVE

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 29.—From an airplane William H. Bailey, 20 years old, of Louisville, leaped 310 feet into the Ohio river recently and established what may be a high dive record. The feat may cost him his life. He was hurt internally.

About twenty-five feet from the airplane Bailey straightened out into a beautiful slanting swan dive. But when near the water, he turned slowly although he struggled desperately and landed on his back.

Bailey had determined to try something heretofore unaccomplished because he was unable to obtain employment. He expected to get a large sum of money by canvassing the crowd. He does not know that from the throngs which lined both sides of the river only $44.30 was obtained.

WOULDN'T MIND THE BABY.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., July 29.—E. V. Marshall refused to believe that man's place is in the home and nursery. His wife's suit for divorce began when he refused to care for the baby, he said.

STATE HEALTH BODY OPENS INQUIRY AS FIVE SUFFER FROM SLEEPING SICKNESS

SACRAMENTO, July 29.—The state board of health today announced that strict quarantine would be observed to prevent the spread of sleeping sickness in the state, following the announcement of five cases having been found in Contra Costa county. There is no record of a similar outbreak among persons closely associated having occurred before in the state, it was declared. There have already been 80 cases reported to the state board of health this year as against 73 during 1920. There have been 26 cases in San Francisco, 14 in Los Angeles county, 5 in Contra Costa and 4 in Alameda county.

RICHMOND, Cal., July 29.—Five cases of sleeping sickness, one of them severe, were reported from Placer to the state board of health today by Dr. M. L. Fernandez.

The victims are: Myrtle Shelton, who has been removed to the University of California hospital in San Francisco. Metelle Moses, 2 years old, still in an acute condition.

Walter Scott, 5 years old, light case.

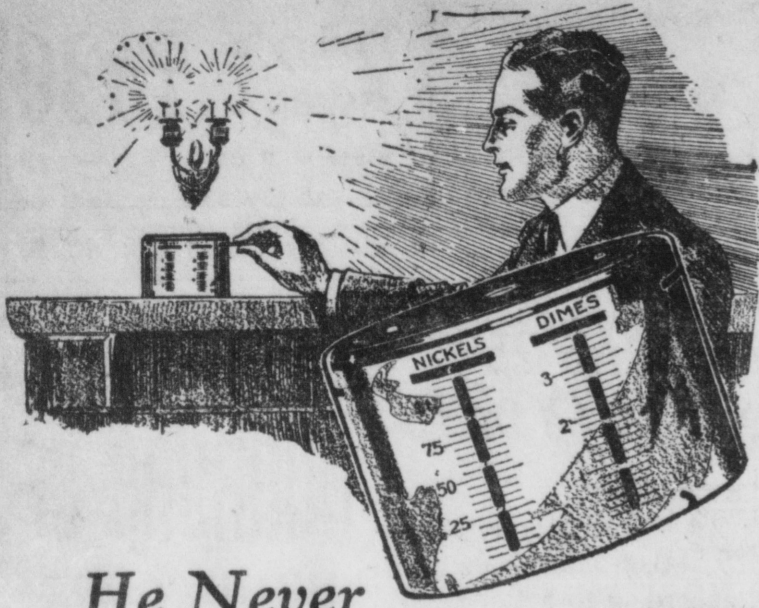

Willie Bates, 3 years old, convalescent.

Marion Santos, 3 years old convalescent.

So far as is known, these are the first cases of sleeping sickness ever reported in Contra Costa county. The first case in California is said to have been reported in 1916. Since then there have been several cases reported to the state board of health. Dr. Kelly of the state board of health, is at Pinole, conducting an investigation.

It is expected that all the Contra Costa county patients will recover as the attacks, although serious, have not been unduly severe.

How the cases broke out is still a mystery. Sleeping sickness, or encephalitis, is mildly contagious and is due from the bite of the tsetse fly, which is only found in Africa, physicians say. Thus far the fly has never been known to have gained any real lodgement in the United States.

He Never Spends a Penny—

THAT'S how one of our customers is adding to his regular monthly savings of $20. It's a novel plan. He works it out this way:

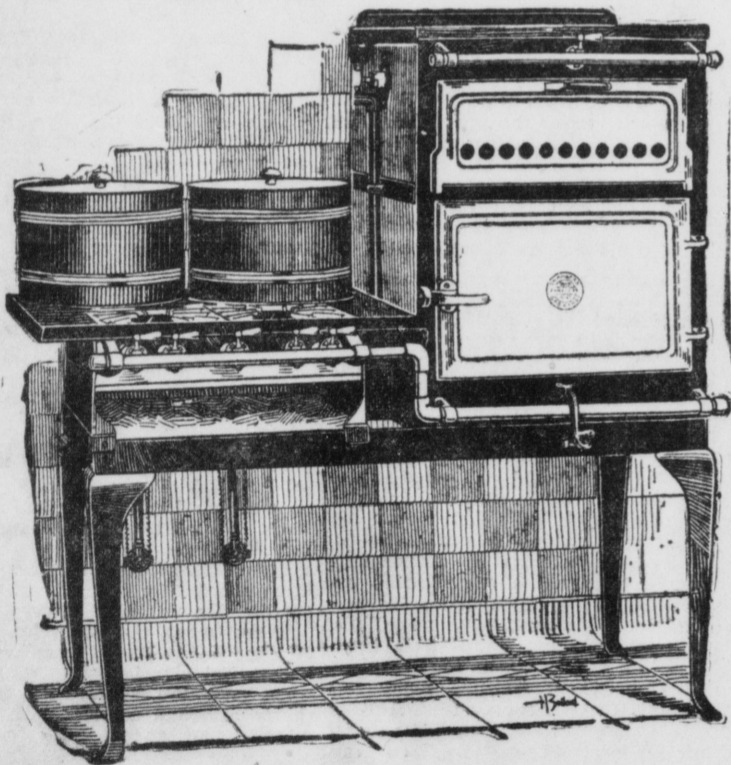

When he buys a newspaper, he gives the boy a nickel and gets back pennies. His luxury tax likewise. Each evening he puts into one of our home banks all the pennies accumulated that day. At the end of the month he brings the bank to us to be emptied. Its contents usually add about $3 to his regular savings.

Try this man's simple savings plan. You won't miss the coppers you put away each day. And you will be surprised to learn how even insignificant pennies, saved regularly, grow into worth-while savings.

STATE FAIR TO BE BETTER THAN EVER

SACRAMENTO, July 28.—Like the circus and the minstrel show, there is always a demand for the state fair at Sacramento.

The farmer has been going to the fair for thirty years to learn all that is new in his business. The tremendous change in agricultural life is seen at the fair as nowhere else.

The old-time delights to tell of the time, gone forever, when he never dreamed of electric plows and such things. He sees better breeding than he ever thought of. There is something of special interest to everybody, even to those who are not vitally concerned in agriculture, floriculture, fat hogs and bees and ambitious chickens.

This year's program is better than ever and if every Californian would take a trip to the fair the cumulative pride of all would be immensely stimulated.

MAN ACCIDENTALLY SHOT LOADING PISTOL

William S. Llewellyn, 1624 East First street, long Beach, field manager of the Wucherer-Gray Oil company, received a bullet wound in his left leg on a lease on the Irvine ranch last night. He was loading an automatic pistol when the weapon was accidentally discharged. Llewellyn left the Community hospital here today after being treated for his injury.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL FOLK SHOW WARES

All manner of woven baskets, quaintly carved toys, fancy aprons and bags and woven hammocks formed the display arranged in the Sunday school rooms of the First Methodist church today when the children of the Vacation Bible school held the exhibition which marked the close of the four weeks' course. Friends and relatives and all interested in the work accomplished by the busy little folk during the past month gathered at the church at 2:30 for the exhibit and for the exercises, which opened with singing by the little folks who have learned a hymn and a song of another type each week since the school opened.

This group of songs was followed by the story of Gideon, entertainingly told by Hubert Pryor, after which approximately twenty-five girls of the junior class drew the map of Palestine on the blackboards, accompanying the drawing by a clever song telling the story.

The Ten Commandments were given in unison by twenty little girls of the primary department, while the First of the One Hundredth and the Twenty-third Psalms were also given in unison by all the children.

Singing Exercises
A group of finger plays and singing exercises was given by the little folks of the kindergarten, after which the guests were shown the work of the children which was on display. This elicited much favorable comment, the hammocks especially being admired, while clever little bird nests which the boys had woven would prove an inducement to any bird to move right in and set up housekeeping.

All the guests were then asked to join the teachers and the children in the enjoyment of delicious home-made cakes and fruit punch which had been arranged for by the members of the Ladies Aid society and the Two-in-One class of the First Methodist church under the direction of Miss Blanche Collins, teacher of the class.

M. B. Youell, chairman of the committee whose members were drawn from the First and Richland avenue Methodist and First and United Presbyterian churches, which combined in the school, stated that the success of the school was most gratifying.

Daily Attendance
The daily attendance has averaged close to 100 children, and the efficient instruction of the teachers, composed of Miss Anne Gledhill, who acted as general head; Miss Belle McDermott, Miss Mary Coffman and Miss Vivian McFarren, aided occasionally by Miss Jessie Files, has made the whole thing an unqualified success.

Under the capable direction of Miss Gledhill, a careful account has been kept of each day's program so that another year would find the work simplified for the teachers who would thus have the advantage of this year's experiences to aid them.

Indicative of the interest aroused in the children by the Bible school, was the telephoned request to Miss Gledhill today from a resident of the city asking that the teachers purchase for her six illustrated Bibles, as six little folks of her neighborhood were so eager for the Bible stories that she plans to give them each a Bible and then have a daily afternoon story hour.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 29.—Here's a poser, Mr. Ford. Invent an automobile which will absorb hay.

If it can be done—and Northwest hay growers, who are about to harvest the biggest crop in the history of this section, see no reason why the quartet of Ford, Edison, Firestone and President Harding can't figure out a way to do it—there'll be a bumper sale for the hay-burning chariot in the region north of Crater Lake and west of the Cascades.

"Godness knows what we're going to do with this hay," a big rancher here today almost sobbed. "The automobiles are running the horses out of business, the hick comedians on the 10-20-30 stages aren't plentiful as they used to be, and hay has gone out of fashion as a mattress stuffing. We're out of luck!"

Which is the answer to the hay question all through this section. There is scarcely any market for the product.

POST RATE TO GIANT FOREST MADE LOWER

LEMON COVE, July 29.—It is now possible to send parcel post packages to Giant Forest at the rate of 2 cents per pound, it being classed as freight matter. This convenience is made possible by terms of a new contract entered into this season by the Government with the Sequoia National Park Transportation company, operating from Lemon Cove to Giant Forest.

The stage company reserved the right to let such matter accumulate until 2000 pounds had gathered, sufficient for a truckload, but the freight cannot be kept longer than seven days, and if the load is secured before then it is taken up.

speech on opening the Ulster parliament.

NORTHCLIFFE CABLES DENIAL TO KING GEORGE

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Lord Northcliffe today cabled King George that he had never given an interview in which he was quoted as saying that the king had ordered Premier Lloyd George to stop shooting people in Ireland.

The interview was brought up in common by Lloyd George reading a statement from the king. Northcliffe gave out the following statement: "Viscount Northcliffe has cabled the following denial to Lord Stamfordham, the king's private secretary: 'Please convey to his majesty with my humble duty my denial of ever having ascribed to his majesty the words or any such words as were stated by the prime minister. I gave no such interview.'"

WASHINGTON AGOG OVER NORTHCLIFFE BOYCOTT

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Washington today suddenly found itself the center of the fight over the personnel of the British delegation to the disarmament conference to be held here.

Officials of this government, while maintaining a discreet silence, watched every little move made in the battle, knowing that on the personnel of the British delegation may finally depend the results of the conference of the powers.

Paper Under Boycott

The British battle came with the visit of Lord Northcliffe, British publisher, who has attacked the plans of Lloyd George and Earl Curzon, British foreign minister, to come here as delegates. Because of the attack, Northcliffe's newspapers, including the powerful London Times, were boycotted from receiving government news in London.

Soon after Northcliffe's arrival here yesterday the United Press exclusively announced that a dinner planned for Northcliffe at the British embassy has been cancelled as had an invitation to Northcliffe to sojourn at the embassy.

Are Personal Friends

This was done despite the fact that Ambassador Geddes and Northcliffe are personal friends. When attempts were made to deny the story Northcliffe gave the United Press a statement supporting it in every way and charging that Curzon was responsible.

Denied admittance to his country's embassy—where a dinner in his honor had been planned and then cancelled—Lord Northcliffe gave the United Press a statement blaming Curzon for this development. He also declared incidentally that Curzon is hostile to Americans.

Northcliffe leaves Washington tonight to continue his world tour that will take him through the British dominions, including Canada.

The dominions may have a deciding effect on the British policy in

STRANGE TWIST BARED IN SUIT OVER LOTS

A unique angle was brought out in a civil action tried in Department No. 2 of the superior court here when it was learned that two men of the same name claimed title to two lots on Balboa Island.

The action was brought by W. E. Wright, a Catholic priest of Silver City, N. M., against Howell Baker and Bayard W. Byrne. Wright filed suit to quiet title to the property when he learned that someone had paid taxes on the two lots.

Besides the Catholic priest, whose name is Wright, there appeared in the court room one W. E. Wright, who about two years ago was convicted by a jury of driving an automobile while intoxicated. He served a term in San Quentin for the offense.

Wright drove his car into Company F, the Santa Ana organization of national guardsmen, while the company was drilling in an Anaheim street on a national holiday. Captain A. E. Koepsel, Lt. Jesse Elliott and two other men were injured.

The men brought individual suits against Wright for damages and each was awarded judgment. The court directed the sheriff to sell Wright's property, which, Wright claimed, included the two lots on Balboa Island. Wright did not claim these two lots, however. Howell Baker bought the lots at the sheriff's sale, paying $500 for them. The proceeds were applied to the payment of the judgments won by the guardsmen.

Judge Williams, before whom the case was tried yesterday, held that W. E. Wright, the Catholic priest of Silver City, N. M., was the rightful owner of the property. Baker and Byrne, who also claimed title to the property, got nothing by the judgment.

the disarmament conference. Although visibly affected by the heat, Lord Northcliffe was in a jolly mood as he chatted with the United Press correspondent this morning. The denial from London today that the British foreign office had inspired the action by Geddes was characterized as "one of those diplomatic denials."

Brands Denial a Lie.
"Just a plain lie," Northcliffe said. "I am sorry that my friend Geddes has been placed in such an embarrassing position," Northcliffe added.

Northcliffe advanced the opinion that Lord Bryce, former British ambassador to the United States, is the proper person to head the British delegation to the disarmament and Far East conference here.

"Lord Bryce is very well liked in this country and has the confidence of the American people," he said. "Lord Bryce and a small party of young and efficient men would make the ideal delegation."

Arthur Lutz, of Santa Ana, who in his college days was a football star at Pomona and Oregon Agricultural college, is now in Big Bear aiding Coach Daniels of the University of Redlands arrange new plays for the coming season. Redlands will have its early fall football practice at Big Bear.

But two more days remain for Orange county corporations, in common with all other corporations of the country, to file their capital stock tax returns, in order to avoid the penalty attached for delinquency according to a statement made today by J. P. Carter, internal revenue collector, Los Angeles. July 31 is the final date on which such tax returns may be declared and after midnight of that date there will be an added assessment of 25 per cent of the amount due unless it can be proven that the delay was due to a reasonable cause and not to neglect or carelessness.

The one man submarine whose launching and subsequent sinking in the waters of Alamitos Bay attracted much attention in 1914 has been raised from the bottom of the bay by a dredging outfit. At the time it was built the tiny craft was hailed as the first one man undersea craft invented and its sinking on one of its trial trips caused keen disappointment.

By far the largest crowd of the season gathered at Birch park last night to listen to the concert of the Orange County Automobile Trans association band. The park was surrounded by lines of parked cars, each of which was filled with enthusiastic listeners. The grass courts of the beauty spot were thronged and the benches were crowded to capacity. That the crowd was an interested and an appreciative one, was evinced by the loud applause with which favorite selections were greeted.

Miss Cora Henderson, recently offered a place in the English department of the high school, has declined the appointment and at the recent meeting of the school board the place was tendered to Miss Allene A. Bixler, formerly connected with the city schools of Albuquerque, N. M., who has signified her intention of accepting the appointment.

With the removal early in September of the family of the Rev. Paul Wright from this city to their future home in Ontario, the place of pastor of the Day Nursery will be left vacant. Members of the Ebell club, to whose interest the venture owes its being, regret that they must lose Mrs. Wright's services. Several applications for the place have been received but according to the statement of one of the Ebell members the decision will not be made until more of the committee in charge of affairs of the nursery return to the city from summer vacation trips.

Avocado growers of this section are anticipating the avocado field day which is to be featured tomorrow at Puente, by the Chamber of Commerce of that city. Beets were being delivered today to the Holly Sugar factory at Huntington Beach and the plant of the Santa Ana Sugar company at Dyer in preparation for these two mills starting operations Monday in the 1921 season of converting beets into sugar. The Anaheim factory will start operations next Friday and the Los Alamitos plant will begin next Saturday. Growers who will deliver to these mills will start cutting next Tuesday or Wednesday. Growers for the Santa Ana and Huntington Beach mills have been cutting since Wednesday. Deliveries of today and tomorrow will be sufficient to give them good accumulations for opening operations and with deliveries following daily the plants will be kept running until the close of the season.

When sending money to Russia by way of Vladivostok it is useless to trust to registered mail, according to a bulletin received from Washington today by C. D. Overshiner, postmaster here. The Russian post office at Vladivostok, Siberia, the bulletin states, has requested that American citizens be advised that no guaranty can be made that such mail will be safely delivered or that any responsibility will be assumed for valuables thus sent. Besides, there are millions of paper rubles floating around Russia, worth about $15 a thousand, so perhaps the moral is evident.

The report that the parents of Larry Coleman, 11, injured when struck by an automobile Wednesday evening, had not called at the Community hospital up to noon yesterday, was today declared erroneous by Mrs. W. B. Coleman, 922 South Cypress street, mother of the lad. Mrs. Coleman said she arrived at her son's side at the hospital even before the physician. The boy was to be removed from the hospital today. He suffered bruises when struck by an automobile driven by F. W. Brown on South Main street.

THRIFTY TAKING GREAT PROFITS U. S. REPORTS

United Press Leased Wire
WASHINGTON, July 29.—Approximately $1,000,000,000 in profits has piled up in the last twelve months for possessors of deposits in savings banks, owners of government thrift and war stamps and of other securities easily convertible into cash.
This profit now is waiting collection by its thousands of owners in addition to more than $120,000,000 worth of interest at four per cent. It is, as yet, mainly a paper profit, but is sure and certain and results from the general decrease of approximately 30 per cent in the value of nearly all commodities during the past year.

Billions in Deposits.
Depositors in savings banks now have between two and three billion dollars to their credit, according to estimates based on reports to the office of the comptroller of the currency. Those who wish to draw their cash and take their profit can now buy many stocks, bonds, industrial securities and other commodities and securities at far less than a year ago.

Prices in general now have practically reached a stabilized level, most government officials believe, unless the economic depression is to cut still deeper than it has. But with business on the road to a boom, prices are likely to advance.
In fifty-one big cities the general level of food prices has declined more than 30 per cent in the year, the report to the labor department show.

Many Commodities Drop.
Clothing, farm products and other commodities have declined in proportion. The decline has been approximately three per cent a month. But in June the drop was less than one per cent. This indicates, officials say, the bottom level of the price curve probably has been reached.
Prices now are between 45 and 50 per cent above those of 1913, with the exception of building materials. The following table shows the decline in food prices during the year in some of the nation's biggest and most important cities:
Thirty-nine per cent—Butte, Portland, Ore.
Thirty-seven per cent—Salt Lake City and Seattle.
Thirty-one per cent—San Francisco.
Thirty-one per cent—Los Angeles.

ANNOUNCE WINNERS OF ESSAY CONTEST

Following the announcement made today of the winners in the telephone essay contest instituted early in the spring by the local branch of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, there were two happy and excited young Orange county high school students, in the persons of Miss Velma Cargay, of Fullerton, and Fred H. Witman, of Anaheim.
The essays submitted by these two were, in the opinion of the judges, the best of the many turned in during the contest which followed the personally conducted trips through the telephone exchange nearest the school the young people attended.

And as a result of the decision, the two winners were to be given the privilege of talking via telephone to any point in the United States which their fancy might dictate. With true chivalry, young Witman, winner among the boys, decided to forego the pleasure of a talk with far-off friends in favor of his mother, who, today, was connected with relatives in Ohio for a long-distance conversation.
Miss Cargay was still uncertain as to whom she would choose to talk, but when her decision is made she will be given the opportunity of carrying on a conversation with some absent friend or relative, no matter how far away.

Those who acted as judges in the contest were T. E. Stephenson, Santa Ana; W. B. Brown, Fullerton; Paul Hester, Anaheim, and W. O. Hart, Orange.

ERECT CHAPEL TO DAUGHTER'S MEMORY

LAKE GEORGE, July 29.—The cornerstone of a beautiful little chapel built at Silver Bay, Lake George, N. Y., as a memorial to Miss Helen Hughes was laid recently by her mother, Mrs. Charles E. Hughes, wife of the secretary of state.
The only speaker at the ceremony was Miss Clara S. Reed, of New York, chairman of the student committee to the national board of the Y. W. C. A., with whom Miss Hughes was closely associated at the time of her death a year ago.
Almost a thousand delegates in attendance at the Eastern Y. W. C. A. student conference at Silver Bay were present and took part in the services. It was at such a student conference as the one now in session at Silver Bay that Miss Hughes made her decision to enter into the work in which she served both faithfully and capably until her death.

SUPERVISORS PLAN THEIR VACATIONS

Through a typographical error in publication, The Register, in its issue of last Wednesday, stated that the supervisors would not meet August 2 and 30. The first date should have read August 23 instead of August 2.
The members of the board agreed to take their vacations at the same time and all will be absent during the third and fourth weeks of August.

3 AUTOS BURNED IN $3000 FIRE AT ORANGE

Fire which for a time seriously threatened several business houses in the store district at Orange, early this morning totally destroyed a barn in the rear of Lee's grocery, north Glassell street. The damage was estimated at $3000.

When the fire was discovered at about 1 o'clock the barn, owned by D. C. Pixley, of Orange, was a mass of flames. Firemen concentrated their efforts on buildings close by to prevent further loss. Had the flames spread, serious damage might have resulted it is said, as several business houses stand near the barn.

Three automobiles were in the barn which burned. One, owned by Joe Brusca, of Orange, was covered by insurance, which the Orange County Automobile club paid today, it is understood. The other cars were owned by E. L. Mounds of Orange and Lee's grocery.

LEGION DELEGATES TO MEET IN FRESNO

FRESNO, July 29.—A conference of delegates to the state Legion convention in the Yosemite August 22 to August 26, who represent the seventh congressional district in the San Joaquin valley, will be held in Fresno August 7, according to A. M. Taylor, secretary-manager of Fresno Post No. 4.

At this time the delegates will discuss the matters which are to come before the convention and will formulate their plans for measures which this district hopes to put before the state gathering.
Dr. J. Audley Young of Oakdale will preside.

INQUIRY OF HAYTI OCCUPATION URGED

RAILS CONTINUE TO CLIMB ON EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, July 29.—The Sun's financial review today said:
The movement of stock prices was so irregular during most of the session that it was impossible to assign a definite trend to the market. As a general proposition the industrials worked lower and the rails higher, but there were exceptions in both groups.
The weight of selling to which the industrials were subjected began to tell on prices in the final hour and the whole market became reactionary.
United Fruit was forced under and Pierce Arrow preferred broke under 2-1-2.

NEW YORK STOCKS
NEW YORK, July 29.—Further increase in the reserve ratio for the federal reserve system made for higher prices in the early trading on the stock exchange today.
The upward trend was also stimulated by the regular dividend of the Bethlehem Steel corporation which was announced shortly after the close of the market yesterday. Bethlehem "B" reacted favorably to 4-3-8, up 1-4 from yesterday's close.

Equipment issues showed a firm tone. Rails were fractionally higher.
Bulls were conspicuously strong in noon trading. Nearly all dividend paying carriers got into new high ground for a month during the morning session.

The industrial oil list, however, was soft and much selling was in evidence. Opening prices included:
Studebaker, 76 1-2, unchanged; Amphiat, 12, off 1-8; U. S. Steel, 74, up 3-8; American Tobacco, 122, off 1-2; Mexican Petroleum, 104 1-2, up 3-4; United Fruit, 102 1-2, off 1-4; U. S. Pacific, 24 7-8, off 1-8; United Drug, 59 3-4, off 1-4.

The feature of trade toward the close was an attack on Pierce Arrow which carried them to new low records. Pierce Arrows passenger department was reported holding up well while its truck business was exceedingly slow.

The market closed irregular. Northern Pacific closed best of the rails and was in demand. Steel common was held fractionally above the close of yesterday.

Closing prices included:
United States Steel, 73 5-8, unchanged; Mexican Petroleum, 104 1-2, up 1-4; Studebaker, 76 5-8, up 1-8; U. S. Rubber, 53, off 1-4; Northern Pacific, 77 3-4, up 1-2; Bethlehem, 49 1-2, up 1-2; U. S. Company, 24 3-4, up 1-2; Pierce Arrow, preferred, 59 1-2, off 3-4; United Fruit, 99 5-8, off 1-8.

CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE
CHICAGO, July 29.—Free selling by commission houses, representing eastern interests, drove the wheat quotations down on the board today, while corn held fairly strong. Oats followed wheat in the decline. After a weak opening, wheat prices regained some of the losses, but slumped again just before the close. Reports from Kansas City and other leading markets said receipts were unusually heavy.

Provisions were irregular.
July wheat was off 2 at 125 and closed down 3. September opened off 1-2 at 124 1-2 and closed off 1-2. December opened off 1-2 at 127 and closed down 1-2.
Corn, July, opened down 1-4 at 64 but regained 1-2 at the close.
December opened up 1-8 and closed unchanged.

BOMB OR BLAME OF FRAUD ON SUSPECT HERE

"Did he ask of you to elope with him?"

That was the question Justice of the Peace Cox asked of eight Anaheim women when they appeared before him to swear to complaints charging J. K. Woods with obtaining money under false pretenses.

Two or three of the women blushing remarked that Woods did not suggest anything of that sort, but he did, they alleged, succeed in selling them oil rights on the Mojave desert.

There are now ten complaints lodged against Woods, who is being held in the county jail in default of $9,000 bail. He was arraigned late yesterday on three complaints and Judge Cox fixed his bail at $3,000 on each.

Sets Hearing Date
Woods' preliminary hearing was set for August 10, at 2, 3 and 4 p. m.

The first two complaints against the prisoner were sworn to Wednesday by Mrs. Laura B. Resh, real estate operator of Anaheim, who alleges that she gave Woods $720 to turn over to his "oil syndicate" and by Mrs. Frances A. Nelson, also of Anaheim, who says that she parted $200.

Both of these women appeared in court again yesterday afternoon when Woods was arraigned.

Come Into Court
With them came Emily C. Holder, who says she gave Woods $100; Mary Ziegler, who also put up $100; Elsie Ziegler, 25; C. Marie Nelson, Anaheim milliner, $200; Callie Jarvis, Anaheim dressmaker, $75; Bessie O'Brien, $25; Otto F. W. Klatt, $100, and George A. Young, $100.

The three complaints on which Woods will be tried are those filed by Young, Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Resh. The other complainants are expected to appear as witnesses.

A total of $1,645 is represented in the complaints now on file in the justice court, and according to Deputy District Attorney C. N. Mosley at least a half dozen more complaints are yet to be filed.

Woods is about 40 years old and fairly good looking.

GIRL, 15, SOUGHT BY COUNTY AUTHORITIES

Orange county authorities were making an effort today to locate Louise Pickens, 15, sometimes known as Eva Bland, of Costa Mesa, who yesterday escaped from the Orange county hospital. According to Sheriff H. E. Zaiser at the time of her departure she wore a white waist, short skirt and pince-nez glasses.

The girl has been confined in the county hospital for about one month and in the detention home for three months previous. According to Sheriff C. E. Jackson, the young woman has passed several forged checks.

MISSING BEAUTY WITH FLEEING BANKER, VIEW

CHICAGO, July 29.—Mrs. Mary McHugh, mentioned in connection with financial dealings of Warren C. Spurgin, missing president of the Michigan Avenue Trust company, appeared at the state's attorneys office here today and told of her transactions with the banker. The woman was accompanied by her husband. They told the officials they had been depositors in Spurgin's bank and had purchased 1,000 shares of oil stock at $1 a share from him. When the stock increased in value and a higher dividend was paid, Mrs. McHugh said she wrote a letter to Spurgin thanking him but declared she had no other dealings with him. The McHughs, who live in New York were motoring from California to their home when they saw their name mentioned in connection with the case and hurried to Chicago.

United Press Leased Wire
CHICAGO, July 29.—A blonde without visible means of support, who maintains herself in luxury, was reported missing today by authorities tracing Warren C. Spurgin, fleeing president of the Michigan Avenue Trust company. Detectives were convinced that the blonde was a fugitive with Spurgin. Witnesses were found today who declared Spurgin, accompanied by another man and two women drove up to the bank at 9 p. m. on July 17.

Men Visit Bank
After the men spent nearly an hour in the bank, they rejoined the two women and drove away. That was the last positive trace of the banker. The second man in the automobile was identified and is also missing. Charges holding him equally responsible with Spurgin for looting the bank, may be made.

Auditors, who went over the concern's books, today completed checking up. They found the shortage would total approximately $1,000,000. Depositors may receive 65 cents on the dollar.
The blonde in the case was traced through a chauffeur. He instructed the woman how to drive a new automobile. He said a man whom he was certain was Spurgin was often in the blonde's company.
"She spent money like water," the chauffeur said. "She often gave me a $10 bill for nothing at all."

Mary Women in Case
Although detectives on Spurgin's trail found it often crossed by women, they believe the blonde was the first in his affections and that she is with him on his flight.

Five other women who were his companions at various times were located and questioned.
Mrs. Spurgin and her daughter, Vivian, were permitted to remain at their home, after making a complete statement to the police.
The Warren Oil company, another concern to go down in the bank's crash, was in the hands of a receiver today. Spurgin was president of the company.

IOWANS HOOT WOMAN SOCIALIST SPEAKER

United Press Leased Wire
BOONE, Iowa, July 29.—Iowa is giving Mrs. Ida Crouch Hazlett, New York Socialist leader, a decidedly unkind reception.

A jeering crowd tried to obstruct her open air speech here last night. Doughnuts and other forms of pasty were thrown at her, but she persisted and finished her talk, although almost drowned out by the shouting of the crowd.

Fights in the crowd were stopped by the police. W. H. James, commander of the local American Legion post, tried to induce her to stop talking, but Mrs. Hazlett demanded his arrest and continued her speech.
Mrs. Hazlett declared that President Harding was a "mere figure-head" and that "Secretary Hughes was the real head of the government."

Mrs. Hazlett will speak here again tonight, she announced.

HOLD GAS PRESSURE CAUSE OF EXPLOSION

United Press Leased Wire
LOS ANGELES, July 29.—Los Angeles is being supplied with straight natural gas today, following yesterday's explosions in the Alameda street plant of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric corporation.

It will be some time before apparatus for generating artificial gas can replace the equipment wrecked yesterday afternoon, company officials said.

All five men injured in the blasts were still alive today, St. Vincent's hospital reported. Jesse Hall and Jacinto Ribera will recover, surgeons definitely announced. The lives of Lloyd Marshall, Jack McGuire and Antonio Marino, who were more seriously injured, are still in the balance, according to hospital authorities.

Investigators said today after a survey of the wreckage that the blasts had probably been caused by excessive pressure in the generator.

SHOOTS WIFE, KILLS SELF IN COURT ROW

United Press Leased Wire

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., July 29.—Thomas Hampton, 60, retired lumberman is dead, and his wife is being treated for a severe arm wound today as the result of a near double tragedy last night in the Hampton home.

Hampton is alleged to have shot twice at his wife, the first bullet lodging in her arm and the second going astray. Then he turned the gun on himself.

Rage and humiliation over being arraigned yesterday on an insanity charge because he could not defend half his property to his wife and because he had stricken her name from his insurance policy as beneficiary, are assigned as the reasons for the tragedy.

DOUBLE SHOOTING IN LOVE TRAGEDY FATAL

United Press Leased Wire

PORTLAND, Ore., July 29.—The murderous fury of a suitor laughingly scorned was unleashed here last night and today a man and a woman are dead.

George Sheppard, a carpenter, 43, repeatedly rebuffed by Mrs. Anna Baird, also 43, and enraged when she made little of his advances and joked about him to her friends, entered the Baird home late last night, just as Mrs. Baird was preparing to leave the house, shot her twice with fatal effect and then killed himself.

When found by the police, who had been called by Mrs. Allie Eileen, or, who witnessed the shooting, the bodies were lying in the hallway, clasped in each others arms.

THREE MEN HELD IN ALLEGED GANG PLOT

United Press Leased Wire

LOS ANGELES, July 29.—Three more men are under arrest here today in connection with the alleged plot of former "Howard street gangsters" of San Francisco to effect a jail delivery at San Quentin, and free Edward ("Spud") Murphy, gangster now serving fifty years for attacking a girl.

The latest trio arrested are alleged to have participated in the recent attempted robbery of a fortune in diamonds from Mrs. Robert ("Lady Bob") Montgomery, rich San Francisco woman now visiting in Los Angeles.

Approximately seventeen men are now under arrest here for alleged participation in an organized crime wave, the object of which police declare was to raise a fund to free "Spud" Murphy.

The three arrested for attempt to secure Mrs. Montgomery's diamonds are Albert Verner, ex-pugilist; Otto K. Roussin and Emmett B. Walker.

CLAIFORNIANS HOME FROM TRIPS ABROAD

United Press Leased Wire

NEW YORK, July 29.—Frank O. Watts, president of the First National bank of St. Louis, who was chairman of a financial group at the International Chamber of Commerce meeting in London, June 27, returned today aboard the White Star liner Adriatic.

The reparations settlement, he said, will in no wise stabilize foreign exchange, and this can only be accomplished through the law of economics and regeneration of barter and trade.

Mrs. J. W. McAllister, Los Angeles, her daughters, the Misses Josephine and Mary, and her son, Harold, said they were returning after spending thirteen months touring Europe, pleasure bent. They brought many trunks of Parisian creations.

Another passenger was Alice Brady, movie star. She was accompanied by her husband, James L. Crane, son of Dr. Frank Crane. She brought Thadford Thane, a wire-haired fox terrier, from the court of St. James and announced her trip to London and Paris in quest of "fine feathers" had been disappointing.

No foreign gowns, she said, could equal in beauty those to be found in New York, Chicago and the coast. Mrs. Louise Crichton, of San Diego, Cal., was also a passenger.

MIRAGE OF FOOD LEADS RUSSIAN FOLK ASTRAY

United Press Leased Wire

LONDON, July 29.—Russia's famine flight continued today.

Cross-roads in parts of the Volga valley were choked with thousands of rickety carts, small herds of cattle and pedestrians. The wildest confusion reigned at these points.

While the caravans, heading toward the promise of harvests in the Ukraine and Russia's boundary countries continued the most miserable victim of Russia's great drought, there were millions more of sufferers, according to reports reaching here today by way of Reval, Copenhagen and Berlin.

Troops Threaten Mutiny.
The principal developments, according to those reports are:

The extension of the Soviet's relief committee activities.
Threats of mutinies of different regiments who suffered ration cuts.

The establishment of a heavy guard where Soviet officials stored provisions to withstand a siege, if necessary.

Moscow became virtually a military camp. Many regiments were taken up to the city and stationed so that every possible gathering place could be commanded.

The international battalion, including many foreign enthusiasts of the Bolshevik cause, was assigned the honor of guarding the Kremlin. Soviet authorities have abandoned their policy of mingling freely with the crowds. When necessary to leave the Kremlin now they go about in closed cars, accompanied by armored cars and squadrons of cavalry.

The panic has affected all Russia. With thousands dying daily in the drought region of the great Volga Valley, every other section was endangered by the shortage of wheat.

Trade Home for Flour.
Flour commands almost any price in Simbirsk, the best of peasant cottages is offered for thirty-six pounds of flour. Generally the peasants make no effort to sell. They merely load their portable goods into a cart and join the great throngs which are shuffling across the glittering steppes, chasing the mirage of plentiful food.

Meat is valued at thousands of roubles a pound.
The minister of food has reported that seventy millions pounds of corn have been collected in the Ukraine and will be distributed. Even that amount was expected to make little impression in Russia, however.

The officials have even gone to the extreme of taking next year's seed in requisitioning supplies from districts where crops are fairly satisfactory.

Reports to the food minister's office showed that rains had fallen in some dry sections, but only added to the damage.

REPORT BARES BIG MONEY WASTE FROM TURNOVER IN LABOR

NEW YORK, July 29.—"You're fired," and "I quit" cost one American industry $100,000,000 last year, the American Engineering council declared today. The council, making public a report of its committee on the eliminating of waste in industry, declared the metal trade firms lost that sum through unnecessary labor turnovers. With an accompanying idleness of machinery, the loss reached $1,000,000,000, the report said.

SINN FEIN TO TURN DOWN BRITISH PLAN

United Press Leased Wire

DUBLIN, July 29.—Sinn Fein today began drafting a rejection of the principal terms in the British peace proposal. The Irish will make counter proposals, mostly regarding the degree of self government and the relations to be maintained as to the Ulster and southern counties.

The reply probably will not be sent to London before the middle of next week. It is being drafted from a "trading" viewpoint. That is, the principal terms in their present nebulous state are turned down with the idea that the counter proposals will lead to further parleys. If the government's offer is elastic, Lloyd George is expected to answer by inviting De Valera to London for more conversations.

This invitation, it can be stated authoritatively, would be accepted. If the government's proposition is a flat "take it or leave it" offer the peace negotiations seem doomed.

The officials have even gone to the extreme of taking next year's seed in requisitioning supplies from districts where crops are fairly satisfactory.

Reports to the food minister's office showed that rains had fallen in some dry sections, but only added to the damage.

BORAH WANTS TO KNOW WHY ARMY HELD ON RHINE

United Press Leased Wire

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Inquiry as to why American troops are being held in Germany at a cost of virtually $1,000,000 a month will be made in the senate within the next few days.

The inquiry will be along these lines:
Why are the troops not brought home, now that peace with Germany has been re-established?

When will they be brought home? What steps are being taken, or will be taken to obtain from Germany the $240,000,000 now overdue for support of the American army of occupation?

Senator Borah said today he will seize his earliest opportunity to discuss the question in a speech.
Senator Johnson, California, is expected to follow Borah's lead.

BRAZILIAN COPIES COX CAMPAIGN PLAN

RIO DE JANEIRO, July 29.—Dr. Nilo Pecanha today doused Brazil into the middle of a sizzling, red hot political campaign.

Pecanha is the opposition candidate for president and is the man who "put Brazil into the war."

Partly on the strength of that feat he is campaigning for the presidency.

"I am convinced Brazil can do no better than model herself after the United States," he told the United Press.

"The first thing I plan to adopt is your political campaign. I am modeling my tactics after those of Senator Cox. I want to put my case directly to the people. I am not the type to conduct a front porch campaign such as was successful for your distinguished president."

Succeeding in the surprise which they wished to give their friends, the popular young couple motored to Anaheim and were married there without any of the attentions which are inseparable from a home wedding and which both desired to avoid.

The Rev. Father Brown of the Catholic church of Anaheim, officiated, the affair taking place in the church. They were unattended.

Mrs. Alvarado has a large circle of friends and is one of the popular girls of her set. She came to California nine years ago with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hopman from Chicago, Ill., her birthplace.

Mr. Alvarado is one of the well known athletes of San Bernardino. He was overseas with the Motor Transportation Corps during the war and is a member of the B. P. O. Elks No. 336 being one of the baseball nine. He is also a member of the American Legion, Post No. 14. He is employed with the Southern California Gas Company.

Simple Wedding Service Unites Popular Young Folk

Miss Mildred Warner, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson J. Warner, 1417 North Main street, became the bride of Mr. Leland Plavan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Plavan, 506 South Birch street, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the parsonage of the Congregational church, Riverside, the Rev. Mr. Gardiner, pastor of the church, officiating.

The announcement of the wedding will be a pleasant surprise, no doubt, to the many friends of the popular young couple who preferred to slip away quietly and be married, rather than to plight their troth at a formal wedding ceremony.

They were accompanied to Riverside by Miss Marie Goldman, who was a classmate of Miss Warner at the Cumstock academy, Los Angeles; Miss Edith Plavan, sister of the groom and Mr. Francis Westgate and Mr. Clarence McFadden, of Santa Ana, all of whom officiated as attendants at the service.

Immediately following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Plavan left Riverside, reserving the honeymooners' coveted privilege of not announcing their objective to any of their friends. Upon their return they will make their home in Santa Ana, where both are prominent in the younger set.

The bride attended the Cumstock academy for some time and the groom graduated from the Santa Ana high school with the class of 1920.

Employer's Picnic Is Enjoyable Affair

The picnic of the Santa Ana Iron works given by the manager, Mr. Leonard A. Turner, was an unprecedented success. It verified the harmony and goodwill existing between employer and employee.

After the recreation period Tony's cafe "capped the climax" by a very "toney" spread. The employees and their families, numbering sixty-five, conveyed their appreciation by a vote of thanks to Mr. Turner.

The patternmakers won from the machinists in pitching horse-shoes, but the office force won over the patternmakers, showing that one cannot put luck over brains, it was good-naturedly declared.

Mrs. S. F. Berliner, in her usual capable manner, furnished the music for the fox trot, toddle, one step, quadrille and the Virginia reel—dances which were enjoyed by all—young and old.

Every one there is wondering now just how soon the next picnic will be held, it is said.

Motor Party Enjoys Trip To Beaches

A merry party of Colton folk lingered here for a short time en route to a tour of the Orange county beaches. They planned to make one-hour stops at Balboa, Newport, Huntington Beach and Seal Beach and were looking forward to a most enjoyable day.

The personnel of the party included: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Good, Mrs. R. E. Williams, Miss Edna Vaughan and Mr. Charles McGregor.

Country Club Dance Is Largely Attended

Harmonious music, a congenial number of dance devotees, and a general spirit of merry-making all combined to give an added zest to the regular monthly informal dance at the Orange County Country club last night, with the hospitable Lester Gardens in the role of host and hostess.

Light refreshments were served throughout the evening.

Interest in the dances is growing from time to time and are looked forward to with increasing pleasure.

Entertains At Bridge Tea For Miss Whitham

Miss Mildred Whitham, of Los Angeles, was the honored guest at one of the happy affairs of the month, yesterday. A bridge tea over which Miss Virginia Metzgar presided, at the home of her parents, the J. A. Metzgars, 606 Spurgeon street, was the afternoon's diversissement.

To Mrs. Hans Wagner was credited the prize for the highest score and Miss Whitham was given the low-score trophy.

The coterie of congenial friends who enjoyed the dances were: Mesdames Dean, Collier, Clyde Whitney, Lester Tubbs, Harry Matthews, Howard Timmons, Burr Shaffer and Hans Wagner; the Misses Mildred Whitham, Margaret Lyon, Roberta Dawes, Louise Tubbs, Gwendolyn Hoyle and the hostess.

BUDGET PROBLEMS TO DELAY DENBY TRIP

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Secretary Denby said he would be unable for some time to consider plans for his proposed Western trip, on account of budget problems and other departmental matters.

The secretary some time ago said he hoped to make a trip to the Pacific coast this year, and possibly to Alaska and Hawaii.

NOTICE TO WATER USERS

Residents on Main, between First and Washington, and for two or three blocks on both sides of Main are hereby notified that water service in that district will be shut off Sunday afternoon from 1 to 4 o'clock. Installation of valves in the main line at Fifth Church and Washington is the reason for the shut off. The work is imperative. ## State Editor Los Angeles Times, On Vacation, Visits Harbor

Mr. Burton L. Smith, state editor of the Los Angeles Times, and Mrs. Smith, who are summering at Orange county courts at Laguna Beach, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Goble, of this city, recently on a comprehensive tour of Orange county.

After viewing "nature's prolific wonderland" from various vantage points, they motored to Orange county's harbor, spending some time making a survey of the site. Mr. Smith expressed himself as being deeply impressed with the harbor and its alluring future.

The Smiths are delighted with Laguna Beach and are passing a most enjoyable vacation there.

Dowell-Nelson Wedding Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Dowell, 1510 South Main street, announce the marriage of their only daughter, Miss Lillian May Dowell, to Mr. Joseph J. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Nelson, 901 South Cypress street.

The wedding was solemnized in San Diego, July 23, by the Rev. Edwin Hallenbeck, in the parsonage of the First Presbyterian church.

After a brief honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson will be at home to their friends at 925 North French street, Santa Ana. They have many friends here to whom the announcement of their marriage will be a pleasant surprise.

PREPARATIONS BEGIN FOR TULARE'S SHOW

LINDSAY, July 29.—Directors of the Lindsay chamber of commerce took official action on several matters of importance to the community at their regular meeting. W. J. Coon was appointed as Lindsay's representative to act on the Tulare County Live Stock and Agricultural show committee. Secretary A. M. Robertson was instructed to prepare an exhibit for the Tulare fair, September 13-17.

D. D. Burnside, representing a Fresno building corporation, addressed the meeting stating that his company desired to enter the Lindsay field and build a number of houses which are badly needed in the city of Lindsay. The chamber was favorably impressed with the proposition and it is possible that some action looking to the immediate relief of the acute housing situation may be taken.

A resolution was passed recommending the appointment of Roy Fitcher as a member of the program commission of the State Agricultural college.

TACOMA, July 29.—Europe is rapidly extinguishing the firebrands of the war, and is now ready to grapple with the problems of peace, Hugh Wallace, former American ambassador to France, said. He arrived at his home here Sunday night.

"When I left Paris, the upper Silesian question was the only problem having disturbing possibilities to Europe," said Wallace.

He was ambassador to France from April 1919, until his recent relief by Ambassador Myron T. Herrick.

Biggs, Mr. and Mrs. George Young, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wagner, and Mr. Mat Magruder, superintendent of the Hershey sugar factory, Cuba, who is the house guest of the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Candebat.

Little-Known Places of Mystic China To Be Theme of Lecture

China, that mystic realm which is attracting the attention of the thoughtful world, today, will be the theme of what promises to be a most interesting lecture next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the United Brethren church, Third and Shelton streets.

The Rev. J. H. Scott, recently returned from China, will deliver the lecture, illustrating his discourse with lantern slides of photographs which he made himself while living there.

Many out-of-the-ordinary illustrations will be shown, as the Rev. Mr. Scott has visited places seldom traversed by tourists and camera men, and, in assembling his unique collection of views, he has gathered a great fund of interesting information, also, and these features will be set forth in his lecture.

The lecture is said to be one of special interest and information on missionary topics and the general public is cordially invited to be present.

To Leave Next Tuesday On Long Motor Tour

Harkening to the call of the open road, Mr. and Mrs. Frank True, 1727 North Main street, today, are en-grossed in the pleasant task of assembling camp equipment and other accessories, preparatory to "embarking" on a motor tour that will lead them far afield along the highways and byways of California—two distinctive objectives being Yosemite valley and the Mount Shasta country.

Mr. and Mrs. True are planning to leave here next Tuesday.

SWIMMIN' HOLE AT SCOUT CAMP IS POPULAR

Some forty or fifty boys in Boy Scout Camp Jotham Bixby today were regretting the approach of Monday, for on that day they will have to say goodbye to the "O' swimmin' hole" and the joys of the camp and return to the more or less monotonous city life.

The reservoir was recently completed and since that time one of the most enjoyable features of the day's camp routine has been the hour given over to swimming. The boys are taught the art of keeping their heads above the surface of the water and are instructed in rescue work.

Swims Popular

The scheduled hour for this exercise is 4 p. m. and that time daily has arrived none too soon for any of the boys since the reservoir has been available as a swimming pool. Boys in the camp last night today were expressing their appreciation of the courtesy of a group of Rotarians who visited them last evening and who took with them a generous supply of ice cream and wafers as a treat for the boys.

During the period of the first two weeks, about 150 boys have been at the camp. Some have stayed only one or two days and others as long as a week.

From All Over County

They came from Santa Ana, Garden Grove, Anaheim, Brea, Orange, La Habra and Tustin.

The capacity of the camp is 100 boys and registrations for the next two weeks have been made nearly equal to that number. County Commissioner S. J. Correll stated today that he thought there probably was room for two or three more boys and suggested that if there are any who want to attend during the second period they should make that fact known at once by notifying him or Scout Executive Elmer Heidt.

Registrations for the next camp include approximately eighteen boys from Yorba Linda, twelve from Tustin, twenty from Anaheim, and a few from Brea, the remainder coming mostly from Santa Ana.

CREST TO 'SPUD IN' TOMORROW, IS WORD

Well No. 1 of the Crest Oil company, the latest Long Beach organization to enter the Signal hill field, is to be spudded in tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, according to announcement today.

The Crest company is backed by conservative business men who are pledged to the enterprise from an investment standpoint. It is asserted that all its oil properties are owned in fee. Its field superintendent is a man who is declared to know thoroughly the Signal hill district.

The company has erected its derrick, has its machinery on the ground and has all its bills paid, though not one share of stock has been sold, according to officials.

The new concern holds some of the most valuable oil properties in the Signal hill field, including one acre which is 450 feet east and slightly south of the Shell's discovery well, and two and one-half acres near the Signal hill syndicate well. In addition the company holds forty-six acres in the new San Fernando valley field and also has leases on other and important acreage.

Officers of the company are C. H. Allison, prominent oil man and familiar with oil operations in the Southwest for the past twenty years, president; Dr. J. W. Novak, vice president; Dr. J. B. Klausner, treasurer; R. E. Sutherland, secretary; E. S. Babcock, chairman of the board of directors; Frank Nass, director, and J. W. Elder, field superintendent. Drs. Novak and Klausner are men of high standing; Mr. Sutherland is a former Iowa banker. Mr. Babcock is a Minnesota and Los Angeles capitalist, and Elder is one of the men who brought in the Shell's first well in the local field.

The Crest Oil company is capitalized at $500,000, divided into 5,000,000 shares of stock of a par value of ten cents and of which 1,500,000 shares of stock are designated by the company's permit for promotion purposes. According to present plans not more than 1,500,000 shares of stock will be sold, as the company's finances are now virtually complete. Money for development to date has been advanced by directors of the company.

BOUND FEET GONE; NOW BOUNDING FEET

SHANGHAI, July 29.—Feet fit for feats, both as to shape and shoes, are no longer confined to men nor yet to the women of the western world.

In the recent Olympic games of the Far East held in Shanghai, some 1,200 girls and young women took part. Of these, 200 were from Japan and the Philippine Islands, the rest from China, 500 being Shanghai girls.

The Shanghai delegation was secured and trained for the events by the Young Women's Christian Association of Shanghai.

"It is within the last six years that this activity in the land of little bound feet has developed," writes Miss Florence Brown, of Rochester, N. Y. to friends at home. She is at present in Shanghai for the Y. W. C. A., making a study of various phases of work being done there in order to put tourists into touch with them. "In 1915 when the last Olympic games were held," she says, "the only girls who took part were a few Filipino girls who formed a baseball team."

BRYAN FOR PRESIDENT.

CONFERENCE TALKS OF FARM CREDITS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—Agricultural credits and business conditions were discussed at a conference here called by A. C. Miller, member of the federal reserve board, and attended by representatives of the twelfth federal reserve district banks, at Seattle, Los Angeles, Portland, Spokane and Salt Lake City.

Miller stated that the policy of the federal reserve board in regard to loans were discussed at the conference, the primary purpose of which was to promote better understanding. Conditions in the twelfth federal reserve district, comprising the states of California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Nevada, Utah and Arizona, were characterized by Miller as "good and favorable."

WOMAN INJURED IN DOWNTOWN CRASH

As the result of a collision between a truck and a Ford touring car at the corner of Fourth and Broadway about 5:50 o'clock last evening, Mrs. J. Ablos, of El Modena, was confined at her home today with a cut over her right eye and a laceration of her right hand.

The automobile in which Mrs. Ablos was riding was driven by John Beaulieu, also of El Modena. He was going west on Fourth street when his car struck the truck, which was moving south on Broadway. There were two trailers attached to the truck. It was the intention of the truck driver to turn to the left.

The truck was in charge of Joe Burrnell, driver for the Santa Ana Commercial company. One witness declared that the truck was going too fast. Others put the blame on the driver of the Ford.

Mrs. Ablos was cut by flying glass. The windshield of the Ford was shattered and one headlight was broken. The glass from the windshield remained at the intersection for several hours after the wreck. Officers instructed the owners of the truck to remove it.

City Clerk Ed Vegely, as eye-witness to the accident, took the injured woman to the office of a local physician. Other witnesses were T. M. Edwards, 502 West Fourth street; F. B. Spellman, Garden Grove, and H. G. Dripps, 1721 North Bush street.

Officers H. D. Jaynes and Ed Boynton made an investigation and report of the accident.

PASTOR FIGHTS TO CLEAR HIS NAME

United Press Leased Wire
LONDON, July 29.—Archdeacon John Wakeford fairly rocked the Church of England today in his appeal to the people from conviction on a charge of immorality.

The muscular clergyman, known as the "naughty arch," since his alleged adventure with a young woman who met him in his church, the Peterborough cathedral, laid his case before the public at a mass meeting last night.

Two Chances to Win
Wakeford's denial of improper relations with the young woman and his replies to the evidence against him led to the belief today that there are two chances of success for his appeal.

The first is that parliament by special act may reopen the case, Wakeford promising new evidence to offset the "pajama and spying chambermaid" testimony which convicted him in both church and secular courts.

Wakeford's other chance is that he may tactfully be declared innocent through another appointment by the lord chancellor.

"How can you convict a man of murder when you can't produce the corpse?" demanded Archdeacon Wakeford in an interview given the United Press.

Young Woman Missing
"Here I am—a man of the cloth—convicted of immorality. And my enemies have not been able to produce the young woman they said was my companion in the supposed indiscretion."

"The only young woman who could by any possibility be connected with the charges has come forward with a denial. My case was a travesty on justice."

Wakeford, a big, full-blooded man, showed the strain of a long fight to have his case reconsidered. His actions were jerky. His voice was husky from the speech last night.

RED CROSS IS TO EXHIBIT AT FAIR

SACRAMENTO, July 29.—How the American Red Cross operates in communities will be demonstrated at the California State Fair, September 3 to 11, in an exhibit planned by Pacific division headquarters.

A daily program is being arranged to include an opening reception to ex-service men and their families. During the week specific programs will be given relating to public health nursing, first aid, Junior Red Cross service, salvage and shop and the hospital service.

LADDER IS PULPIT OF BISHOP FALLOWS

CHICAGO, July 29.—With a ladder for a pulpit and La Salle street for a church, Bishop Fallows and the Rev. Howard Agnew Johnston preached sermons at noon to crowds of office workers, bank presidents, brokers, stenographers and messenger boys.

The two eminent churchmen took turns on top of a ladder. They were inaugurating a drive to obtain 50,000 new members for Chicago churches by next Easter, to stimulate the interest of Chicagoans in religion, and to launch a movement for open-air evangelism.

FORFEITS DRUG CLERK'S BAIL IN DRY CASE

A concoction of coco cola and Jamaica ginger has the kick of a Missouri mule, according to Roy Keyes and Vern Hunt, called as witnesses in the trial, in the justice court here, of Henry Wallace, a drug clerk of La Habra.

Wallace was charged with selling the ginger, an intoxicant. The defendant did not appear for trial. He was represented by Attorney Charles Swanner, who said he was called into the case at the last minute by Albert Launer, Fullerton attorney, who could not get here. Wallace, the defendant, is said to be taking a vacation in Mexico.

Both Keyes and Hunt are on probation, having pleaded guilty to driving automobiles while intoxicated. They appeared before Superior Judge Williams June 2 and made application for parole. At that time they told of buying the mixture of coco cola and ginger from Wallace.

Incriminates Self
Wallace, who was in the courtroom, having been called as a witness, volunteered to make a statement. He took the stand and incriminated himself by frankly admitting that he sold the ginger. Wallace also told Judge Williams just how much of the stock was on hand in the drug store and detailed the demands for the product.

Keyes and Hunt reviewed their testimony given at the time of their hearing on probation and then Swanner and Deputy District Attorney C. N. Mozley argued the merits of the case. Swanner contended that the state had not made its case because it had not been shown that the ginger contained one-half of one per cent alcohol.

He also held that no testimony had been offered by any persons except the witnesses themselves to show that they were actually drunk, or that they were not intoxicated at the time they purchased the Jamaica ginger.

Matter of Doubt
"A man cannot always tell whether he is drunk," said Swanner. "I have seen young sports as sober as I am at this minute who would swear that they were drunk and men who were so drunk they could not hit the ground with their hats declare emphatically that they were not drunk."

Judge Cox contended that the person who absorbs the liquor is the best judge of its alcoholic effect. He said that the man who takes a drink usually knows whether he feels tipsy.

Deputy District Attorney Mozley argued that the Volstead act and the county ordinance fixed the minimum alcoholic basis at one-half of one per cent because a greater percentage of alcohol is calculated to be intoxicating and that there was no doubt of the alcoholic content of Jamaica ginger being greater than that. He held that while drug stores have a legitimate right to keep it in stock they have no right, under the prohibition laws, to sell it for beverage purposes.

Judge Cox demanded to know why the proprietor of the drugstore, as well as his clerk, was not made a defendant in the case. Mozley declared that the county ordinance could not be applied to the proprietor inasmuch as he did not sell the ginger, and because he has a right to keep it in stock.

Bail Confiscated
"Well, if that is the case," said Cox, "any man may open a saloon, hire a few bartenders and escape prosecution on the ground that he is not selling the liquor himself. He can blame it on his bartenders." He accused the occupants in the Ford car of being asleep or intoxicated. Now comes the driver of the Ford, who admits that he was asleep.

JAPANESE BEATEN IN ROW OVER WAGES

Badly cut about his head, face and neck, as the result of an encounter with T. Takahashi, a Japanese foreman on the Irvine ranch, who was a prisoner in the county jail today, I. Mafeness, also a Japanese, was expected to appear in the district attorney's office here this afternoon and secure a complaint against his alleged assailant.

The wounded Japanese was brought to the office of a local physician about 10 o'clock last night. He was bleeding profusely, having sustained cuts on his forehead, scalp, neck and face. The lobe of his right ear also was slashed.

According to the story, the Japanese told the physician who dressed his wounds, Takahashi attacked him with the neck of a broken bottle during an altercation over wages. It is understood that Mafeness was hired by Takahashi.

The first word of the cutting scrape was telephoned from Tustin to the county jail about 9:30 o'clock last night. Sheriff C. E. Jackson notified Undersheriff E. E. French and Deputy Sheriff H. J. Zabel and requested them to make a search for the Japanese who wielded the knife or bottle.

Lacking specific information as to the location of the Japanese, the deputies could not locate him. Later Sheriff Jackson received word that a Japanese was walking toward Tustin on Laguna avenue with a suitcase in his hand. Jackson drove out to Tustin and met the Japanese on a street.

According to Jackson, there was blood on the suitcase the Japanese was carrying and also on his hands. Jackson searched him and found the neck of a broken bottle in his possession. The Japanese first denied that he knew anything about the affair, according to Jackson, but confessed when he got to the county jail, it is alleged.

READY TO RECOGNIZE STATE SCHOOL PLANS

SACRAMENTO, July 29. — Complete plans for the reorganization of the state department of education as provided in legislation effective at midnight Friday have been perfected. Will C. Wood, superintendent of public instruction, announced. Under the new laws, the normal schools the California polytechnic school for Deaf and blind are placed directly under Wood's supervision.

No change will be made in the personnel of the various institutions and appointments of teachers will be made only on recommendation of the presidents, Wood said.

An assistant director will be named early in August who shall become chief of the division, with such clerical help as will be needed, it was announced. Wood said this extra expense and maintenance of a central office would be more than offset by simplification of procedure and abolition of the pre-audit and internal economy.

Wood's announcement followed a conference of the institution heads held at Stanford university last week.

MEDICAL SHOW MAN FIGHTS ORANGE LAW

Dr. J. L. Berry, who has been conducting free shows in conjunction with his medical lectures at Orange, will appear before Superior Judge R. Y. Williams at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. A writ of habeas corpus secured by him yesterday is returnable at that time.

Dr. Berry purposely violated an emergency ordinance recently drafted by the Orange board of trustees which provided for the payment of $25 a day license to give public medical lectures. He intends to make a test of the validity of the measure, it is understood.

Wednesday evening Dr. Berry gave a lecture in defiance of the city official action and was arrested yesterday morning. He refused to give bail, preferring to remain in the custody of the arresting officer in order that he might obtain a writ of habeas corpus.

The writ was granted and was served on the arresting officer yesterday. At the hearing tomorrow the city of Orange will have to show cause for the doctor's arrest.

Dr. Berry is remembered as the central figure in a recent rotten egg case at Orange.

AUTOIST IN CRASH ADMITS HE SLEPT

Here comes the exceptional motorist, the man who admits that he was asleep at the wheel, so to speak.

He is Roscoe Cook, of Los Angeles, and he drives a Ford.

Roscoe came into the sheriff's office this morning and made a written report of a head-on collision in which his Ford collided with a Buick owned by a woman who lives on the highway between Huntington Beach and Westminster.

"I fell asleep while driving and struck a truck," reads Roscoe's report. "Before I hit the truck I was on the wrong side of the road. On awakening I saw the truck a few feet ahead of me. I immediately turned to the right and the front fender of my car hit the left front wheel of the truck a glancing blow. My car was badly damaged, but the truck was not."

The truck was driven by I. Hinkle, a Long Beach businessman. Hinkle made a report to the sheriff's office yesterday of the same accident. He accused the occupants in the Ford car of being asleep or intoxicated. Now comes the driver of the Ford, who admits that he was asleep.

RICE GROWERS ARE MORE OPTIMISTIC

SACRAMENTO, July 29. — With prospects for marketing of the 1921 rice crop brighter than they have been for some time, due to the willingness of the American Rice Growers' association to assist in handling the Sacramento valley crop, and general good conditions of the crop in the valley, growers are a little more encouraged than they were a few weeks ago.

This is according to reports which come from the rice fields. It is said the crop is progressing nicely in practically every section, and a good yield is looked for.

In Stanislaus county the crop is reported good at this time, and L. J. Lord, a big grower of that section, says the acreage is about what it was last year.

In Glenn county and in Colusa the situation is said to be most favorable for a fine crop. The Glenn-Colusa irrigation district has secured 1500 head of horses which it is said will be prepared to rent growers at $10 per month for the harvest. Last year growers paid $30 per head.

Growers believe they must get from $2 to $2.25 for rice this year to realize a fair profit.

SCORES LANDLORDS WHO BAR CHILDREN

BERKELEY, July 29. — Landlords who prohibit children in their dwellings were denounced by A. S. Johnson of San Francisco, chairman of the New Era committee, in an address before the annual Presbyterian synod of California and Nevada in session here.

"These landlords," he said, "are holding up the progress of the nation."

What he termed "easy divorce laws" and "cheap public dances" also were scored by Johnson.

STEPHENS OPENS ORANGE LEGION CLUBROOMS

Fired by the words of men whose lives have been consecrated to the cause of idealism and tempered by the hallowed spirit of America's sons self-sacrificed that cause, members of Orange Post No. 132, American Legion, dedicated their clubrooms last night.

Once again the men of Orange who wore the uniform during the World War tightened their grip on the torch passed on to them by the dead soldier-poet and his eternal comrades.

William D. Stephens, governor of California, who tasted the proud grief of war within his own family, joined with Buron R. Fitts, state commander of the American Legion, who has seen its horrors both here and over there, at the solemn ceremony.

The Rev. H. J. Hill of the Christian church of Orange voiced the benediction, followed by Ralph Brown, who sang the words of the blinded French soldier's thankful prayer upon the arrival of the Americans to aid his wearied compatriots.

California Remembers.
"California has not forgotten the people," Governor Stephens told the boys of Orange who had gathered in such numbers that the clubrooms were filled to overflowing. "It was my privilege to sign at this session of the legislature some twelve bills passed for the permanent benefit of California's World War veterans. These bills provide for loans to ex-soldiers for farms and homes; vocational education; exemption from certain taxes and many other kindred matters."

"Tonight I want to impress upon you the importance of a bill which will appear on your ballot in November, 1922. It proposes a bond issue of $10,000,000 to carry loans to service men. You will vote 'yes' on that proposition because you and I believe it right to do so."

"God bless the voter who marks 'No' against this measure," said the governor with a benign smile, "because there will be no power on earth desirous of giving the benediction."

"Orange county is very near to my heart," he continued confidentially, "because it is the county of beautiful girls and wonderful women. I know this to be true, because the woman I believe to be the most wonderful in the world came from this county—Mrs. Stephens."

Tells Legion's Aims.
Commander Fitts emphasized the aims of the Legion and cited a few of its major accomplishments during the short time of its existence. He said:

"The American Legion will be the greatest bulwark for good in the nation, and it admits superiority of no organization other than the Grand Army of the Republic. The bond between Legionnaires is greater than that between father and son, or brother and brother, and is exceeded only by the relation which exists between mother and son."

He presented a gavel to Major H. G. Upham, commander of the Orange post, with the compliments of the state department.

Major Upham introduced the speakers, the first of whom was F. C. Drumm, attorney of Orange, who characterized himself as a cap pistol timorously preceding the big guns on the speakers' program.

Violinist Encored.
Miss Elizabeth Wright, accompanied by Mrs. F. A. Grote, was encouraged following her rendition of Kreisler's violin arrangement of the "Hindu Chant." Ralph Brown was accompanied by Harry Garstank.

Lynn T. Coburn, city attorney, made the address of welcome to the governor at the dinner served at the Den O'Sweets, previous to the exercises at the clubrooms. Captain W. O. Hart was the governor's escort and presided at the dinner. A short address was made by the governor at the close of the dinner in which he expressed his appreciation and that of his party of the cordial reception.

In addition to the city officials who sat at the governor's table were included State Senators William J. Carr and Walter Eden. The number of women present at the dinner was particularly pleasing to the governor, he said.

PLAN FUNERAL FOR MRS. EMMA MEAD

According to a wish often expressed during her lifetime, friends of the late Mrs. Emma Mead are invited to attend the funeral services to be held over her remains tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Martha Peters, 1308 West Fifth street.

Mrs. Mead had been a resident of Santa Ana for the past nine years, her husband having preceded her in death three years ago, since which she had made her home with her son, C. D. Murphy, 513 West Fifth street, where her death came suddenly July 27.

She is survived by the son and daughter mentioned, a grandson, Bernard Peters, a nephew, David W. Julian, all of this city, one sister, Mrs. Ruthanna Merritt, and one brother, Charles Doremus, both of New York city.

BALLARD ON JOB

Roy Ballard, who is today beginning his second round as a deputy sheriff, under the provision of a new law which was passed by the last session of the legislature, is "right at home" on the job. Ballard recently returned from Culiacan, Mexico, where he and Roy Davenport, also a former deputy sheriff, operated a ranch. Ballard was a deputy sheriff here for ten consecutive years, serving first under former Sheriff C. E. Ruddock. He resigned last September when he took up the venture in Mexico.

ILL. EXECUTIVE DODGES ARREST IN GRAFT CASE

CHICAGO, July 29.—Len Small, Illinois' indicted governor today went about the people's business but stayed outside of Sangamon county.

The executive, accused of juggling millions of dollars of the state's funds for his own personal benefit, began a tour of Northern Illinois counties with a view to letting contracts for road work.

Down at Springfield, Sheriff Henry Mester, held the bag in the shape of two warrants for the governor's arrest, waiting for his bird to come back to the capital to roost.

The course of procedure which the governor will follow fighting the charges against him, which he declares are the result of a political plot, was mapped out at a two-day meeting of the governor with his five attorneys here. Friends of the governor said the decision was reached to fight the battle out on the original contention that he is not subject to court procedure.

There was every indication that the governor had decided not to submit to arrest.

"I do not propose to be annoyed any longer in serving the people," the governor said. "Others are trying to keep me from looking after the affairs of the people, but I propose to go ahead and do my duty."

"I am going to stick to business as closely as possible and will not tolerate any further interference. I believe I have wasted too much time on them already."

TO HOLD ELECTION

POMONA, July 29.—A bond election must be held soon in order to raise sufficient money to increase the sewer facilities of Pomona, according to the city officials who have been conducting an investigation of sewer systems in other cities, following the discovery that Pomona's sewer system is entirely inadequate.

SMALL PACKAGE OF RADIUM REPRESENTS $77,000 IN MONEY

DENVER, July 29.—One grain of radium, value $77,000, will be sent by registered mail today to Philadelphia for use in the municipal hospitals there. This shipment soon will be followed by another of like size from the Radium Company of Colorado.

The two grains of radium, according to W. L. Kithill, vice president of the company, comprise one-fiftieth of the world's output for a year.

NO CAMOUFLAGE IF YOU'D WIN REAL MAN

WASHINGTON, July 29.—"It's the girl without the camouflage these days that cops the masculine affection, the diamond solitaires and the pretty bungalow."

Thus Norma Talmadge, the heart-breaker of the screens, advised as she hurried to catch a train for New York.

"Be natural," she said. "It is the only safe way. I know very well I'd hate to act a part and then have a man I was interested in find me out. Be natural in all things."

EXPECT PLENTY OF TEACHERS THIS YEAR

SACRAMENTO, July 29.—Although positions in some of the remote school districts remain unfilled, according to reports reaching the state school department, no general shortage of teachers is looked for this year by Will C. Wood, state superintendent of public instruction.

A year ago this time Wood said the schools were short approximately 650 teachers.

Teaching positions in the cities and more populous sections of the state are in the greatest demand, according to Wood, but after all these jobs have been filled, he believes there will be sufficient surplus to take care of the needs of rural districts.

MULLIGANE GIRL SOBS AS DEATH TALE RETOLD

LOS ANGELES, July 29.—Erie Mulligane sobbed bitterly, quietly, in court here today.

Detective George Smith, unmoved, recited from the witness stand the alleged confession she made to him—that she had murdered her newborn, nameless child by strangling it with a bit of lace handkerchief.

Putting both hands before her face, completely hiding the witness from her vision, the disheartened girl apparently could not shut out the vivid word picture that Detective Smith was sketching.

Mrs. Angela C. Kaufman, Erie's "angel," beautifully dressed in white, sat with her arms about Clara Mulligane, aged 15, the accused girl's little sister.

Judge Houser's court, wherein the murder trial is being held, was crowded to the limit today, with a large overflow of the morbidly curious standing outside the doors. Everyone was anxious for a glimpse of the girl who alleges that she was deterred in her need by "a churchman, clubman and respected citizen"—W. Elmer McComb, of Lebanon, Mo.

Indications were that the prosecution would finish its case before the jury today.

ARREST MEXICAN YOUTH

Receiving a call from J. H. Hornaday, second hand dealer, 418 North Sycamore street, City Marshal Sam Jernigan today arrested Marcino Garcia, a Mexican youth, who was declared to have attempted to sell to Hornaday a 15-foot section of leather bying, evidently cut from a larger piece. Hornaday told Jernigan he feared the piece might have been stolen. An investigation is being made.

BURGLARS' LOOT IN LAW OFFICE 'JOB' $500

C. R. Allen, of the law firm of Allen & Lyon, Fullerton, today reported to the sheriff's office that the loot taken from his office Wednesday night will aggregate $500 in currency, checks and various securities.

An investigation made by Deputy Sheriff H. J. Zabel revealed that the outer door of the safe had not been locked and that a key had been left in the inner door. It was an easy "job" for the burglar, Zabel said.

The law offices of Marks & Lauer were robbed the same night, the burglar taking $40 in cash and $40 worth of war savings stamps from the safe.

Zabel has secured finger prints that may lead to the arrest or identification of the thief.

BACK QUINN AS STATE LEGION COMMANDER

PORTERVILLE, July 29.—Representatives of all American Legion posts in Tulare, Kings and Kern counties decided at a preliminary meeting in Tulare to back John R. Quinn of Delano, as candidate for state commander of the Legion.

The election will take place at the department convention in Yosemite the last week in August. Quinn is a University of California graduate and was varsity yell leader in 1912.

The near-tragedy occurred Saturday, after the governor and his two sons had driven to the game warden's camp to inspect fish planting operations at the lake.

LAGUNA STIRRED BY VISIT OF MODERN VENUS TO RESORT

To Quiet Gossip, Seaside Weekly Paper Gives Facts In Case

DANCER IN NUDE POSES

Performance In Studio One of Remarkable Beauty, Says Editor

Staid Laguna Beach, haunt of artists and of others not so artistic, perhaps, but who love the quiet life, has been stirred to its innermost depths by the visit here last Saturday of Miss Olive Anne Alcorn, a well-known dancer, who posed, in her birthday suit, for the delectation of numbers of painters and cameramen.

This was revealed when a copy of today's issue of The Laguna Life, edited by M. S. McLean, was received here.

Declaring that "considerable gossip has been stirred up" by the appearance at Laguna of Miss Alcorn, McLean in one of his front page stories proceeds to give "the facts in the case."

"Miss Alcorn, a dancer since her infancy, has developed a marvellously beautiful body," says McLean. "She is employed at a Los Angeles theater for two purposes; first, to dance at the preformances there, and second, to lecture twice weekly, and in the nude, to women only, on her methods of physical development."

Believing that she had a figure comparable to that of the women of the Greek civilization, Miss Alcorn for publicity purposes and her own satisfaction, wished to get the opinion of our famous artists here upon that subject. Invited and entertained by the Grace Kay Swan studios, she appeared there before a large number of the men and women artists of Laguna and posed for them in the nude. The performance was of quietness and of remarkable beauty, for not only is every line and curve of the dancer's form perfect in contour and not only are the textures of her flesh fine and sensitive, but also she has such absolute control over her muscles that she can strike the most beautiful and difficult pose with a high degree of naturalness and maintain them for apparently an indefinite period."

Poses at Studio.

She was posed at the studio by Mrs. Frost and Mrs. Ferguson, and Messrs. Kleitsch, Cuprien and Yens. The consensus of opinion on the part of the artists was that her form was more Florentine than Greek, in other words, resembled more closely that of the Venus de Medici than the Venus de Milo.

"After the posing at the studio the artists and motion picture camera men removed first to the studio of Mr. Cuprien for a number of poses and thereafter to a secluded cove beyond Nigger canyon. Intensely beautiful was this out-of-door work, for Miss Alcorn posed on the rough volcanic rock, her white body gleaming in the sunlight against a background of dark cliffs against which great breakers boomed and threw their spray."

Remark As To Governor's 'Flying Hair' Is 'Rhetorical Privilege'

Hair restorer has nothing on rhetorical privilege when it is a matter of covering a shining pate.

It is many years since Governor William D. Stephens has felt fully clothed without a hat, but his perhaps less dignified but more youthful days were recalled by L. F. Coburn, Orange city attorney, in his address of welcome to the Governor at the dedication of the Orange Legion post clubrooms last night.

Speaking with warmth of his first meeting with the Governor, whose bald head gleamed benignly under the strong light, Coburn said:

"And there he stood—his hair flying in the air."

Reminiscently the Governor stroked his ghostly pompadour.

CHECK UP ON FIRMS WHO ARE DELINQUENT ON LICENSES IN S. A.

City Clerk Ed Vegely, assisted by the day shift of the police force, today was checking up on business licenses.

This is being done in compliance with instructions from the city council.

The officers are required to make a check on the licenses every quarter.

While the majority of the business houses and establishments have licenses, the authorities find a few here and there who have either grossly violated the law requiring them to have licenses or overlooked the matter unintentionally.

SAYS AUTOISTS LACK RESPECT FOR DEAD

Many men and women who drive automobiles have not the respect for the dead that was shown by persons who drove vehicles in the days before the advent of the automobile.

This is the opinion of C. M. Smith, 523 East Pine street, who today voiced a protest against the custom of those motorists who break across funeral processions in their haste to get to their destination—haste which, he says, is in many cases not occasioned by urgency.

Smith said that he has noticed frequently infraction of the rules of respect and courtesy formerly shown the dead as their bodies were being carried to their final resting place. Time and again, he said, he has seen motor drivers cutting through a funeral procession.

An incident of this kind occurred this week when Smith and others were following the body of a close friend to the cemetery. The incident aroused his ire.

"Before the day of the automobile it was the custom of a driver of a vehicle to halt while a funeral procession passed," he said.

"It was also the custom for persons to uncover while a procession passed. Do you see any of these things today? I should say not, except in rare cases. In the early days drivers would wait until the cortege went by, or drive around a block or two, if they were in a hurry."

"I trust the motorists will come to their senses one of these days and get back to the former customs."

"Certainly it is as little as one can do to pause for a few moments for a funeral cortege to pass—and with the automobile hearse used today the delay is very brief."

ELEPHANTS NOW COST $3.34 SQUARE INCH

CHICAGO, July 29. — Elephants opened strong today and showed a tendency to be bullish. Cacthymen are quoted at $3.34 per square inch. Leopards are up and Indian biterons are quoted at $5000, f. o. b. San Francisco.

For these excellent reasons Lincoln park will get none of the late arrivals, for its zoo. The cargo recently arrived in San Francisco and quotations on the animals were sent to the various park associations and others desiring wild animals.

Prior to the war, elephants could be purchased at $1.67 the square inch, or about $1500 for a medium-sized elephant. Now they are quoted $3000 and upward—mostly upward.

Leopards that sold for $400 each before the war are now quoted at $1200, and snakes that were offered at $500, now cost $1500, and the more expensive reptiles cost even more.

MUST INSTALL PHONES IF PAY GUARANTEED

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29. — Non-payment of past service does not justify refusal by a public utility of future service if payment for such future service is guaranteed, the state railroad commission decided here in ordering the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company to install telephone service for the Bay Cities, Sales and Advertising company.

The telephone company had declined to outfit the other firm with telephones and an appeal was taken to the commission.

FRESH IMPETUS GIVEN PAVING WORK ON MAIN

Contractors Going Forward Rapidly With Improvement Operations

George R. Curtis, who has the contract for paving Main street north from Seventh to the city limits, with seven-inch reinforced concrete, will be pouring concrete on the blocks between Seventh and Washington within two weeks, in the opinion of Edward Dahl, street superintendent, as expressed today.

In an effort to hasten the work of installing a new gas main on the street, J. C. Hayden, district manager of the Southern Counties Gas company, called working crews from Fullerton and Anaheim on the job here today. It was expected that installation of the line would be completed to Washington by tomorrow night. In event that it is Curtis will start Monday rolling the subgrade between the two streets concerned.

Sewer connections on the street are expected to be completed as far north as Washington by tomorrow night. The city today was beyond that point in its work of putting in water service connections where needed. With the gas, water and sewer forces out of the way Curtis will proceed at once with the work of preparing the subgrade.

Starts at Seventh

He is starting at Seventh street and working north because of the fact that operations of the utility companies of necessity had to begin at this point. It was hoped, and was more or less expected, that the first paving operations under the Curtis contract would start at the city limits and proceed south. Could this have been done it would have very materially lessened the time during which the unsatisfactory detour from Chapman street into this city would have to be used.

Steele Finley, who has the contract for the paving on Main, between Fourth and Seventh, was today preparing the subgrade for those three blocks, and it is expected that he will be pouring concrete for the base in a few days. This work is to be six-inch base and two-inch asphalt surface. The pavement north is not to be surfaced.

It was with no little satisfaction that business houses on Main, between First and Second street, saw that block this morning again open to traffic. One turn thing after another has occurred to delay the paving of these three blocks. The crew had to lay off yesterday afternoon, because of the failure of asphalt ordered a week ago to arrive. Work was resumed this morning. The block between Second and Third was completed today and probably will be thrown open to traffic by tomorrow.

Finley is the contractor on this job.

He started the surfacing work Tuesday and would have had the three blocks completed easily by tomorrow night had not a breakdown in his mixing plant occurred Wednesday. Indications today point to completing the three blocks by tomorrow night. If this is done the full street south of Fourth will again be open to traffic Sunday. It has been closed for about three months.

Business men on the street today were discussing plans for celebrating the reopening of the street with a street dance sometime during the coming week.

The city is playing in luck in the matter of rebuilding portions of the base on First street, between Main and the Santa Fe tracks. It was estimated that the repairs would cost at least $10,000 for the repair. The surface has been removed by Contractor Curtis and it is believed that the repairs will not exceed 15,000 square feet.

Base in Fair Shape

The base is in better condition than was indicated by appearance of the surface. It is possible that when the tearing up process has progressed further it will be found that more base will have to be repaired than is figured necessary at this time.

Curtis has started operations on the east end of the work. The first work was done by hand and the crew laid off yesterday while Curtis figured the cost by hand and the cost by using compressed air drills.

First street is officially closed, although automobiles have been passing over it to some extent ever since the work started. It is expected the street will be completed within the next six weeks or two months.

NOTED INVENTOR AND 'BEST CHUMS'

PRISONER GLAD HE IS PAYING FOR ATTACK

Within the bleak walls of San Quentin one of the convicts, known only as No. 35,128, looks upon "that little spot of blue, that prisoners call the sky."

He was sentenced to an indeterminate term of from one to fourteen years.

And at Anaheim there is a frail woman, whose nerves are yet unstrung, and in whose eyes there is at times the shadow of terror.

For Prisoner No. 35,128 attacked the woman on the night of June 9, last, and it is for that attack that the man is "doing time" in the state penitentiary.

The prisoner, outside of San Quentin, is known as Emile Crespine, of Anaheim.

And while he goes daily through the prison routine, he ruminates upon his crime and upon the circumstances leading up to his confession to Deputy Sheriff O. K. Carr of Orange county.

Makes Confession

For it was a confession that put Crespine in San Quentin, and it was Carr who was directly responsible for Crespine admitting the attack upon the woman, Mrs. Blanche Staley, of Anaheim.

As Crespine ponders, he holds no grudge against Carr, nor does he regret having made the confession, according to a letter that prisoner has written to the local deputy sheriff.

"I don't know how long I shall be here," Crespine wrote. "I am only glad that I am paying for my mistake."

"I thank you for the advice you gave me about making the confession by which I saved my money and also some of the county's money."

"You treated me like a father. Now, Mr. Carr, my wife and myself have nothing against you, for you did your duty, as every officer should do."

Profuse With Thanks

"If you see my wife, will you tell her that I wrote you thanking you for your kindness toward us?"

"Regards to Mr. Stacy."

Crespine was alleged to have dragged Mrs. Staley into the middle of a street at Anaheim, holding one hand over her mouth.

Mrs. Staley's screams attracted the attention of two young men, who ran to her rescue.

Crespine fled, but was later arrested on suspicion and held in the county jail.

Officer Carr held a lengthy conference with the prisoner, who finally admitted his guilt.

The confession was made in the presence of Mrs. Crespine.

Mrs. Staley for some days following the attack upon her was in a state of collapse.

AMBER DEPOSITS

OTTAWA, July 29.—For purposes of recovering amber deposits from the sands on the west shore of Lake Cedar, Manitoba, J. Dix Rogers, of Toronto, has been granted a twenty-year lease of about 235 acres. The lease is renewable for a further twenty-one years, and the lessee pays $1 an acre per annum and five per cent royalty on the value of amber recovered. The lease also provides that $5,000 must be expended on operations during the twelve months.

TAKE HEED, MEN WHO HUNT! FOR NEW LAWS ON GAME NOW IN OPERATION

Change In Deer Season Is Perhaps Most Important Ruling

'BUGS' GET 'WISED UP'

Legal Period For Killing Ducks Now From Oct. 1 To Jan. 15

Fishermen and hunters — are you familiar with the new game laws which went into effect today?

Santa Ana sportsmen who would rather pass a day chasing ducks or quail or following the trail of deer or throwing in the rod after finicky fish than a week at the best resort in the country, today were attempting to absorb knowledge on a score of new game laws.

For many measures went into effect at midnight last night that were passed at the last session of the state legislature. Many of them are important and local sporting goods dealers today were urging fish and game bugs "get up on the law."

Possibly the most important law of all is the changing of deer season. Deer may now be killed only between September 15 and October 15 in this district.

As to Ducks and Geese

Ducks, geese, mud-hens and jack snipe are open to the hunters between October 1 and January 15 under the new provisions.

Valley, mountain and desert quail season is now between November 1 and January 15, except in Humboldt, Del Norte and Siskiyou counties.

Cottontail and brush rabbits had better keep under cover between November 1 and January 15, for that is when it is now lawful for hunters to bring them down.

Other laws of interest to sportsmen are those that now prohibit the sale of deer, prohibit the possession of any kind of gun and game in any game refuge except under permit and prohibit the dumping of the refuse of any refinery into any waters of the state.

On Fishing Hours

Anglers are now prohibited from fishing for game fish between one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise. Black bass in district 4 E (which includes certain lakes in the middle of San Diego county) may now be pulled out of the water during the entire year.

Another thing — don't tote firearms into a game preserve. If you do you will be violating another of the numerous laws which went into effect at midnight last night.

Furthermore, with reference to the firearms, Game Warden Ed Adkinson is determined to enforce the new law strictly so far as the Cleveland game preserve is concerned.

Even the more or less innocuous .22 calibre rifle may not be packed into a preserve, according to Adkinson.

The Cleveland refuge embraces the upper parts of the Trabuco and Santiago canyons and includes Saddleback mountain.

SHOW REASON FOR LESS MILLIONAIRES

WASHINGTON, July 29. — Two explanations were given by government officials why only sixty-five persons reported an income of $1,000,000 or more during the calendar year 1919, against sixty-seven in 1918 and more in the previous years.

One cause of the decrease, it was said, was the cessation of huge war profits and the other was the heavy investment in tax exempt securities.

It was pointed out that the net income of the sixty-five individuals was $152,630,245, as against $137,489,892 for the sixty-seven millionaires in 1918. The taxes collected on this class amounted to $99,026,996 in 1919 and $88,885,240 in 1918.

For 1919 the average tax was $1,523,492.25, while for 1918 it was $1,326,645.51. In 1917 an average tax of $776,063 was paid by 141 millionaires on a net income of $306,835,514.

The statement from which the 1919 figures were compiled is of a preliminary character. When the detailed report is made out, it may be possible to speculate on the identity of the millionaires from the states in which the $1,000,000 incomes are reported. These data are not yet available.

Tables show that of the total net incomes $19,859,491,448 reported in 1918 there was a personal exemption of $9,242,203,200 dividends amounting to $2,453,744,825, and interest on government obligations not wholly exempt from tax of $63,577,222, totaling $11,941,445,247.

DEFEAT OF NORRIS BILL IS CONCEDED

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Failure in the senate of the Norris bill to create a government agricultural export financing corporation virtually was conceded today by Republican leaders, and the Agriculture committee of which Senator Norris is chairman, decided to attempt drafting of a compromise substitute to be brought.

Man Invents Walnut Picker That Picks 'Em Slick As Whistle

Enter P. V. Stump, of Hawthorne, a trapper. Not a trapper of wild animals, but nothing more wild than the gentle English walnut.

Stump, who is employed upon the ranch of Dan Minter, two miles west of Santa Ana, on West Fifth street, has invented a device that accelerates walnut picking to a marked degree.

He was more than two years getting the picker developed. He demonstrated the device upon the floor of The Register's editorial rooms today, and the picker picked up the walnuts from the floor as slick as a whistle.

And Stump says that it will pick up walnuts from heavy soil that has been rolled, or from sandy soil, with equal dispatch. The machine will pick up from one to six walnuts at one fell swoop.

Stump hasn't applied for a patent yet. He will, however, provide investigation shows that walnut growers want his device. The investigation is being made.

DIVING BEAUTY WHO WAS ONCE HELD HERE FILES DIVORCE SUIT

In addition to facing trial in Venice tomorrow on a charge of disturbing the peace, resulting from a quarrel with his wife, Guy Musser, deep sea diver of Venice, today was filed in Los Angeles by Mrs. Amelia Musser, his wife. The basis of her suit is alleged cruel treatment.

Mrs. Musser is also a diver and she and her husband have been employed at the Venice amusement pier.

Mrs. Musser was in the limelight here in 1919, when she deserted her children and husband and came to Santa Ana and bigamously married John Carter, of San Francisco. She took her two children to the home of her sister and asked her to take care of them for the day.

Later she and Carter were located in San Francisco, and in September, 1919, she pleaded guilty to a charge of bigamy before Judge R. Y. Williams, of the Orange county superior court. She was given a probation sentence and placed in charge of the True Love home at Los Angeles, where it is said she remained until about a year ago, when she and her husband patched up their troubles.

Carter was sentenced to San Quentin.

YEAR'S ARRESTS SHOW 514 GAIN SAYS REPORT

Tabulated figures taken from the official records in the district attorney's office show that there were 514 more arrests recorded for the fiscal year ending July 30, 1921, than for the fiscal year of 1920.

This would indicate that criminal and misdemeanor offenses are on the increase, but figures covering a period of six years back show a fluctuation in crime, alternating from year to year.

Statistics compiled by Deputy Sheriff J. M. Gunnett show there were 1,444 arrests recorded in the district attorney's office for the fiscal year ending July 30, last, while there were but 927 for the previous fiscal year.

The largest number of arrests were made in the fiscal year ending July 30, 1918, the total being 1,899. The fiscal year of 1916 was a close second, with 1,653 arrests.

Many Motor Law Cases

A large majority of arrests made each year were for violations of the motor vehicle law, the total for the six years being 5,541. Miscellaneous offenses for the same period registered 2,361. Total arrests for the six years were 5,866.

Other comparative totals were as follows: For drunkenness, 307; driving while drunk, 97; selling liquor, 214; insane, 215; vagrancy, 253.

The period covered in the statistical record represents the time in which C. E. Jackson has held the office of sheriff. It was pointed out that the large number of arrests is due to the spirit of co-operation between the sheriff's office and the district attorney's office.

Comparatively few complaints have been issued in vain. In other words, about 98 per cent of the offenders have been apprehended, and in the majority of cases they have been prosecuted and convicted. Credit is given both the district attorney's office and the sheriff's office in this connection.

"Dry" Leader Asks Report.

The statistical report was compiled at the request of S. T. Montgomery, Southern California, superintendent for the California Anti-Saloon league. In a letter to Sheriff C. E. Jackson, Montgomery stated that similar reports are being compiled in every state in the union.

Certain interests, Montgomery says, have tried through their propaganda to make the impression that the country is in a tremendously big crime wave.

Sheriff Jackson detailed Deputy Sheriff Gunnett to compile the statistical report. Gunnett has devoted all of his spare time to the work for the past two weeks.

Since the advent of prohibition there has been a decrease in the number of arrests on charges of drunkenness but no striking change in the number of arrests on charges of driving automobile while intoxicated.

COUNTY SCHOOLS COST INCREASE OVER MILLION IN YEAR, IS REVEALED

Superintendent Mitchell In Annual Report Tells Figures

SALARIES SHOW GAIN

Average Daily Attendance and General Expenses Are Set Forth

During the past fiscal year Orange county expended $2,244,580.09 for its schools, including buildings.

This is according to the annual report of County School Superintendent R. P. Mitchell.

During the fiscal year 1919-1920 Orange county spent $1,177,692.12. Comparative figures show that in the year just passed $1,066,887.97 more was spent than the year previous.

Last year $1,233,640.12 was spent on elementary schools as against $66,931.93 the year before; $969,240.07 on high schools, against $481,119.20 and $11,699.90 against $26,640.99 for kindergartens.

Mitchell's reports show the average daily attendance in the ten kindergartens of the county was 538 last year compared to 375 the previous year while the enrollment was 954, consisting of 483 boys and 471 girls compared to an enrollment of 746 of which 399 were boys and 347 girls.

Salaries Increase

The average salary paid kindergarten teachers was $1,274.74 last year as against $852.12 the year before.

From 1920-1921 there were 48 elementary schools in the county, 359 teachers and there was an average daily attendance of 9,763. The average salary paid women teachers in the elementary schools was $1,468.58.

From 1919-1920 there were 324 teachers in the elementary schools and there was an average attendance of $184. The average salary for women teachers was $968.88.

The reports show that in the year just ended there were 6,081 boys enrolled and 5,762 girls compared with 5,346 boys and 5,028 girls the year before.

BIG LEAGUE TEAMS IN GRUELLING RACE

Four Nines Bunched In Chase For American and National League Flags

By HENRY L. FARRELL

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

NEW YORK, July 29.—Neck and neck all the way seems the prospect for the major league pennant races. Seldom, if ever, have the battles for the championships been as closely contested and as uniformly alike as they are in both leagues.

Today, Pittsburgh, leading the National league and Cleveland, out in front in the American league, have both won 60 games and lost 34.

The New York clubs, both acting the roles of runners up, are but a fraction dissimilar. The Giants have won 58 games and the Yanks 57. Both have lost 34 games.

Pittsburgh goes right along, clinging to the lead. Much depends for the rest of the journey on what the Pirate pitchers will be able to do under the strain.

The Giants are battling along right within striking distance of the leading Pirates, but with a club that seems to yet lack what McGraw wants in it.

The Giant pitching has been one of the greatest handicaps so far in the race. Efforts are being made to secure another experienced hurler, but the attempt to secure Lee Meadows from the Phils seems to have fallen through.

The acquisition of the hard hitting "Frisch" Muesel, will help the club on the offense but the most glaring need of the club is defensive strength in the box.

Cleveland is out in the lead in the American league principally because they have the fighting spirit. The Indians have encountered enough this season in the way of accidents and disappointments to send a less courageous club down to the bottom.

GIANT RALLY AGAIN WHIPS PITTSBURGH

COTTON GROWN ON TREES IS SUCCESSFUL

GUADALAJARA, Mex., July 29.—Remarkable progress has been made in some districts of the Pacific coast region of Mexico in growing caravana cotton, according to reports received here.

This species of cotton is grown on trees and is the outcome of a long series of experiments which have been conducted in the more tropical parts of Mexico, Australia and other countries for many years past.

It is stated that the growing of this cotton on a large commercial scale in Mexico will be attempted by a number of planters, now that the revolutionary and banditry period apparently is over. Even during the several years that these disturbances were going on the production of caravana cotton on a limited scale was carried on.

Experiments in upper Mexico and the United States did not prove altogether successful, but in Southern Mexico the plant grows well. It has been demonstrated that the plant grows best in a hot climate, with not too much rainfall. The seed was introduced into Mexico in June, 1908, by Prof. Pehr Olofson-Setter, who planted them at La Zacaupa botanical station on the Pacific coast, and who, finding that climate suitable, afterward planted 185 acres. It is estimated that the land especially adapted to this plant in Mexico is some 2,000,000 acres on the southwestern coast, lying between Mazatlan on the north and the Guatemalan border on the south. This land is now worth $5 to $10 gold an acre.

Has Black Seed
Caravana cotton has black seed, similar to that of Egyptian cotton, and the seed comes out clean and flossless from the gin. Being long staple, only the roller gin is suitable for handling it. There are two varieties of the caravana cotton, one known as wool caravana, which is adapted for mixing with wool, and the other, which is more valuable, known as silk caravana, which has a long silky fiber of great strength, that can be mixed without detection with some qualities of silk. It is stated.

The advantages claimed for caravana cotton are its large production per acre, its large yield of lint, and the fact that it is a perennial. The caravana tree, or rather, bush, will grow to twenty feet or more in height, but it is usually trimmed every year. It will begin to bear at seven to eight months after sowing and will yield profitably without replanting for five to eight years. In starting a plantation the land has to be very carefully prepared, but after that it needs little cultivation beyond weeding under the trees.

Yield Is Heavy
Trees are planted in rows, seven feet apart each way, which gives about 900 trees to the acre. With 90 to 500 bolls, each tree bears from four to seven pounds of seed cotton, or about one and one-third to two and one-third pounds of clean lint. Under favorable circumstances caravana cotton in Mexico has yielded 2356 pounds of seed cotton and from this have been obtained 1200 pounds of clean lint per acre. The yield of lint in this cotton is remarkable, varying from 48 to 62 per cent.

The cotton is gathered from January to May. Picking in the first years is performed by pulling down the branches, but when the tree is full grown it has to be done from stepladders. The bolls on large trees run about fifty to a pound, and this large size of bolls diminishes the difficulty of picking from such high bushes.

LOS ANGELES TRIMS SACRAMENTO OUTFIT

LOS ANGELES, July 29.—Los Angeles came out with the long end of a 4-to-3 score in yesterday's game after a pitching duel between Kunz of the visitors and Crandall of the Angels. Each pitcher allowed but eight hits, and the game was free from errors. Crandall granted one base on balls.

Sacramento . . . . . 3 8 0
Los Angeles . . . . . 4 8 0
Sacramento—Kunz and Cook; Los Angeles—Crandall and Stanage.

SAME OLD STORY

PORTLAND, Ore., July 29.—Portland dropped another game to Vernon yesterday, 8 to 3. Plummer, the Oakland high school boy recently signed by McCredie, pitched good ball for six innings, but poor support accounted for most of the runs and many of the hits against him. Smith homed into the left field bleachers in the ninth with Locker on base ahead of him.

Vernon . . . . . 8 14 1
Portland . . . . . 3 11 3
Vernon—Dell and Murphy; Portland—Plummer, Ross and Fisher.

SCOTT HALTS LEWIS

OAKLAND, July 29.—Scott stopped Duffy Lewis' batting streak yesterday, and San Francisco defeated Salt Lake, 7 to 1. Lewis hit in thirty-two consecutive games, but yesterday Scott blanked him. Kallio was responsible for six of the Seals' runs, and was taken out in the sixth inning, after he had forced in Kamm by allowing a walk with the bases full.

Salt Lake . . . . . 1 7 1
San Francisco . . . . . 7 11 1
Salt Lake—Kallio, Gould and Dorman; San Francisco—Scott and Agnew.

SEATTLE TAKES TWO

SEATTLE, July 29.—Seattle won two games from Oakland, making three victories, the scores being 4 to 3 and 5 to 3. A double by Tex Wister, who pinch-hit in the ninth inning, scored two runners and won the first game for Seattle. The second game was a pitchers' battle between Gardner and Kremer, a three-run rally by Seattle in the seventh inning deciding the contest.

(First game)
Oakland . . . . . 3 8 1
Seattle . . . . . 4 8 2
Oakland—Alten and Koehler; Seattle—Schorr and Tobin.

PAT, CAMPERS' IDOL, TAKES LONG TRAIL

MONROVIA, July 29.—"Sacred to the memory of 'Pat,' as fine a forest ranger's horse as ever helped patrol a reserve."

This is about the way Fletcher Haywood, nursing his bruises, had decided to have inscribed on the saddle which he will throw across his next mount—a saddle to be trimmed with the skin of the five-foot rattlesnake which indirectly caused the death of "Pat," than whom there was no more intelligent nor gentle horse to be encountered along the entire Monrovia peak trail.

In fact, "Pat" was one of the attractions of the national forest and annual campers, packing gear to go to the big Santa Ana canyon, would ask, "Wonder if 'Pat' is there this year?"

No, "Pat" is gone; he went, fear-driven, down a chasm bordering the trail when the "rattler" raised himself in the path and warned "Look out! I'm going to strike!"

For thirty feet down the chasm Ranger Haywood went with his horse. Then the latigo holding the saddle broke and the rider was hurled, although badly cut and bruised. Down after horse and rider came the snake, more angered by the unexpected plunge. But the ranger killed the reptile and anxiously peered to further depths.

It was as he feared: Way down there, at the foot of the canyon, "Pat" lay still—very still, from a broken neck.

NOW TURKISH ARMY HAS A JOAN OF ARC

ANGORA, Turkey, July 29.—A Turkish Joan of Arc, Aishe Hanum, has started a woman's fighting brigade against the Greeks. Her organization, called the Kain brigade, has recently taken part in active fighting and she is constantly enrolling new recruits.

This is the first time in Turkish history that a woman has been so militantly active. She has been dubbed by the people of Anatolia, "The Conqueror." Her personality is in distinct contrast to the beautiful Halide Edib Hanum, the writer and graduate of the American Constantinople college, who has been so active in Nationalist politics for two years and fled to the interior in March, 1920, to escape imprisonment by the allies.

Aishe Hanum is a stern, dark woman of the soil, aged 52, who sees visions and believes she is inspired by the Prophet. She wears a veil, but has cast aside skirts. She carries a rifle and when not at the front goes through the villages accompanied by her fifteen-year-old son, urging the peasants to contribute food and money and their able-bodied women to cast out the enemy stranger from the homeland.

As Nationalist soldiers, the uniform of the Kadin brigade corresponds to that of its leader. Indirectly, Aishe Hanum is doing as much as Halide Hanum to emancipate the Turkish woman. When she began her work, the Turkish men, who dislike to have women interfere in politics, tried to force her to return to her farm. But, by the courage born of her visions, Aishe Hanum has continued until she is recognized as an aid to the Nationalist cause.

SEATTLE BOY TAKES JUNIOR SWIM TITLE

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 29.—Mitro Konowaloff of Seattle, Wash., is the new junior one-mile swimming champion of the A. A. U., and Mrs. Vonnie Malcolmson of Detroit, is the new diving title holder. They led the field in these two events at the national swimming meet here late yesterday.

Ferdinand Erlich of Detroit, followed Konowaloff, 75 yards behind. Mrs. Malcolmson won the diving honors over Marie Peterson of Minneapolis.

TAX IS TOUGH ON MILLION A YEAR

WASHINGTON, July 29.—People who are making $1,000,000 or more net income are paying the government practically two-thirds of it in taxes, according to preliminary statistics of income for 1919, issued by the Internal revenue bureau. There were sixty-five of these taxpayers paying an average of $1,523,492 each, the average rate of tax being 64.87 per cent.

The preliminary statistics do not show the taxes in classes above $1,000,000 but the net income of individuals in the class from $1,000,000 to $1,500,000 is given as $41,668,483.

YANKS MAY RESUME WAR RISK TO JAN. 1

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Over a billion dollars of U. S. Government life insurance has been applied for, and the applications approved, according to an announcement by Director C. R. Forbes, of the bureau of war risk insurance today, the number of policies of this converted insurance being 298,386 covering a committed value of $1,000,000,000. This amount, $2,983,886 has already been awarded in meeting insurance claims.

An analysis of the 298,386 applications which have been approved shows that the plans of permanent government life insurance have been selected by former service men as follows:

Ordinary life, 41,840, representing $178,056,500 insurance; twenty-payment life, 90,092, $360,147,500; thirty-payment life, 8,919, $42,721,500; twenty-year endowment, 129,421, $299,597,500; thirty-year endowment, 15,675, $65,298,500; endowment at age 62, 12,439, $56,880,000.

Regardless of how long a service man's wartime or term insurance has been lapsed, or canceled, or regardless of how long he has been discharged from the service, a new rule of the treasury department permits him to reinstate or reinstate and convert, at any time before January 1, 1922 upon application and payment of only two monthly premiums in the amount he wishes to reinstate together with a satisfactory statement of health.

Reinstatement up to three months after lapse may be effected without a physical examination.

FISH PACK OF STATE VALUED $19,202,318

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—"The First Baptist church, of Orange, with commercial fisheries of California are one of the greatest boosters this state has and have a right to be enrolled on the honor list of the B.B. organization."

"In 1920 the estimated value of the fish pack in California was $19,202,318, and to this must be added the value of fish consumed in its fresh state, which would bring the grand total up to more than $25,000,000."

"There were 106 plants operated in packing fish in 1920, worth $7,922,587. To man these plants required 1097 employees, and 5269 were engaged in catching fish. Add to this the number engaged in handling fish and it will make a total of at least 15,000 engaged in our fisheries."

"California now leads all the states of the Union in its commercial fishing industry."

Thousands of Miles of Fish
Frank M. Newbert, president of the California Fish and Game commission, made the foregoing statements. Continuing, he said:

"There were 1,062,996 cases of sardines packed in California in 1920, which are equal to 55,462,738 cases, which, if laid end to end, would be 13,422,408 inches long, or 4947 miles in length. To fill these cans 463,055,924 fish were required, which, laid end to end, would make a line 3,877,193,016 inches long or about two and one-half times greater than the earth's circumference."

"The tuna packed in California during 1920 numbered 85,645 cases, or 42,781,688 cans, which, laid side by side, would have made a line 2925 miles long. To fill these cans were required 1,002,774 fish, which, in length, would reach from San Francisco to Los Angeles."

California Leads Union
"California is now recognized as the greatest commercial fishing state in the union today, and officials of the federal bureau of fisheries credit this state with being one of the most foremost in the country in the development of the fishing industry."

"It is the aim of the fish and game commission to increase the stocking of the lakes and streams with fish every year, and we are going ahead of the automobiles with pack animals to insure the anglers with plenty of sport and food fish."

"We started this commission fifty years ago with a $5000 appropriation. Today the income of the commission is more than $460,000 a year. We have twenty-two hatcheries and many stations, and these are being enlarged to meet the constant increasing demand of the sportsmen who love the out of doors."

"Famous men from all over the world come to whip our streams. The fishing and hunting in California are unequalled the world over, and this state has a right to be known as the sportsman's paradise."

"We have 10,000 lakes in California, we have 100 unnamed mountains, all of which are more than 13,000 feet high. We have plenty of game, we have plenty of fish, and it is the aim of the fish and game commission to insure the conservation of the fish for the future generations of anglers, and at the same time give the present generation plenty of health-giving recreation and ample fish food. Truly, it may be said that we have reverted to the time of the Indian in California. There is plenty of fish and game for food purposes. The angler can catch more than he wants for himself and is enabled to give a fine mess to his friends."

No Salary to Commission
"This is as it should be. There is nothing like a fine mess of fish; there is nothing like coming home with a full bag and being privileged to supply a friend. It adds to the pleasure of the sport in this generous inclination."

"The fish and game commission is the only commission in California which renders a quarterly report of its expenses. It also renders a yearly account of its expenses and income and a biennial report of the same condition. The commission is absolutely self-supporting, and contrary to opinions held in certain quarters, none of the three commissioners, M. J. Connell, E. L. Bosqui or myself, receive a cent in salary. Our expenses do not average more than $20 a month to the state. I know that all of the commissioners actually spend more than this, but they do it out of their own pockets."

Bass Killing Ducks
Newbert says he has plenty of trouble on his hands with the fighting bass, which are killing off ducks. "When the mother duck starts to cross some of the larger lakes with her brood," he says, "she is startled when she turns around and notices that some of her little ones have disappeared beneath the water. The bass come up and take the little ones away. Now we have to save the little ducks, and I don't know how we can beat some sense into the heads of these mother ducks and ward off the attacks of the bass."

$1,000,000 MEMORIAL FOR MEXICAN HEROES
MEXICO CITY, July 29.—Construction of an ornate repository for the bodies of Mexican war heroes has been ordered by President Obregon, who has directed that $1,000,000 be devoted to making the monument and its environs one of the most beautiful spots in Mexico City. A jury of architects will decide on the plans and specifications during the centenary celebration which is to be held next September, and work will start immediately. All Mexican architects are invited to submit plans, the winner receiving $20,000 and the privilege of inspecting the erection of the monument at a liberal salary.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

PASADENA.—Fewer requests for lowering of taxes have been made this year than ever before in Pasadena during a sitting of the board of equalization, according to members of the city directorate, which, ex-officio, has to pass on the assessments. A number of educational and charitable institutions have been given 33 1-3 per cent reductions. Among them are the Y. W. C. A., Y. M. C. A., Day Nursery, Children's Training School and Humane society. Except for a few personal minor adjustments, these are all the claims that have been made.

PORTERVILLE.—One-half acre of land owned by the Pioneer Land company of this city, in the heart of Murray Park has just been donated to the city of Porterville, according to a communication just mailed by the land company officials to Mayor W. S. Sibley. Two and one-half acres of privately owned land still remain in the park and it is said that an effort will be made to secure this for park purposes also.

RIVERSIDE.—Fifty "underprivileged" children were made happy today when they were bundled into automobiles waiting to transport them to Camp Emerson, near Idyllwild, in the San Jacinto mountains. The cars and a number of trucks for the kiddies' baggage were provided by public-spirited citizens. The movement is sponsored by the City Home League, which succeeded, with the aid of other organizations, in raising $1400 for the project, popularly known as the Kiddie Kamp.

EL CENTRO.—The so-called McDevitt plan for colonization of ex-service men on tracts within Imperial valley has been rejected by a committee representing the American Legion, Department of California. The plan was disapproved as "not being for the best interests" of the veterans, it became known here. The Legion committee, of which Walter B. Kibbey, of El Centro, is chairman, has been investigating the project since early in March.

POMONA.—A meeting of the county deputy fire wardens of this section to organize plans for combating forest fires, now imminent because of hot weather, will be held here soon, according to word from the office of County Forester Flintham in Los Angeles, say Charles P. Bayer, secretary of the Pomona chamber of commerce, and J. M. Paige, city park superintendent. Both of whom are deputy fire wardens. Among other deputy wardens in this vicinity are Frank Knight, Fred Palmer of Walnut, Frederick Lewis, 2nd, of the Diamond Bar ranch, a number of his employees and C. E. Groninger of San Dimas.

One lot of children's Milan hats, also mixed braids to close out at $1.00 each. Mode Millinery, 417 North Main street, Santa Ana.

EVENING SALUTATION

"Who does the best his circumstance allows, Does well, acts nobly; angels could no more."

SANTA ANA ON DIRECT ROUTE

Perhaps it is not generally known, but it is entirely probable that ere long Santa Ana will be on the most direct and most traveled transcontinental route for automobiles.

When the Holtville-Yuma road is completed next winter, San Diego and Santa Ana will get the bulk of the automobile traffic now entering Los Angeles by way of Needles, Barstow and San Bernardino. This traffic is estimated at between 20,000 and 30,000 machines annually.

According to the San Diego Union, "The route from any part of the southwest to Los Angeles is shorter through San Diego, but for some reason not openly declared by the Los Angeles people, Los Angeles has always opposed the San Diego-Yuma road. Los Angeles manages to dislike everything that is beneficial to San Diego, even when it helps Los Angeles. History does not tell us the name of the dog in the manger, but we believe he would answer to the name of our selfish northern neighbor."

The route through San Diego is not only shortest, but it is the best in every other particular. Scenically, it is a hundred per cent superior to the monotonous desert route through Needles and San Bernardino. We are assured by representative citizens of Arizona that our route is preferred by the citizens of the southwest as far east as Douglas, and that if the Holtville-Yuma road is completed San Diego will get the automobile traffic of all the region between this city and El Paso.

The most curious thing about that shipping board shipwreck is that none of the various captains of industry who have been in charge of it are responsible for the wreckage.

CITY TRAFFIC

The New York postoffice is resuming the use of pneumatic tubes to dispatch mail underground, after having discarded them three years ago. The object is the expedition of the mail, which is subject to much delay when handled in the usual way. A New York paper suggests that the city gains as much in traffic relief by getting 50 mail trucks off the streets as it does by the increased speed of the mail.

Street traffic is becoming a serious problem everywhere. The small town has to wrestle with it, just as the metropolis does. The multiplication of automobiles and trucks has gone ahead faster than anybody could have expected, and faster than communities could handle the situation. Some cities are fortunate enough to have been laid out originally on a liberal plan, with wide main thoroughfares. They have comparatively little trouble. Others, with narrow business streets, are reduced to all sorts of expedients to keep traffic moving and avoid stifling their business activity by clogged transportation.

The problem is being solved, little by little. Order is coming out of chaos. Experience and bold innovations are showing the way. Still there is much to be learned about the relation of street width to volume of traffic, and the best ways to direct vehicle traffic and park cars and route trolleys and lay out thoroughfares and handle pedestrians.

We may have double-decked streets, or triple-decked ones, sooner or later. Also we may have sidewalks running along buildings high up in the air, and underground. And before the automobile problem is solved, there will be the new air traffic problem to reckon with, to insure the safe, efficient routing and parking of planes.

A busy city may be a queer-looking place fifty years from now.

There's good in everything. Revelations of that crookedness in the 1919 world's series, for instance, discourage baseball gambling.

THE ILLINOIS BOURBON

Upon advice of his attorneys, Gov. Small of Illinois refuses to submit to arrest. He says he is immune from arrest and prosecution during his term. It is quite possible that this point can be sustained. The man under fire who wants to stand on a legal technicality can usually find a technicality to stand on.

But if any man under fire wishes to give an appearance of guilt, there is no surer way to it than by adopting the procedure Gov. Small has adopted. It is usually the way of an innocent man to court investigation of his acts, particularly those performed during his occupancy of a public office. The man who wants public confidence in himself and popularity for himself is likely to say, under such circumstances, "There are the books and records—go right to it and find out anything you like. I'll help you all I can in any way to secure information." This attitude is in itself disarming. It creates a popular belief in innocence, at the very least.

Whether or not Gov. Small is guilty of the charges of conspiracy and embezzlement brought against him, his attitude has been short-sighted in the extreme. The American people do not sit quietly under such a kaiseristic "king-can-do-no-wrong" attitude.

Congress might try its hand now at a bonus for business men who haven't any income this year to pay taxes on. And where would it get the money for the bonus? Oh, let Secretary Mellon take care of that.

"A DYING CITY"

Every Russian dispatch for three years has emphasized the appalling waste of Soviet rule and the shrinkage in urban population. Scores of prosperous cities, looted by Bolshevik mobs and terrorized by local "committees," have seen their industry and commerce ruined and the more substantial element in their population driven into exile or annihilated by the Red Terror. Petrograd, before the war a city of two million souls, has suffered most of all. At last reports its inhabitants numbered less than 700,000.

Now the Russian Soviet Council of Labor and Defense has taken steps to revive the city. The Red leaders have promised preferential privileges in fuel, foodstuffs and transport, and they are striving to coax back the many thousands of workmen who left to escape starvation or butchery. They hope to save the remains of the business of the city which, they admit, is only one-sixth that of pre-war days.

Whatever may be the shortcomings of their political, social and economic faith, the Reds have much in their favor, in their efforts to restore Petrograd to its former greatness, for Petrograd is one of the few cities in the world which, made to order, have justified the foresight of their founders.

Alexandria in Egypt, Constantinople and Bagdad are other classic examples of the fruits of genius. Peter the Great knew that his growing empire required a window on the Baltic, and he put his finger on the map and said, "I'll have a city, there." Two hundred thousand of his subjects died in the marshes of the Neva before that city was, but its rapid and steady growth for two centuries bore witness to the genius of its founder.

Civilization is very largely a matter of trade, and the routes of trade are always determined by the lay of the land and the water, the way the rivers flow and the winds blow. Where trade routes converge, there the growth of cities is inevitable.

Even Bolshevism, the worst foe of civilization, could not undo the work of nature. When Bolshevism is forgotten along with history's other nightmares, there will still be a great city on the Neva. There has to be.

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

The proposal to combine the War and Navy departments in one single Department of National Defense appears to be taking definite shape. If it is accomplished it will be one of the most drastic changes brought about by the government re-organization plans. It will meet with strenuous opposition from many quarters, no doubt, but on the whole it is already recognized as a sensible and economical step.

One of the objections to the establishment of a federal Department of Public Welfare with a cabinet officer at its head has been the danger it presented of enlarging the president's cabinet to unwieldy proportions. The proposal to combine two other departments under one head is an indication that reorganization works both ways, creating new and needed offices, and also eliminating duplication of service. The combination of the two defense branches should not lessen the efficiency of either department in its special field. It should, on the other hand, increase the efficiency of both in many ways, such as co-operative buying of supplies, materials and equipment.

If the proposed arrangement actually means greater executive efficiency and economy, no selfish interests should be allowed to impede its establishment.

Trees On City Streets

Sacramento Bee

On another page of today's Bee will be found the hearty recommendation of Architect E. C. Hemmings, that trees planted in business districts not only make the streets more pleasant but add to the attractiveness of the buildings around which they are placed.

And in pursuance of that belief, Hemmings recommended trees be planted in front of the new Chamber of Commerce building, which will be done in the spring. H. Winner, architect for the Merchants' National Bank building, holds the same views and arranged for the planting of trees around that building. And architects generally recognize in Nature's aid by trees an assistance in achieving the effects they seek in their buildings. In Europe and in the east, even more than in California, trees are planted in connection with the buildings as carefully as the structures themselves.

The objection that trees on business streets is an antiquated idea betokening a small town which has not outgrown petty ways is denied by the architect, contradicted by large cities all over the world which carefully guard their trees on business streets and is in itself the worst of petty vision.

For a city, no matter what its size, should shape herself in whatever fashion common sense, comfort and beauty dictate, regardless whether it be approved by London or originated in Cross Corners.

The smallest, small town is the one whose courage ebbs at the fear of "small town stuff," for cities like individuals must have confidence in themselves before they can inspire it in others.

What Tariff Means

San Bernardino Sun

There is a great deal of nonsensical talk against the pending protective tariff law based on the argument that Europe owes us between $10,000,000,000 and $12,000,000,000 which can only be paid in trade.

During the fiscal year we imported something like $3,600,000,000 worth of commodities and exported about $6,500,000,000 worth, leaving a balance in our favor of something less than $3,000,000,000. Now suppose we should reverse the situation, importing $6,500,000,000 worth of foreign goods under a 5 or 6 per cent tariff, and exporting $3,500,000,000 worth. In this way our debtors might pay their obligations in the course of about four years. But what would become of American industry in the meantime, and how many millions would be added to the roll of the unemployed?

With mills closed down and labor on the streets, how could taxes be collected, and where would the farmer dispose of his products? To sketch the condition which would be brought about by any such insane policy would be to condemn it beyond all hope of resurrection.

Today's Talk

by George Matthew Adams

ALL IS CHANGE

We boast of likes in this world—but there is nothing alike! We go to our sleep place at night saying that another day will come just like today. But in the new day will be crowded a billion changes and more.

Time is the father of shifting. He doesn't want anything the same. "Why! I knew you when you were a baby," I heard a gentleman say to a tall, mature girl who stood high in her particular achievement. The laughing baby—and the youth and maiden. Spring, then summer—and soon the snow of winter's cold. Bleakness and barren brown—and almost before one knows it, the robin, the blue bird, the tiny wren, and an orchestra of song to pierce the rays of light that stream from a changing sun. Flowers, too, that rise from a changed earthed—again to smile and die, leaving their fragrance and beauty as a cherished memory to all who saw and understood.

Th eploshaware for the sword, the smile for the tear, the light for the darkness, the rain where but a little while ago there was all blue sky and shining rays of gold.

Nothing ever remains the same. All is change! We never look into the glass that mirrors our face but what a little change has come about—be it ever so slight.

Even the stars toll their changes at every twinkle. Yesterday, today and tomorrow—names so old and familiar, yet fitting something new every twenty-four hours. Those things which we say are the same from day to day, only seem that way.

So let us learn the art of being "good scouts." Let us put deep into the granite arch above the door of our hearts that inspiring word—ONWARD!

Dare! Go on. Refresh the earth. Breathe and live in movement. It is for the least of us to touch and feel the rhythm of immortality. Sleeping to wake—waking to work!

There are not very many men, we confidently state, in whose allotment are contained two kinds of superweight. The gentleman who's favored with a large and fine physique, can also have an intellect embarrassingly weak, while he who has a cranium with lordly talents filled, may be like Emp. Napoleon of an uninspiring build.

But Freeman Bloodgood is a man of pounds-and-inches size, and in a lot of other ways has carried off the prize. He's been a firm supporter of the Hiram Johnson boom, and certainly does not agree that it has met its doom. His speeches paid in tribute to the soldier heroes dead are of the very finest food on which your ears are fed.

He used to be assemblyman. The board of state control was aided by his membership. He's now upon the roll of real estate promoters making Santa Ana swell. It is a line of enterprise to which he's fitted well; for heavy talk from heavy men may carry larger weight than if the facts were stated by some small and reckless skate.

About Women

Many of the finest pearls in existence are owned by American women. Among Maori women the custom of tattooing is rapidly dying out. When a woman is tattooed now, it is on the chin only, and this is not done until she is married.

The only woman road-builder in New England is Miss Eva H. Cressey of Gloucester, who took over the contracting business organized by her father, incorporated it, and established headquarters in Boston.

The superstition concerning "a whistling woman and a crowing hen" is nowhere regarded with greater respect than in Cornwall. A Cornish fisherman will, on no account, allow a whistling woman about his boat.

A unique method of making a liv- ing is that of a New York woman who buys up the silk shirts which men have outgrown or cast aside. These she converts into women's blouses, for which she finds a ready sale at a good profit.

More than a dozen film actresses whose names are familiar to patrons of the pictures the world over are out of employment at the present time because they have refused to sign new contracts calling for a reduction in salary.

One bachelor girl occupying a kitchenette apartment has solved the problem of drying her little washing by attaching an ordinary umbrella frame to a table. When not in use this improvised clothes-dryer may be folded up and laid away in a drawer.

If you suspect a man, do not employ him; if you employ him, do not suspect him.

How Is Your Health?

By Uncle Sam, M. D.
Send health questions to Information Editor, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington, D. C. Give name and address and you'll receive a personal reply.

Many mothers regard whooping cough as one of the necessary evils of childhood and look upon it not with concern, but only with annoyance.

While it is true with older children whooping cough may be regarded as one of the milder infections, it is one of the most fatal in infancy.

Babies under two years of age are particularly susceptible to the disease and of those having whooping cough under one year it is probable (though it is difficult to state the exact mortality) that almost one-fourth of them die.

This is due to the fact that so many of the cases have serious complications. A little baby with whooping cough can easily go into convulsions. In winter there is only a step between whooping cough and broncho-pneumonia, while in summer diarrhea is equally close and threatening.

Hence, it behooves every mother to most carefully protect her young baby from whooping cough. The only way in which she can do this is by a scrupulous avoidance of "colds."

When your child playing on the street comes in and begins coughing, immediately remove the baby to an other room.

Whooping cough is communicated by contact with the patient or with articles freshly soiled with the discharge from his nose and throat. Cats and dogs are susceptible to the disease and may become infected and transmit the infection to the child who plays with them.

Quarantine should be maintained until the spasmodic stage is over, usually about six weeks.

During an attack of whooping cough, the child's strength, which is sometimes sorely tried, should be maintained by nourishing food, plenty of sleep and rest, and other hygienic measures. An abundance of fresh air is particularly desirable.

FATIGUE

Our bodies have all the essentials of the most complicated motor cars. Fatigue is caused by two things: First, the using up of the power that is in the muscle which is working; second, the poisons which are produced by the action of the muscle.

Fuel Pipes Clogged

The first is the simplest to understand.

If the fuel pipes to the muscles are clogged, if we cut off the circulation from the muscles by tight clothes so that the arteries can't bring them their supply of energy as quickly as it is needed, they will tire much more quickly than they otherwise would.

One grade of gasoline will give your flivver more "pep" than another. Some forms of food can be used for energy much more easily than others.

Not Enough "Gas"

Sugar gives us energy which can be used at once, while it takes longer to change other foods into a form in which they can be burnt up.

If there is not gasoline enough in our tanks—if we are almost starved, and the energy which the muscles need simply isn't there, we can do mighty little before we're tired out.

IF

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting, too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies;
Or being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise.

If you can dream—and not make dreams your master;
If you can think—and not make your thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat these two imposters just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build them up with worn-out tools;

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of plich-and-toss
And lose, and start again at your beginning
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you Except the will which says to the "Hold on";

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings—nor lose the common touch;
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you;
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With thirty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the earth and everything that's in it
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son.

—Rudyard Kipling.

Bear Stories for Bedtime

CHAPTER 100

BILLY BEAR MINDS HIS MOTHER

By Harvey Elliott

Billy Bear hardly got through with his breakfast till he wanted to go right back over to Farmer Smith's. But Mother Bear set her foot down on it and told him he should not go over there today. She explained that it would be very dangerous for him to show himself around there again for a good many days to come. Mother Bear had good reasons for it, too. She said the Smiths would be all excited yet and they would be on the lookout for Bears and have their gun loaded and ready to shoot the first Bear they would see. Indeed, she told him that it might not be safe for them at home because the Smiths might gather in their neighbors and start out with their guns to find that Bear that had been prowling around their farm.

Then Mother Bear told Billy that Old Bossie the Cow would still remember him as the fellow that was after her Baby Calf and would be on the lookout for him again. "The next time she gets after you," said Mother Bear, "there might not be any wagon to jump into."

Billy looked very serious. He felt disappointed, but he thought maybe his mother was right. Then he looked over at Daddy Bear who was looking serious, too.

"No, Billy," said Father Bear, "I think you had better not go back to Farmer Smith's today. Your mother has given you very wise advice."

"All right," said Billy, "then I'll not go."

Did you ever know a little boy or girl whose father or mother told them that it would not be best to do something they wanted to do? Do you remember how they acted? Did they pout or get angry and talk back and say they were going to do it, anyway? Or did they say, like Billy Bear, "All right, I won't do it if you don't want me to, because I am sure you must know best."

Then, fathers and mothers, did you ever know a parent who would tell their child that he must do this or not do that without giving any reason for it? When he asks for a reason maybe that parent will say, "Just because I said so!"

Wouldn't it be better to reason with our children and show them just how our way is the best?

That is what Mother Bear thought, and that is why Billy Bear was an obedient child.

Time to Smile

A NEW SLANT.

At a high school examination in England the following definition was given in anatomy: Anatomy is the human body, which consists of three parts—the head, the chest and the stomach. The head contains the eyes and brains, if any; the chest contains the lungs and a piece of liver; the stomach is devoted to the bowels, of which there are five—a, e, i, o, u, and sometimes w and y.—Push.

UPS AND DOWNS.

Two men, strangers to each other, sat side by side in a suburban train. Finally, one turned to the other and became confidential.

"I," he said impressively, "am a starter for elevators in a city skyscraper. When I signal them to go up, they go up. And your line is—?"

"I," said the other, "am an undertaker. When I signal them to go down, they go down."—The American Legion Weekly.

ALL RIGHT FOR THE DOCTOR.

"There's no doubt about it, my friend, we'll have to operate on you," the doctor said cheerfully.

"Operate!" the patient exclaimed. "Great scott, doctor, I've no money for expensive operations!"

"Hum! Well—you are insured, aren't you?"

"Yes, but I can't realize on that until after I've died—it goes to my estate."

"Oh, that's all right, my dear fellow," the doctor said, against smiling cheerfully. "That's perfectly all right—don't you worry about your bill at all!"—Judge.

In the Long Ago

From The Register Files

JULY 29, 1907

H. S. Hadsall of Michigan is to address a meeting of ranchers Saturday on the sugar beet industry.

There is a plan on foot to build a sugar factory here.

In order to test the claim of Mrs. Eleanor Belford to the Valencia ranch at San Juan Capistrano, an attachment for $88.36 has been levied by Sheriff Lacy. The property belonged to the estate of Andrew McNally, the map publisher.

BANDIT IS SLAIN IN BATTLE

Lone Robber Is Killed After Shooting Petaluma Chief of Police

STORE PROPRIETOR
FRUSTRATES THEFT

Fugitive Baricades Self In Quarry and Opens Fire
On Officer

United Press Leased Wire
PETALUMA, Cal., Aug. 29.—Chief of Police Michael Flohr of Petaluma was shot and seriously wounded today in a battle with an unidentified bandit who had attempted to rob a Petaluma store.

Ernest Roberts, a civilian, who with the chief of police had found the bandit barricaded in an old rock quarry, shot and killed the vandit.

The exact extent of Flohr's injuries have not been determined.
The robber had attempted to hold up a store in Petaluma early today and had fired one shot at the proprietor before escaping through a rear door.

While police searched the city Flohr and Roberts started looking for a man reported to have been scurrying toward the quarry just outside the city.

As they approached the quarry they saw a man hidden behind a rock and fired a shot at him.
"Come out of there!" shouted the police chief.

Three shots from behind the barricade answered the command. Flohr fell wounded.

Roberts grabbed the officer's gun and opened fire, killing the bandit instantly.

Flohr is at a Petaluma hospital.

"30" BULLETINS

Sheriff C. E. Jackson today received a request from the Amalgamated Oil company of Los Angeles that it be authorized to deputize thirty of the company's picked men for duty during the threatened strike of oil workers, scheduled to become effective September 1. The company was informed by the authorities here that it would not be necessary to deputize as many as thirty men. It was suggested that three or four could be deputized and that other men could work under their orders. An official of the company intimated that trouble was feared and that the company was preparing to take precautions against any destruction of its property.

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—The "rubber trust," sponsored by Charles W. French as part of his alleged $50,000,000 swindle scheme, went to the wall today. The American Rubber company, which occupied a modest store here and sold raincoats, but which, under French's magic wand, was soon to become a $2,000,000 rival of the United States Rubber company, was forced into bankruptcy. A. A. Streslin and Rudolph Kohn, vice president of the company, were among those arrested in connection with French's scheme.

ENID, Okla., Aug. 29.—Two masked men held up and robbed the Garber State bank at Garber, Okla., this afternoon. They placed the cashier in the vault and escaped. The amount of currency taken is yet unknown.
Posses are in pursuit.

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 29.—Carl Olson, 41, of Los Angeles, is held by local police today on charges of passing fictitious 25-cent pieces. When arrested at Ocean Beach last night, following complaints of storekeepers, Olson had a bag containing 85 lead coins, according to the arresting officers.

Two young men today were suffering from burns and various other injuries as a result of being caught beneath the car in which they were riding when it turned turtle in the drainage canal, one-half mile east and north of Westminster on the Garden Grove road, according to reports reaching here. The car caught fire, it is said, while the young men were trapped beneath. They were released by passing autorists and rushed to a hospital.
The names had not been learned late this afternoon. The car body was completely burned,
the engine only remaining whole.

Billy Sunday Blames Parents for Present Day 'Flapper'

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 29.—
Not the children, but the parents are to blame when "flappers" run around the streets with their stockings rolled down, their forms adorned with peekaboo waists and short skirts, and their hair all frizzled up.

Such is the vigorous opinion entertained by the Reverend Billy Sunday and expounded at some length to ten thousand people here yesterday.

"Any man who can look at the short skirted, bare necked, frizzled-headed, gum chewing, fudge eating modern flapper without having a moral blow out, should get a government pension," declared the Reverend Billy.

BLOCK FORD IN PLAN TO CLASH FREIGHT RATES

Interstate Commerce Commission Halts Proposed Reduction in Charges

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—
Henry Ford was again halted today by the interstate commerce commission in his efforts to reduce rates on his newly acquired railroad, the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton.

Ford asked permission to reduce rates on coal 49 cents a ton and to make other cuts. He has already put these rates into effect but the commission suspended them from September 3 to January 1 in order that it might make an investigation.
The commission took similar action on other reductions proposed by Ford.

Johnson Man Is Winner In Race for High Post

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29.—Appointment of John T. Williams as United States attorney for the Northern California district marks the end of a six months battle over the appointment. Six candidates were involved, all with strong support.

Williams was the favorite of Senator Hiram W. Johnson's friends here and is considered a Johnson appointee.
Williams has practiced law in California since 1899 and has been prominent in Republican politics. He is a native of Ventura, Cal., where his father was formerly a superior judge.

THREE ARE WOUNDED IN BELFAST RIOTING

BELFAST, Aug. 29.—At least three persons were seriously wounded in heavy rioting which broke out here this afternoon. Bombs and revolvers were freely used. A detachment of military cars, dispatched to the scene, quelled the rioters after fighting.

SUPERVISORS TAKE UP BUTTE COUNTY BUDGET

CHICO, Aug. 29.—The board of supervisors began a preliminary consideration of the county budget for the next year, on which the new tax rate will be based. County officers have filed reports of the cost of operating their departments for the past year, but these figures were said to be still uncompleted.
The board fixed the first Tuesday in September as the date for deciding the new county tax rate. The resignation of Miss Charlotte Regan, for the past eight years superintendent of the county detention home, was accepted.

Will Hold Teuton's Property Until U. S. Claims are Paid

By HERBERT W. WALKER
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Germany must pay for the Lusitania and can live lost on the Lusitania and the United States and its citizens for war losses caused by the ex-kaiser's government before German property now held by this government will be returned, Thomas W. Miller, alien property custodian, said today.
The present German government, Miller pointed out, has agreed to this in the new treaty with Germany, but he emphasized that no steps will be taken toward the return of German property until actual payment has been made of all just claims by the Ebert government.

KENNEDY SLAYER SUSPECTS PUT IN PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 29.—Madalyne Obenchain and Arthur C.
Burch today pleaded not guilty to a charge of "murdering John Belton Kennedy, a human being."

The twice postponed pleas were made before Judge Sidney N. Reeve, in the hall of justice.

Immense throngs packed the courtroom, corridors and even the sidewalks surrounding the building as the principals in the weird "midnight murder" case formerly declared their innocence.

Trial was set for Tuesday, November 1.

Both defense and prosecution declared the date satisfactory.

A continuance of ten days was allowed to give the prosecution an opportunity to object or agree to a request of counsel for the defense that Madalyne and Burch be given separate trials.

This request was made by Paul Schenck, on behalf of both defendants.

Asa Keyes, deputy district attorney, countered the unexpected move by asking a continuance to consider the request. Judge Reeve granted Keyes' request.

Paul W. Schenck, of counsel for the defense, returned yesterday from Arizona to represent Madalyne and Burch at the arraignment.

Schenck joins counsel
With Schenck were Ralph R. Obenchain, former husband of the accused woman; Richard Kittrelle and Warren Williams.

Madalyne and Burch offered a dramatic contrast as they made their pleas today.

Burch answered the murder charge first.

"Not guilty," he said, in a clear, firm voice. He stood erect and self-possessed. There was no shade of uncertainty in his bearing.

Madalyne Obenchain, standing by the side of her former husband Ralph Obenchain, spoke the words
"not guilty" very softly.

Her lips were seen to move, but her voice was scarcely audible.

Ralph Obenchain whispered a quiet word of encouragement. She smiled wanly at him, in thanks.

Mrs. Obenchain plainly the effects of a time, would prevent her appearance in court today.

She was brought into court twenty minutes before Judge Reeve took his place on the bench. Covering her face with a black fan at first, she sat quietly waiting for court to convene. At her side was Gladys Smart, her "little sister."

A single pink rose was the only bit of color in Madalyne's somber costume.

As the time drew near for her to plead, her face paled and she obviously became more nervous. Her gaze was fastened upon the floor.

She gave no heed to the stream of men and women passing before her to plead to lesser crimes.

Burch Unworried
She accepted Ralph Obenchain's arm in arising when Judge Reeve called her name. So faint was her voice when she answered that many spectators did not know she had entered her plea, and were surprised when she resumed her seat, apparently without speaking.

Burch did not enter the court room until his name was called. He

L. A. Banker Under Probe In Chicago Swindle Ring

United Press Leased Wire

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—Federal officials investigating the alleged $50,000,000 swindling operations of Charles W. French said today that thus far they have established no definite connection between the "French ring," and several Iowa concerns, which are having financial difficulties.

Acting District Attorney Clinkin today sought more information on French's operations on the Pacific coast. He asked Los Angeles authorities to investigate affairs of W. S. Tevis, banker of that city, who Clinkin believes was mixed up in French's deals.
Tevis recently had $150,000 in notes circulating in Chicago and vicinity.

Clinkin also wired officials at San Francisco and Portland to forward information on "high finance" French is said to have practiced along the coast a number of years ago and also in connection with his recent deals.

"Honest John" Worthington, alleged head of the entire "swindling trust" wrote Clinkin from his cell today asking that he be allowed to be present when French is arraigned in court.

ALLEGED SLAYER OF PRIEST WINS RIGHT TO SEE HIS LAWYER

United Press Leased Wire
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29.—
First steps for the defense of William Hightower, charged with murdering Father Patrick Heslin, Colma, Cal., priest, were successful today when Hightower formally accepted Attorney William F. Herron as a representative of his defense. E. J. Em-mons of Bakersfield, and Herron won the privilege of consulting Hightower in jail.

The court exonerated District Attorney Swart of any abuse of his rights in excluding Herron from conference with the prisoner up to the time the writ of habeas corpus was issued.

Swart stipulated that Herron should be permitted to see Hightower at "any reasonable hour."

Asked by the court if he had complaint to make regarding his treatment in jail, Hightower declared that he had been well treated, "in fact, better than he had any reason to expect."

Herron, representing a group which has interested itself in the defense of Hightower, is said to be backed by strong financial interests. Immediately following the ruling, Attorney Herron and Hightower went into conference in the bailiffs' room.

The order was made when Hightower was called into the appellate court as a result of habeas corpus proceedings which Herron had instituted.

Wally Reid's Wife Hits Rumor Divorce Looms in Film Family

United Press Leased Wire
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 29.—Mrs.
Wallace Reid, wife of the film star, and herself a prominent member of the motion picture profession, today gave the United Press a signed statement denying a rumored divorce in the Reid family.

Mrs. Reid, whose professional name is Dorothy Davenport, issued the following from her Beverly Hill home:

"There is absolutely no truth in the stories giving prominence to a New York newspaper that a divorce was impending in the Wallace Reid family. Ever since Geraldine Farrar and Lou Teller were separated, it seems like every other married couple in the profession is the target for a similar rumor.

"The fact that I am playing opposite Lester Cuneo means nothing at all. He is Wally's best friend.

"I needed outdoor exercise, and when the opportunity was afforded me to work in Mr. Cuneo's picture, I was glad to accept it, and have even found a role in it for our little son, William Wallace Reid Jr."

"I think these rumors started when Wally went to New York to make a picture and I did not accompany him. Why I did not go was simply because it was too hot in New York.

"There is a popular belief that there cannot be two successful people, or, if the seeming flattery he overlooked, two geniuses in one family. Here is one case where happiness rules, and even though Wally is one of the country's most popular actors and I have returned to the screen.

(Signed) "Mrs. Wallace Reid."

'MAN'S JOB' IS GIVEN TO MRS. WILLEBRANDT BY HARDING

United Press Leased Wire
WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Protection of the prohibition laws against all legal attacks will be one of the major tasks assumed by Mrs.
Mabel Walker Willebrandt of Los Angeles, selected today by Attorney General Daugherty to be assistant attorney general.

The appointment of Mrs. Wille-brandt is regarded as the highest recognition President Harding has made of the ability of women to fill
"a man's job."

In defending the prohibition statutes, Mrs. Willebrandt probably will appear rather frequently in the supreme court. She succeeds Mrs.
Annette Abbott Adams, also of California, who was very successful in presenting the government's side of the prohibition cases in the supreme court.

Enforcement of admiralty statutes regarded as the most difficult branch of jurisprudence, is another assignment which Mrs. Willebrandt will draw from Attorney General Daugherty. Shipping law now is becoming far more complex than formerly because of the dry laws.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 29.—Mrs.
Mabel Walker Willebrandt, whose appointment as assistant attorney general was announced at Washington today, has been in active law practice in California for the past seven years.

Mrs. Willebrandt is assistant police court defender for Los Angeles.
She is in Washington at the present time.

Announcement of her appointment did not come as a surprise to friends here, inasmuch as it was known that her name was being given serious consideration for the post.

Mrs. Willebrandt is a native of Kansas. Her father was a newspaper publisher. She is a graduate of Tempe normal school, Tempe, Ariz., and of the University of Southern California.

Mrs. Willebrandt is president of the Women's Professional club, and past president of the Women Lawyers' club.

ASST. SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE RESIGNS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The resignation of Dr. Elmer D. Ball as assistant secretary of agriculture was announced at the White House today, effective October 1.

Dr. Ball asked to be relieved because of "other responsibilities."

Charles W. Pugsley of Nebraska will succeed Dr. Ball, it was said.
Pugsley was formerly professor of animal husbandry at the University of Nebraska, edited a farm journal there, and has been prominent in the affairs of his state. He was strongly indorsed by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace.

S. A. V. I. Bulletin

Irrigation company will begin Thursday, September 1, P. M. Shell, head zanjero, announced today.

The price will be 60 cents, as usual, with a limit of 100 inches and one hour per share, he said.

MUSHROOM FOR HARDING

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—Violet and Hazel Schroeder, think President Harding needs a change of diet. They are going to send him a mushroom weighing three pounds and fifteen ounces, grown by their father.

Lack of Finances Threatens Public Utilities Says Rowell

United Press Leased Wire
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29.—
Regulation of public utilities can survive only if it can protect the public against extortion and exploitation and at the same time keep the utilities in such condition that they can render service, give adequate returns on their investments, and continue to expand, declared Chester H. Rowell, of the state railroad commission in an address in the commission chambers today.

"If public regulation of privately owned utilities fails, then public ownership is the only alternative," declared Rowell.

"Until we can transform our government so as to make them fit to conduct public ownership projects, public regulation must survive. Its failure would only mean premature and disastrous public ownership."

"This commission has a very large measure of positive as well as negative responsibility.
We have control over the financing of corporations. We must ordinarily fix rates which will grant a 'fair return.'

"By granting or withholding our certificate of public convenience we not only protect, but establish monopolies, and determine who shall hold them.

"We cultivate monopoly as a virtue, but guarantee to the public, instead of to the monopolist, the savings produced by that monopoly."

"The most startling thing about the present condition of public utilities is that public ownership of a great many such utilities is going to be thrust on us long before we shall be ready to handle it. The impossibility of privately financing the expansion of certain utilities without thereby placing too heavy a burden on the rate payer will be the principal factor in bringing on public financing of such projects, and consequently public ownership."

"We are sadly in need of responsible government. Until we can choose efficient men, give them power, and hold them responsible, our government cannot run business. Our eighteenth century theory of government is outgrown even in government, and it is impossible in business."

INVITE PRESIDENT TO TENNIS MATCH
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 29.—President Harding has been invited to attend the final round of the men's national singles tennis championship startling here September 3.

A box has been set aside for the president and his guests. Members of the Japanese, Australian, British and Indian Davis cup teams will compete against the best players in America.

German President Puts Anti-Republican Agitators Under Ban

BERLIN, Aug. 29.—The German government today issued ultimatum to the effect that anti-republican agitators will no longer be tolerated.

"Those taking part in outbreaks will be punished," the ultimatum says.

"Strong measures to prevent a counter demonstration by pan-Germans when the body of Mathias Erzberger is brought to Berlin this week, were planned by the government.

Serious clashes are feared if reactionaries continue their provocative attitude," President
Loeb declared today.

HOME RULE AIM OF MOPLAHS IN INDIA UPRISING

Scores Slain as Tribesmen Massing for Attack; British Rush More Troops Into Field.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—"Home rule" has been proclaimed by rioting Mohlah tribesmen in the Malabar district of India, where the situation was today reported to be critical. A green emblem has been posted at Palilpur.

Repressive measures of a most severe character may be necessary, it was stated here today, owing to the fanatical character of the rioters, who are of Mohammed descent. Already nearly a score of Europeans have been massacred and about forty casualties are reported in the native regiments and Leinster troops. Nearly a million Mohlahs are said to be back of the "home rule" movement.

Martial law has been declared throughout the affected area.

League Facing Crisis In Row Over Silesia

GENEVA, Aug. 29.—The future existence of the league of nations hung in the balance today when the league council met in Reformation hall to consider the Silesian dispute.

Should an acceptable solution to the problem which has baffled the supreme council, be found, it was considered certain that the prestige of the league of nations would be permanently established, while failure would almost inevitably result in the withdrawal of one or more of the big powers, causing disruption of the assembly.

Success of the present session members said, will cause the league to become the world's greatest international body.

DENBY PLACES BAN ON ZR DIRIGIBLES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Secretary of the Navy Denby said today he would not recommend the building of any more dirigibles of the ZR-2 type. ZR-1, sister ship of the ZR-2 now being built at Lakehurst, N. J., should be completed because a large amount of work on it has already been done, the secretary said.

He indicated that he believed the big dirigible to be dangerous and of doubtful military value.

While preparations for battle went ahead here, work of the mines along the hillside was seen in contrast. The output of coal continued
in a constant stream, but with the first hint of danger men scurried
from their places of labor and took positions with the defenders.

Check stands in the "hotels resembled arsenals.

All Hotels Crowded.
Sleeping quarters were at a pre-countries and officers from outlying districts occupied all available hotel rooms.

While preparations for battle went ahead here, work of the mines along
the hillside was seen in con-
in a constant stream, but with the first hint of danger men scurried
from their places of labor and took

NATION'S TRADE STATUS SHOWS GAIN-HOOVER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—President Harding's national conference on unemployment will not be allowed to become the "battle ground for warring organizations," Secretary Hoover declared today.

Members of the conference will be asked to devote their time to discussing intermittency and irregularity of unemployment with the hope of obtaining a unity of action that will benefit both employer and employee, the secretary said.

Team work between employers and workers to pull the United States out of economic depression and to restore prosperity will be asked in a personal appeal which President Harding expects to make before a congress of business men, employees, federal and state officials, to be held here in September.

The nation's business situation is "steadily improving," according to Secretary of Commerce Hoover, who today was preparing plans for the industrial congress at the request of the President.

Co-operating with Hoover in making the plans will be Secretary of Labor Davis, who recently estimated there are nearly six million jobs in the country.

United Press Leased Wire
SAN DIEGO, Aug. 29.—A woman passed a closed jewelry store today and observed a man bending over a safe.

She notified the traffic cop that a thief was robbing the safe of the jewelry store. The officer investigated, banged on the door, and at last was admitted by the "burglar."

After showing the officer his personal card, the engraving on his ring, the initials on the fresco work of the store and the name in his watch case, George C. Jessop, one of the owners of the store, convinced the cop that he had a perfect right to twirl the combination of the safe as much as he pleased.

The vanguard of the state forces approached the camp and were challenged. They proceeded down the village streets and were fired on when they announced they were state police patrolling the roads, officials here were advised.

Capture Miners' Patrol

Shortly before they had been similarly challenged but maneuvered to capture the patrol without an exchange of shots. Ten or more prisoners had been taken when the firing began near Beech Creek.

Captain Brockus withdrew his men as rapidly as possible. Many of them were in civilian garb and it was difficult to distinguish between friend and enemy. The state forces remained in the vicinity of the village for more than an hour before returning to the Logan side of the mountain range.

The man killed was later reported to be John Greer, secretary of the miners union at Sharples.

PAIR WHO SAWED WAY FROM JAIL ARE HUNTED

Orange county authorities this afternoon were on the lookout for two men who at the Riverside city jail this forenoon sawed their way to freedom with hacksaws, stole an automobile and fled from the city.

Chief of Police Diess of Riverside notified all towns in Southern California and asked that highways be watched.

It was considered possible that the two escaped prisoners might come through the Santa Ana canyon into Orange county.

The two men who escaped were Jack Raymond, 36, and Sammy ("Bunch") Phillips, 20.

Phillips was awaiting the arrival of an officer from Whittier. He was taken into custody at Riverside last Thursday for the alleged theft of an automobile.

Raymond was arrested Saturday afternoon and charged with stealing a number of pieces of baggage from the motor car of G. A. Mellener, of Venice. Raymond was grabbed by the Los Angeles police last April on an embezzlement charge and sent to Patton. He is reported to have escaped from the state institution in May of this year.

Phillips is said to be a parole violator from Jone school.

MONROVIA, Aug. 29.—"I left $850,660,000 here to be cleaned and scraped. It was getting a little dirty and I thought I'd have the money renovated," gravely stated a dignified colored man to Cashier R. H. Bush of the National Bank of Monrovia as he approached the banker's desk.

"What do you want with the money?" asked Bush. The negro wanted to go to San Francisco.

The banker called Constable J. L. Quiggle on the telephone, and when the "multimillionaire" had crossed the street to another bank and tried to deposit his fortune he found an officer waiting for him. The man was declared to be suffering from a high degree of fever and in a serious condition. He was turned over to friends.

City and County

Rotarians will hold a "Miniature District Conference," at the weekly luncheon at St. Ann's Inn tomorrow noon, Mac O. Robbins, chairman of the meeting, said today. "Only that and nothing more," said Robbins. "I believe the rest of the story will keep until luncheon time tomorrow."

R. J. Blee, 311 Orange avenue, was resting comfortably today following an unfortunate accident which Saturday marred a reunion of the Blee family at Laguna Beach. In some manner, a rock weighing nearly twenty pounds was dislodged from the face of the cliff and fell, striking Blee in the chest. The injured man was rushed to this city, where his physician discovered that no bones were broken, and that severe bruises were the extent of the injuries received.

Cotton failures in the Imperial valley region were responsible for the bankruptcy petition of Milton W. Joyce Jr. and Vincent W. Ball, who were farming under the firm name of Ball Bros., filed in the United States district court at Los Angeles, said H. B. Wellington, of Bishop and Wellington, Santa Ana attorneys, today. The petition gives the firm's assets as $1919.31 and debts at $6880.79.

Principal D. K. Hammond of the high school will not be in his office until the latter part of the week because of the death of his mother, Mrs. N. W. Hammond, in Los Angeles yesterday. Hammond is now in Los Angeles.

The committee of the Tustin Chamber of Commerce, having in charge the arrangements for participation of the organization in the Orange county fair to be held at Huntington Beach the latter part of September, will make a report at the regular meeting of the chamber to be held tonight in the Tustin school house, according to I. L. Marchant, president. Other business will come up. Marchant said the Tustin chamber has a membership of approximately sixty-five.

Blankets will be much in demand at the army tonight. Company F, Santa Ana's unit of the National Guard of California, is going to receive six months' back pay. Lieutenant Jesse Elliott announced today. Lieutenant Jesse Elliott said the government now pays guardsmen on the basis of one day's pay in a month, that is, if 60 per cent of the company has reported for drill 60 per cent of the pay period.

Tomorrow the second annual picnic of the Whittier Chamber of Commerce is to be held in Orange county park. C. A. Matteson is head of the general committee of arrangements. Word received here today is to the effect that "all Whittier is to stop business to go picnicking."

Seal Beach has a vicious bootlegger, according to reports today of two men, whose lives, Long Beach physicians said, were endangered by drinking insufficiently distilled whisky. The two men, Roscoe Johnson, Long Beach, and Claude Crutch, Los Angeles, said they had spent the afternoon at Seal Beach. It required several hours' work of a doctor and four patrolmen at the Long Beach police station to revive the men.

The Coast Truck line has been authorized by the railroad commission to operate a freight auto truck service between Oceanside and Los Angeles and intermediate points with restrictions as to local service, according to word received here today. The application of Ralph C. Walker for a certificate for automobile freight and express service between Oceanside and Los Angeles, serving much of the same intermediate territory as the Coast Truck line, was denied. Walker has been operating without a permit under the erroneous impression, the commission points out, that a permit is not necessary to operate in full truck loads and where compensation is upon a day rate or by the load.

Residents of Santa Ana and other Orange county cities who formerly lived in Pennsylvania will join with other California Keystone Staters in a big picnic reunion to be held all day Labor Day, September 5, in Sycamore Grove park, Los Angeles. It was announced that there would be a brief program beginning at 2 p. m., but that the main purpose would be to have a good time.

Cary of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Parker, Miss Dorothy Parker, Miss Elsie Parker and Miss Marcela Tucker, of Pomona.

SEEK TWO IN THEFT

Two Mexicans, suspected of the robbery of a cigar stand situated in the front of a billiard room at Delhi, were being sought by the authorities today. The robbery occurred sometime between 12:30 o'clock last night and 6 o'clock this morning. Cigars and cigarettes valued at about $10 were stolen.

MAN HEAR DEAD AS G. E. PETERS CAR HITS HIM

With his skull fractured and in a semi-conscious condition, B. F. Hutchins of Artesia, is in the Anaheim hospital today.

He was injured last night about 8 o'clock when his buggy was struck by an automobile driven by George E. Peters, assistant cashier of the Orange County Trust and Savings bank of Santa Ana.

The accident occurred at the first corner west of the P. E. crossing at Cypress. According to Mr. and Mrs. Peters, who were in the automobile, and others who examined the wrecked buggy, Hutchins was driving without lights on his buggy. Hutchins drove off of a small crossroad directly upon the main highway just as though he were oblivious to the lights of an approaching automobile. Peters had no opportunity to avoid the accident. Hutchins was upon the road directly in front of Peters' machine seemingly in a second of time. The automobile hit the buggy; the horse was unharmed. Hutchins struck against the windshield of Peters' car. An iron fastener that held a green visor in place, struck Hutchins in the back of the neck, causing a deep gash.

Peters stopped instantly. He was not driving rapidly. He stopped instantly, and ran to Hutchins, who had fallen from the hood of the automobile. An automobile with a party of Riverside residents in it came up, and at Peters' request this machine took Peters and the unconscious Hutchins to the hospital at Anaheim. While not feeling himself in the least to blame for the accident, Peters arranged for medical and hospital expenses.

Frank Sawyer of Santa Ana returned with Peters to where Mrs. Peters had been left in the Peters' machine. Examination showed that aside from smashed fenders and windshield, Peters' car was not damaged. Sawyer and Peters examined the wrecked buggy. On turning it over they found a bottle that had a small amount of what appeared to be brandy in it. Witnesses stated that the odor of liquor was upon the breath of the injured man.

Hutchins is 61 and unmarried. His father, aged 88, a resident of Artesia, was at the hospital this morning to see his son.

Auto Hits Vehicle.

John Andrich, 210 West Chapman avenue, Orange, was wearing a gauze dressing over his lower lip today as evidence of a painful injury which he sustained about 10:10 o'clock last night when the automobile in which he was riding ran into a two-horse wagon driven by Manuel Morales of Greenville.

The accident happened at the intersection of South Main street and Huntington Beach road. John Andrich was riding with his brother, George. The latter, who was driving, attempted to pass the team driven by the Mexican. The horses became frightened and lunged to the left side of the road. The automobile struck the wagon and broken glass from the wind deflector cut Andrich's lower lip.

One of the horses received a bad cut in its breast. The automobile was slightly damaged.

L. A. Woman Hurt.

Mrs. Charles R. Bookins, 144 East Twenty-seventh street, Los Angeles, sustained an injury to her right leg about 4 p. m. yesterday when the automobile in which she was seated was struck from the rear by a machine driven by S. Yolegi and owned by the Peoples' Fish company.

The accident occurred about six miles south of San Juan Capistrano. According to a report made at the police station by Bookins, her car was parked beside the road and directly behind a machine owned and occupied by J. B. Jacobs and E. Willard.

Yolegi, according to Bookins, came speeding down the road and struck the rear end of his machine. The jar caused Bookins' machine to roll forward and smash into Jacobs' car. All three machines were slightly damaged.

Robert O'Neill of Long Beach reported a collision with a machine driven by C. H. Hunter. The accident happened at the corner of Fourth and Birch streets at 3:50 p. m. yesterday. No one was hurt but both cars were slightly damaged. Vergil Starnes, 6, son of W. R. Starnes of Delhi, was confined at the Community hospital today with a broken right arm and bruises as the result of being struck and knocked down by a Crown stage driven by Charles H. Stebbins, 504 1/2 North Main street Santa Ana.

The accident happened about 11 o'clock yesterday morning at Delhi. According to a report made at the sheriff's office by Stebbins, young Starnes was walking on the right side of the highway with his father and dashed across the road just as Stebbins attempted to pass him.

TO FACE COURT AS RECKLESS DRIVER

J. B. Marshall, 1401 South Hill street, Los Angeles, was scheduled to go on trial in the justice court here this afternoon on a charge of driving his automobile in a reckless manner and striking on the highway without a tail light.

Marshall is held responsible for an accident which occurred in front of the Wintersburg school house on the night of July 16. A machine driven by E. M. Borden of Riverside struck Marshall's car and turned over. Borden sustained a broken arm and his wife and two children were badly bruised.

Marshall claimed that his car "stalled" on the highway and that he could not get it started. At the time of his arraignment he denied that he was responsible for the accident. He claimed that Borden's machine struck a passing car and not his.

GETS 6 MONTHS FOR DRY VIOLATION, SIX MONTHS ON GUN COUNT

Six months in the county jail for bootlegging and six months more for carrying a concealed weapon was the sentence meted out today by Justice of the Peace Cox to Simon Bargas, Mexican, of the Wintersburg-Schleicher district.

Bargas was arrested Saturday evening by Deputy Sheriff Roy Ballard. According to Ballard, Bargas was peddling wine on the highway. Ballard searched him and found a .38 caliber police special revolver.

A quart bottle of wine and the revolver which he found on the Mexican were confiscated. Judge Cox told the defendant that as soon as one term expired he could start on the next one.

GERMANS BUSY AS BEES, SAYS HEIL

"Factories in Germany are humming. Everywhere the people are working. The shops are bursting with goods. The best meals I found in Europe were served in Germany." So declared here today Charles F. Heil, president of the Excelsior Creamery company, who has just returned with his family from the month's vacation at Big Bear, while he went following his return to California from Europe.

Conditions in Germany were a revelation to Heil, he said. He expected to find a dormant nation showing everywhere the effects of suffering during the World War. On the contrary he found the country a beehive of activity, he said.

"I was amazed at the tremendous amount of energy displayed on all sides," Heil declared. "There seemed not to be an idle factory anywhere. Everybody was working. I had believed I would find suffering and scarcity of supplies, but found, instead, stores well filled with goods and no apparent dearth of any of the necessities."

"I found not only plenty of food wherever I went, but it was good food, well cooked. In fact, neither in France nor in England did I obtain such good meals as in Germany." "The Germans frankly admit that the United States was the deciding factor in the war."

Heil while in Europe attended the International Rotary convention at Edinburgh, Scotland.

He has returned much improved in health, and has resumed his duties with the Excelsior Creamery company.

MARKET NEWS

TRACTION SHARES IN SLUMP ON EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—The Evening Sun's financial review this afternoon said: The market for securities was featured at the beginning of the new week by strength in the local traction shares and weakness in the petroleum issues, the one movement being traceable to the tackling of the oil problem by Mexican official authority in conjunction with representatives of American oil interests and the other to the application of the federal district court of the American Brake Shoe and Foundry company for a receiver for Central Interborough Rapid Transit company. If the application should be granted, virtually all traction companies in this city would be in the hands of receivers, Third avenue alone excepted.

Price changes were irregular through a good part of the afternoon and in numerous cases early gains were cut back and then lost. Petroleum, for example, dropped back some two points from the top price. Interborough shares again relapsed to their lower levels.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—The stock market opened irregular today. Opening prices included: Mexican Petroleum, 94, unchanged; Asphalt, 43 1/2, up 1/2; Central Leather, 25 1/4, up 1/2; General Motors, 34 1/4, unchanged; Kelly Springfield, 36 1/4, unchanged; Famous Players, 60 1/2, unchanged; General Electric, 118 1/2, up 1/2; Marine preferred, 38 1/2, up 1/2; American Sugar, 61 3/4, up 1/2; Studebaker, 68 1/2, up 1/2; Crucible, 53 1/4, up 1/2; Bethlehem "B", 48 3/8, up 1/4; American Smut, 48, off 1/2.

DEAF MUTE NEAR DEATH ON FALL ON PAVEMENT

Sabina Gonzales, 25, Mexican deaf mute, was in the Orange county hospital today with a fractured skull, as the result of a fall to the pavement in front of a billiard room in Anaheim. His condition is considered critical.

Gonzales, according to Under Sheriff E. E. French, took a dislike to Paul Montijo, 322 West Chestnut street, Anaheim. Montijo took exception to the alleged hostile advances of Gonzales, according to French, and pushed him aside.

The Mexican fell backward and struck his head on the pavement. An X-ray examination disclosed that his skull was fractured at the base of the brain. He also has a wound on the side of his head that appears to have been made by a blunt instrument.

Dario Ybarra, proprietor of the billiard hall, Fernando Flores, Joe Montijo and Henry Ortiz were witnesses to the altercation.

Paul and Joe Montijo took the injured man to the hospital. The former has not been arrested, but the authorities know where to find him in the event a warrant is issued.

LOVE WRECK DENIED BY MRS. SPRECKELS

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Mrs. John Spreckels, whose husband, millionaire oil and sugar magnate, was recently killed in an automobile accident in California returned today on the French liner La Lorraine.

She denied there existed any domestic unhappiness.

"It is true," she said, "that I brought an action for divorce against Mr. Spreckels, charging him with extreme cruelty, and was granted an interlocutory decree but we patched up our differences early last spring. He was the dearest of men when he wanted to be."

Captain Dr. A. C. Jervis, member of the British diplomatic service and attached to the British consul's office at Hollywood, Cal., also returned. He said he had been in conference with Lloyd George but declined to explain the nature of their talk.

"The Irish question is not worrying the premier," he said, "half so much as the Indian question."

POLICE SUSPECT INSIDE JOB IN BIG ROBBERY

United Press Leased Wire
CHICAGO, Aug. 29. — Five men were held by police today in connection with the looting of the security safety deposit vaults in the Masonic temple here of upwards of $250,000.

Three of those held were suspected of the robbery and the other two are Ernest Weber and Milton Jonas, guards who were bound by the bandits.

It was an "inside job," Michael Hughes, chief of detectives, declared.

Gossip in the underworld for years has been of the "easy job" waiting at the Masonic temple vaults, police said.

The vaults are open all night to accommodate business houses staying open late. Many gamblers take advantage of the regulations and deposit their night's winnings there. Sometimes as high as $20,000,000 was stored in the vaults.

While the theater crowds filled the street in the neighborhood of the building, four nattily dressed men entered the vaults, under the pretense of one of their number renting a deposit box. They held up and tied the guards, looted nineteen boxes in a few minutes and escaped without hindrance.

OIL MEN AGREE TO $1 PER DAY PAY CUT

United Press Leased Wire
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29. — Oil field workers employed by the Shell Oil company have agreed to accept a wage cut of $1 per day, Walter J. Yarrow, representative of the men, announced today.

"The cut is accepted not as an economic necessity, but to help the United States navy," he said.

The wage cut is to be the "only change in the present working agreement be added."

Yarrow believed other oil companies would accept a similar settlement of the difficulties which threatened to cause an oil fields strike, September 1.

Representatives of the Butterick Publishing Co. are making a house to house canvass of Santa Ana in the interests of the Delineator. The offer they are making is a very attractive one, redeemable through our store. We would appreciate your granting them an interview.

MAHOGANY BARS AND MIRRORS NOW RANK VALUABLE ANTIQUES

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29. — "What's become of the old fashioned bar with a mahogany top and a mirror behind it?" is the question the moving picture producers are asking.

They are finding them as extinct as the dodo bird, according to Adolph Cohen, "property man" from a Los Angeles studio. He came all the way to San Francisco to find one after he couldn't get any in Southern California.

"I got a bar here after a hard search and, believe me, we'll guard it," he said today. "Those things are getting mighty valuable."

POLICE HOLD WOMAN IN MYSTERY MURDER

United Press Leased Wire
SAN JOSE, Cal., Aug. 29. — Mrs. E. B. Barber, under arrest as an accessory before the fact in the alleged murder of Mrs. Emma Spencer at Lakeport, Calif., left San Jose for Lakeport at 8 a. m. today in charge of Sheriff J. B. Shaul and wife of Lake county.

Mrs. Barber is alleged to have been on unduly intimate terms with the Reverend John Spencer, Presbyterian minister, who is now under arrest charged with his wife's murder.

Under the name of "Mrs. Duncks," Mrs. Barber is alleged to have lived near the Spencer home in Santa Rosa, Calif.

CHINESE STAGE IDOL IS SLAYING VICTIM

United Press Leased Wire
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29. — Police are investigating a romance of the Oriental theatrical life in the murder of Leong Luis Sang, Chinese matinee idol, who early yesterday was set upon and shot to death amid the silken draperies and hangings of his exotic Chinatown lodgings.

A secret love affair with a Chinese beauty of wealthy family who had admired his acting, is thought to have been responsible for the shooting, though long participation in the murder is also suspected. Sang was said to have been a member of the Suez Don society. He was known as the Chinese "Julian Eltinge."

BALL ROOM QUARREL LEADS TO SLAYING

FREEHOLD, N. J., Aug. 29. — New York and New Jersey society was today thrilled by the sensational killing of Cecil Arthur, Manhattan society man, at a fancy dress ball at the Algonquin hotel near here.

Because a Chilean youth attempted to "cut in" on his fair partner, Arthur, after remonstrating with him, was struck on the jaw and fell, fracturing his skull.

SINN FEIN ARMY CHIEF OPPOSES PLEBISCITE

BY CLYDE C. BEALS, United Press Staff Correspondent.

DUBLIN, Aug. 29. — "There will be no Irish plebiscite; there is no need for one. There could be no fair one with English troops here."

Thus spoke Michael Collins, man of mystery in the inner councils of Sinn Fein, in an exclusive interview with the United Press today.

Those propagandists, the Jarveys of Dublin, tell you about "Mickey" Collins, the most fabulous commanding general of the Irish Republican army.

"Ah, there's a fine man for you now, is Mickey Collins. Many's the time the military found his half smoked cigarette, but divil a hair or hide of Mickey."

Price on His Head.

Hairbreadth escapes by this much sought Irish chieftain were almost nightly occurrences during the intensified warfare in Ireland which followed the declaration of martial law and culminated in the present truce.

A price was on "Mickey's" head. Correspondents sought him for interviews, but, whereas other Irish leaders were accessible, Collins was kept carefully out of sight. This man of deeds and few words was interviewed today for the United Press.

A huge figure of a man, towering above the heads of his fellow members of the Dail, his great, bushy black hair waving unhampered by hat or comb, Collins came down the steps of the mansion house, pushing and jostling with other deputies, and strode away towards the liffy, walking with seven league strides. I ranged alongside and as he talked he stooped over, peering close into my face.

I asked him first to tell of some of his war exploits. He had been offered ten thousand pounds for his memoirs.

Wears Chaplin Mustache.

He smiled broadly beneath a tiny black Chaplinesque mustache, which detracts from the dignity of his appearance.

"I can't talk about those," he said. "I might give away some secrets."

"What about Ulster's refusal to join in an all-Ireland nation, then?"

"You mustn't speak of Ulster in that regard. It's not the correct term. There are really only four counties, less than half of Ulster, that are opposed to Irish freedom."

"Our position with regard to these counties is perfectly reasonable. We don't wish to—we shall not—deprive them of any of their just liberties or rights."

"Let them accept the principle of Irish unity and an arrangement can easily be effected."

"It is not we, but they who are stumbling blocks to peace and concord."

I asked Collins if a plebiscite would be taken, now that a deadlock in the negotiations had apparently been reached.

Irish People Unanimous.

"I think the Irish people have fully registered their opinion already, in an unmistakable manner," he replied.

"There is complete unanimity for rejecting the present proposals."

"Another thing that you must remember, my lad, there can be no free plebiscite as long as those English forces are in occupation of our country."

"Will there be war then?" I asked, as we reached the house on St. Stephen's green, where Collins was to take part in another of the endless conferences of Sinn Fein's inner circle.

He turned for an instant on the threshold.

"If they ask for it," he said grimly and with a handclasp that hurt, disappeared inside.

SINN FEIN PREPARES REPLY TO BRITISH

DUBLIN, Aug. 29. — The Sinn Fein cabinet has decided on a reply to Lloyd George's latest note, in which it agrees to further conversations between Irish leaders and the British in London. It was learned today.

The cabinet met here this afternoon and completed its reply which will be forwarded to London immediately.

RAILROAD WORKERS TAKE STRIKE VOTE ON WAGE DECISION

BOSTON, Aug. 29. — Taking of the strike vote of railroad workers of the country was under way today.

The brotherhood of railway trainmen was the first of the "big four" union organizations to start its test of workers' sentiment on whether to accept wage cuts or walk out.

Ballots were sent out to the 150,000 members of the trainmen's union, simultaneously with the dispatch of union officials and representatives to various railroad centers of the country to see that every member votes. A complete vote is asked by the union heads.

Five hundred members of the Federated Shop Crafts have already voted to walk out if their demands are not granted.

FIND NO TRACE OF MISSING STEAMER

United Press Leased Wire

ASTORIA, Ore., Aug. 29. — Fears for the safety of the Canadian freighter Canadian Importer were growing hourly here today as the mystery surrounding her disappearance becomes more impenetrable.

Shipping men say that if the Importer has sunk 625 miles southwest of Cape Hatteras, it marks the climax of one of the most baffling catastrophes of the coastal trade.

The Canadian Winner, which, with the Mannkai, hurried to the Importer's assistance, August 26, has reported that she finds no trace of the Importer where she was last seen.

The Canadian Winner found lumber floating on the water.

Captain C. V. Westerlund, master of the Cordova, declared this lumber may be part of the forward deck load which Captain Bissett of the Importer jettisoned to trim his vessel.

The Cordova is the only vessel which had been in touch with the Importer since she became distressed August 19. He was refused a chance to tow the Importer into port.

The mystery surrounding the Importer, Captain Bissett and thirty members of the crew still on board, and that shrouding the little lifeboat with two officers and nine men which put away August 20 for assistance, is as thick today as the fog which veils the surface of the Pacific.

Laguna Beach Scene Of Merry Gathering Of Blee Clan

Saturday was Red Letter day for the members of the Clan of Blee for on that day, thirty-seven of them gathered for a picnic at Laguna Beach.

The plans for the happy gathering were made soon after the arrival for a visit in Santa Ana of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Blee and small son, David, who came from Palo Alto over a week ago to visit relatives here.

In carrying out the plans, the picnicers motored to Laguna where a lovely spot just this side of Seal rocks was selected as the site. The morning was spent in swimming and in reminiscing on the part of the members, twenty-seven of whom bore the name of Blee while two others had deserted the ranks to marry into another clan.

At noon, a steak dinner, with roasting ears and Spanish frijoles, all of which had been prepared over a bed of glowing coals, was eaten with the relish which the ocean breezes inspire.

The only shadow to mar the day's pleasure was the accident which befell Mr. R. J. Blee, who was struck in the chest by a falling rock, but fortunately received only severe bruises.

An interesting fact that came to light was that five of the young men present were graduates of Santa Ana high school, and the little group of cousins held a private reunion all to themselves. They were all Bleees and were as follows, Harry B., Clarence, W. E., Robert H., Harry H. and Ben.

Those present were: Messrs and Mesdames R. J. Blee, Willie Blee, W. C. Blee, Harry B. Blee of Los Angeles; Frank Blee, of San Diego; Robert H. Blee, of Puente; Clarence E. Blee, of Palo Alto; Harry H. Blee, of San Juan Capistrano; Ben Blee, W. L. Shoemaker; J. O. Baker, W. S. Yingling and J. W. Flagg, Mrs. B. Blee, Mrs. Tessie Blee Bryant, Mrs. Belle Blee Rote, and Mr. James Blee of San Diego, and the seven junior members, Bobby, Betty, Kathryn, Arthur, David, Harry, Jim and Ben Ward Blee.

Forest Home Cabin Open To Many Guests

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cloyes, 626 South Van Ness street, have returned from a delightful outing of two weeks spent at their cabin at Forest Home, that spot so loved by Santa Anans.

During their stay among the pines, Mr. and Mrs. Cloyes entertained a number of their friends, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colladay of Claremont, who were with them over the week end. Other guests during their stay included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hanson and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Lacy, of this city, who spent several days with them.

Junior College Y. W. C. A. To Hold Picnic

A merry picnic has been arranged by the junior college Y. W. C. A. to be held tomorrow afternoon, August 30, on the high school campus. The picnic supper on the green-sward will be served at 5:30 o'clock.

The young couple were unattended and left immediately after the ceremony for San Francisco, where they will be the guests of Mr. Fowler's parents for a short time before returning to this city to make their future home.

THE PATCHWORK QUILT HAVE YOU A PIECE TO PUT IN IT?

By ELEANOR ELLIOTT

She was a dear little old lady, of the type that is immediately associated in one's mind with little children begging to go to grandma's house; with ginger cakes, and peppermint drops, and long, full skirts and comfortable old-fashioned shoes.

But she was plainly unaccustomed to cafeterias, and the hurry and bustle of the place, with its business girls bearing their trays of pickles and ice cream and the men with their roast beef and mashed potatoes and pie, all confused her.

It was with a little sigh of relief that she finally won through to a safe place with her tray containing a bowl of vegetable soup, a cup of tea, and some crackers.

A little taste of the soup revealed the fact that it wasn't quite salty enough for her palate, and seizing the sugar shaker, which stood in the center of the table with its boon companion, the vinegar cruet, she sifted a generous amount into her soup.

It was fascinating to watch the spoon lifted to her mouth with the first taste of the doctored soup. It was thrilling to see the look of wonder and dismay which overspread her face, but it was wonderful to see the do-or-die expression with which she attacked the bowl of soup and ate it to the last drop, sugar or no sugar.

And when it came time for the tea to be swallowed, it was with no hesitation, but rather with the air of a conqueror, that the treacherous sugar shaker was seized and made to deliver of its treasure.

Praises be, she had learned the combination!

An unknown friend who has read the "Quilt" and our Managing Editor's hint on pie, was kind enough to send us a recipe which we hope you'll try. And if you sing, as you mix it up, and dance to the cupboard to put it by, why that's just part of the recipe, because you see it's a musical pie.

Custard Pie

Three large eggs, (fresh laid preferred)
With three tablespoons of sugar stirred.
Mixed with a cup and a half of milk
Will make a pie that is fine as silk.

If you like it flavored as most folks do,
A dash of vanilla and lemon too.
Pour it into your lower crust.
Over the top, your summer dust;
Bake in an oven that's not too hot.
And a better pie could never be bought.

Set it before your hungry men
And I'm sure they'll cry "Please do it again!"

"Japan's New Woman," by Emma Serepta Yule, describes the origin and growth of the feminist movement in Japan, and the effort on the part of those winsome wee ladies to win for their own, those things which women of the Occident have always taken for granted, such as the right to attend public meetings, to dress to please one's self and to face the world fearlessly at the side of one's husband, and not a few paces in the rear.

There is Gold in California

"There is gold in California!" Once that cry went o'er the land, When a miner seeking pay dirt Found a nugget in the sand.

And the gold in California Brought the hordes from every part; Risking life and love for fortune Just to be there at the start.

But the gold in California Is not all beneath the ground. Glimt of moonlight, gleam of sunshine In a myriad spots it's found.

For the gold in California Will outlast all metals mined. It was made to bring forever Joy and blessing to mankind.

Santa Barbara Wedding Checkmates Plans of Santa Ana Friends

With the idea of avoiding the fuss and ceremony of a large wedding, Miss Frances Goodall and Harvey H. Traveller made a flying trip to Santa Barbara last Wednesday, and returned to this city Thursday as Mr. and Mrs. Traveller, much to the surprise of their many friends who had expected the engagement to culminate in an early wedding, but one to which they would all be bidden.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Traveller were the only ones who were taken into the secret and they accompanied the young people to Santa Barbara and witnessed the pretty ceremony and later joined them in a little dinner served at the Arlington, where they were guests for the two days.

Returning to this city, the happy couple have deferred their honeymoon trip until a later date in favor of the more fascinating occupation of going to housekeeping and will be at home to their friends at 315 West Second street.

Mrs. Traveller, as Miss Goodall, has been in Santa Ana for the past two years, and has had charge of the kindergarten at McKinley school. A Detroit, Michigan girl, she has for three years called California her home, and shall continue to make it a home indeed.

Orange County Joins In Welcoming W. C. T. U. Delegates

Santa Anans attending the picnic held Saturday in Lincoln Park, Los Angeles, in honor of the national delegates of the W. C. T. U., were loud in their praise of the program given.

The honor guests were delegates who attended the national convention of the W. C. T. U. held recently in San Francisco, a great many of whom are returning home by the way of Southern California and the picnic was one of the many courtesies shown them.

Sixty delegates and visitors were present from outside of California and thoroughly enjoyed the many good things that the counties of Southern California had prepared for them.

Orange county, under the leadership of the county president, Mrs. Anna Hill, presented the guests with oranges, figs and walnuts and other counties added their quota to the gifts.

Over 300 attended, each county having its own table, besides the table for the guests.

After the picnic lunch all assembled at the pavilion where splendid short addresses were heard from presidents of Indiana, New York, Ohio, North Carolina, Texas, Wyoming, Oklahoma, Missouri, Michigan, Tennessee, S. Dakota and Illinois.

Miss Schaner, national lecturer, who won the first prize for being best speaker at the convention, also spoke, as did Dr. Parker, national worker for social hygiene.

Dr. Parker is also a member of the executive committee of similar work of the U. S. government.

The delegates were delighted with a splendid sixty-five-mile automobile ride given them by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Mark C. Myers, Urologist.

Flower Garnished Home Greets Dinner Guests

A profusion of zinnias in all the glorious autumn colorings gave a lovely garden effect to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Carden when they entertained yesterday at a noon dinner of four courses.

Mr. and Mrs. Carden's guests included Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Carden and Miss Helen Carden of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hill and their family of little people, Herbert, Richard, John William and little Miss Betty.

With these were seated at the table, the small sons of the host and hostess, also, Lester Jr. and Billy Carden.

Mrs. Lester Carden is in Los Angeles today, spending the day with her mother, Mrs. William Frackelton.

WALNUT BUYERS SEE BANNER YEAR AHEAD FOR LOCAL GROWERS

GUGGENHIME & COMPANY EXPECT TO DISTRIBUTE MORE THAN HALF MILLION DOLLARS TO RANCHERS IN THE NEXT FEW WEEKS.

Spot Cash To Growers Has Been a Feature of Walnut Buying For Twenty-three Years and Will Be Appreciated by Local People This Season.

More than half a million dollars ready money, to be distributed to local walnut growers by Guggen-hime & Company within the next few weeks, is expected to have a stimulating influence upon business generally in Orange county. The first of the crop is already being gathered and shippers say the market will be brisk on account of the small supply available at present. The heaviest crop in many seasons is said to be about ready for the harvest.

According to W. M. Smith, manager of Guggen-hime & company, walnut buyers of Santa Ana, 1921 is going to be a banner year for the walnut men of Orange county. The crop is heavy and the price should be good because the surplus which is ordinarily held in storage by some firms is practically exhausted.

"With an unusually large crop and no available supply now on the market there is no reason why local growers should not reap a harvest this season," Mr. Smith said this morning.

Last year the Guggen-hime company paid to walnut growers in Orange county the total sum of $750,000.00. This year the total is expected to climb considerably above that figure. The company is now signing contracts with local ranchers and is offering them spot cash for the walnuts when delivered at the Guggen-hime plant.

Thirty-three Years Service Guggen-hime & company of San Francisco, seeing possibilities of very important developments in this county, opened up a branch walnut and fruit buying plant here in 1888. They operated in a small frame building on Washington street. The present building, covering a very large floor space and storage capacity was erected in 1903. In season it is always worked to full capacity. While the buying and shipping of walnuts is the chief feature of the business the firm also gives considerable attention to the packing and shipping of dried fruits and honey helping to provide an outlet for the vast volume of such commodities produced in Orange county and the neighboring counties to the east.

Average $500,000 a Year Since the Guggen-hime plant opened in Santa Ana thirty-three years ago the average amount of cash distributed among Orange county growers by the company has been in round figures $500,000.00 a year. Many of the ranchers who started out selling to the Guggen-hime Company when it first opened up for business here are still regular clients. There are several desirable features of the Guggen-hime methods of doing business, according to Manager Smith, but the feature that probably is most appreciated by the growers of walnuts, he says, is the "spot cash" system of buying. During the lean years and fat, in the time it has done business here, the Guggen-hime Company has always met the situation with an apparently unlimited purse. Immediate cash is always desirable, ranchers say, but in years such as 1921, when the lack of ready money has been felt in all parts of the United States and ranchers have been handicapped through their inability to lay their hands on unlimited funds, the money paid local growers by the Guggen-hime Company will have a stimulating influence on local business generally. The quicker money can be realized from the 1921 crops in Southern California the sooner trade will settle back to normal, according to popular opinion, and while conditions have been better here than in some other sections of the country, it is felt that the cash handed out by the Guggen-hime Company this season will be especially timely.

Large Demand for Crop The walnuts bought by the Guggen-hime Company are shipped direct to eastern markets. Manager Smith is convinced that the early shipments will find the supply in the East entirely exhausted.

"In the past," he said, "it has been a custom for some firms to place a large volume of walnuts in storage to await better prices, but last year owing to peculiar demands and a limited crop, very few walnuts were stored. I regard the situation as decidedly favorable. The nuts we ship East will be of excellent quality. The price will probably be above the average."

Like nearly all other companies doing business on a large scale, the Guggen-hime Company looks well to the best interests of its clients. The information furnished by the company regarding the care of walnut trees, the harvesting of the crop and the walnut market has proved of the greatest value to hundreds of local growers. Manager Smith does not look upon any reasonable services as too troublesome if there is any manner in which he can make himself useful to his clients.

Since the first year of its operation in Santa Ana, Mr. Smith says, his company has paid out to Orange county walnut men the sum of $13,500,000.00. Adding the money distributed to fruit and honey producers would increase the amount by several million dollars.

As the walnut and fruit-growing industry develops the Guggen-hime Company has fully kept pace. Each year sees added equipment and greater effort to serve the public. Each succeeding season ends with a greater amount of cash having been turned over to local ranch men with which to build up their ranches and add to the general prosperity and development of the "Biggest Little County on Earth."

ADMITTED 'LOVE PIRATE' TO BE GIVEN TERM

Having pleaded guilty in the superior court here to a charge of bigamy, Jesse Cunningham, salesman for a Los Angeles furniture company, was prepared today to appear before Superior Judge R. Y. Williams tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock for sentence. The maximum sentence for bigamy is 10 years in the state's prison.

Cunningham married Violet Trabant here December 4, last. At that time he had a legal wife, Hazel Cunningham, in Los Angeles. Miss Trabant became aware of the existence of Cunningham's wife when she found a divorce summons in his pocket.

It is understood that his first wife brought suit on the ground of desertion. Mrs. Cunningham intimated, however, at the time of the preliminary hearing that she would stick to her husband through his present trouble.

According to Deputy District Attorney C. N. Mozley, Cunningham also is accused by the furniture company with whom he worked, with embezzling rugs, draperies and furniture.

It was stated that he placed the stolen goods in the home which he provided for his second wife. Local authorities did not know whether a complaint had been issued in Los Angeles accusing Cunningham of embezzlement.

Cunningham waived the right of an attorney at his preliminary hearing and also at the time of his arraignment in the superior court.

P. E. CULVERT TO BE BUILT AT 4TH. MAIN

The Pacific Electric company tomorrow will start building a cement culvert under its tracks on Fourth street, at the corner of Main, according to information in the hands today of City Engineer W. W. Hoy.

The culvert is part of the paving program on North Main street. The work will be on the north side of Fourth street and will necessitate the closing of that side of the street for a period approximating thirty days. The city will construct that portion of the gutter lying between the tracks and the curb line on the north side of Fourth.

Steele Finley, contractor on the paving job, today had a force of men clearing the earth off the west side of Main. The period of water cure on the pavement has passed and the work must now season for seven days.

Finley expects to start putting down the asphalt surface Tuesday or four days to complete this job, when the three blocks will again be open to traffic. Each block will be thrown open as the surface is finished, which means that there is possibility of the block between Fourth and Fifth being available to traffic on Wednesday evening or Thursday morning of next week, according to statements of an authority today.

SEEK PHANTOM THIEF AS $70 WATCH STOLEN FROM LOCKED HOUSE

Police here today sought a phantom burglar.

Fred Rowland, 810 South McClay street, reported to the police department the loss of a $70 watch, a 15-jewel Elgin.

A valuable chain with a Knight Templar charm attached also is missing.

Rowland is of the opinion that a burglar entered his home and stole the watch.

Officer Jaymes investigated but could find nothing that would indicate that the Rowland home had been robbed.

All doors and windows were securely locked and nothing inside the house was disturbed.

SCOUT MOVEMENT O. K.'D BY HARDING

NEW YORK, Aug. 29. — In expressing regret at being unable, because of public business, to inspect the Boy Scout encampment in Interstate Park, President Harding sent to Chief Scout Executive West a letter endorsing the membership drive now being conducted.

"The Boy Scout movement has now been in progress so long," said the president, "that nobody at all familiar with its results could possibly doubt its excellent influence upon both the boys who constitute the membership, and the men who generously give their time, efforts and means to its maintenance. It has been especially gratifying to me that this movement has proved itself strong enough to maintain enthusiasm and effective work since the close of the war and that its present outlook is so promising."

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gilbank and Mrs. Gilbank's sister, Miss Lily Parley, visited Camp Baldy today.

ADDICT TO FACE DEADLY WEAPON CHARGE HERE?

Will Clark, drug addict, who escaped from the county hospital a week ago Saturday after striking the orderly over the head with a club, was found in a Los Angeles rooming house last Saturday night by Deputy Sheriff Herman J. Zabel.

According to Zabel, the hospital orderly was to swear to a complaint in the justice court here this afternoon charging Clark with assault with a deadly weapon.

Clark was arrested here in company with W. R. Lyhne about three weeks ago when Lyhne cashed an alleged worthless check for $5. Clark was sentenced to a term of thirty days on a charge of vagrancy and a date was set for Lyhne's preliminary hearing.

The two men were transferred to the county hospital because of their drug habit. Both made a break for liberty after being given a morphine bath. Clark was caught about a half mile from the hospital. He was returned and made a second escape three hours later.

Lyhne was arrested in San Bernardino last Friday and returned to the county jail here by Undersheriff E. E. French and Deputy Joe Irvine. Both are to be held in the county jail for safe keeping.

LEVEE CONTRACT AWARDED. SACRAMENTO, Aug. 29. — Gadd & Tibbals of Sacramento have been awarded the contract for the removal of the buildings, pumping plants and other obstructions from the Hood levee site on their bid of $21,067. The awards for the team work and dredging necessary in building the four-mile gap in the levee will be awarded by the state reclamation board September 1.

MYSTERY EXCHANGE OF BICYCLES IS PUZZLE TO POLICE IN S. A.

It has been said that a fair exchange is no robbery.

Nevertheless, the local police department was seeking today to clear up a mysterious exchange of bicycles. Prospero Aguirre, Mexican, reported that he attended a local theater last night and left his wheel in the vestibule of the show house.

When he came out he found another bicycle where he had left his own. Aguirre searched the locality, but could find no trace of his own bike. He then commandeered the one left in its place.

He told the authorities that while he would rather have his own wheel, he would make the best of the substitute until "the other fellow" discovered his mistake, if he does.

TALBERT WELL AT BEACH SANDS UP

Oil operators for the Talbert Oil company at Huntington Beach were today endeavoring to bring their well, which was brought in Saturday, back into the field of production. The well sanded up a few hours after the oil started flowing.

According to word from the field, the sanding up is nothing serious. Pipes are being laid which will drain the sand and allow the oil to flow freely. Many wells in the Huntington Beach field have encountered the same difficulty.

The Talbert well came in as a 500-barrel a day producer. It is located on lots at the corner of Seventeenth and Main streets. Oil was struck at a depth of 2264 feet.

Supervisor T. B. Talbert is president of the company. Other directors are Taylor Montgomery, Santa Ana; N. T. Edwards, Orange; W. H. Naylor, Arcadia; and W. P. Temple, El Monte.

REV. F. T. PORTER IS SPEAKER AT UNION MEET

"If you want a harvest of wheat you must sow wheat. It's the same with Christianity. If you want a harvest of Christians you must sow the gospel seed of the Kingdom."

That was the gist of the sermon delivered last night at the community church services at Birch park by the Rev. F. T. Porter, pastor of the First Christian church. The services last night were the last of the regular summer union meetings.

Starting Sunday, the Santa Ana churches will resume evening services in their own buildings.

The Rev. Mr. Porter chose as his subject, "Nature and Christianity."

"We seek remedies for sickness in nature," he said. "In the same way the blood of Jesus Christ is an antidote for sin. There is a limitation of knowledge in both, although the understanding is both plain and simple. The same condition of mind must be reached to understand either."

The community song service was led by the Rev. S. H. Balles, assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

Special music was a feature of last night's service. Miss Velma Glen and Edward Burns gave numbers on the violin and the cello, accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Wright at the piano. Miss Lizetta Phillips and Miss Helen Skaggs gave two xylophone selections.

STEAL SHOOTING IRON.

TIPTON, Cal., Aug. 29. — The police force of Tipton has unwillingly agreed to disarmament. Someone stole Constable Ross Graham's "shooting iron" from the head of his bed as he lay sleeping.

HORRORS! REPORT CHURCH BURGLARY IS MADE BY ORGANIST!

L. M. Cutting, of Los Angeles, brother-in-law of the Rev. P. F. Shrock, pastor of the First Congregational church here, visited the pastor's study the other day, just to see if everything was as it should be, for he and Mrs. Cutting are staying at the Shrock residence pending the return of the Rev. and Mrs. Shrock from a two-weeks' vacation.

Cutting heard someone playing the organ. Not wishing to interfere with the musician's activities, he withdrew.

Evidently the organist thought the church was being robbed, for now there is a report at police headquarters that a burglar had entered. Naturally the officers found nothing missing, Cutting not being of a burglarious mind.

The Rev. and Mrs. Shrock motored north about ten days ago to visit Mrs. Shrock's sister, Mrs. W. K. Graham, at Auburn, Cal. They are expected to return either tonight or tomorrow.

APHASIA VICTIM BACK AT HOME IN SAN JOSE

W. L. Harbough, who was held in the county jail here for a week after being picked up in a dazed state of mind, was at his home in San Jose today. The victim of aphasia was taken to his home by E. E. Stevens, garage man of Long Beach, who identified him.

Harbough went to Stevens' garage about a month ago and rented parking space with the announced intention of starting a transfer business. Then he disappeared. He was picked up at Oceanside August 19 by a state parole officer.

Stevens notified Harbough's wife immediately after identifying him and it was reported that Mrs. Harbough was on the way to Santa Ana to take charge of her husband. She failed to arrive and it was not until last Saturday that Stevens learned that she could not get here on account of illness. He then volunteered to return Harbough to his home.

WALNUTS ESCAPE HEAT DAMAGE, SAYS GROWER

Walnuts have not been damaged by the warm weather of the past two or three days and there is no probability of the crop being damaged by hot weather at this time, according to the observation today of a walnut grower.

It was reported in some sections of the county that nuts were hurt by the heat of yesterday, but the report is declared to have no foundation.

In the first place, the weather has not been warm enough to do damage even were the nuts just commencing to form, and with the nuts now at maturity no damage could possibly be done the crop, although the trees might be hurt a little in the opinion of this grower.

3 AUTOS FIGURE IN LAGUNA ROAD CRASH

L. G. Gehring, 715 West Sixth street, today reported to the sheriff's office that while traveling east on Laguna road about 8 o'clock last night his automobile became unmanageable at a point three miles east of Irvine.

Gehring believes that one of the auto wheels ran into a chuckhole or struck some obstruction. At any rate, the car swerved to the left and crashed into a Chandler automobile. A Hudson approaching Gehring's car from the rear shamed into the wreck.

All three machines were put out of commission but the occupants escaped injury. Gehring said that he did not get the names of the drivers of the Hudson and Chandler cars, but that they got his number.

Stage and Screen News

of the Week
By FRANCES DEANER

In presenting this calendar of feature attractions at the Santa Ana theaters, each week, I endeavor to give a simple, non-partisan "preview" of the productions. Owing to the limited space for their exposition here, I shall be pleased to answer queries from The Register's readers seeking further information on the current, or other screen productions in so far as my knowledge of the subject extends.

TONIGHT
YOST — "What's Worth While?" a Lois Weber production, with Clair Windsor, Louis Calhern, Arthur Stuart Hull, Mona Lisa and Edwin Stevens; romance of a Southern girl and a man of the West; Fox News; vaudeville.

WEST END — "Buried Treasure," a Cosmopolitan production, with Marion Davies, Norman Kerry and a good cast; story by F. Britten Austin; delightful adventure carrying one from modern New York back to the days of pirates on the Spanish main; fanciful and with lavish mountings; "Kinograms"; short-reel features.

PRINCESS — "Penny of Top Hill Trail" with Bessie Love, Wheeler Oakman, Raymond Cannon, and other favorites; screen version of novel by Belle Kanaris; Mariates bearing the same title; drama centering about the escapade of a motion picture actress. Popular Ruth Roland in "Ruth of the Rockies," "Snub" Pollard comedy.

TUESDAY
YOST — Melkojohn and Dunn Vaudeville Road show with return engagement of Aleko, Panthena and Presco; "Paying the Piper" with Dorothy Dickson, Alma Tell, George Fawcett and a well-selected cast; Rod La Roque, a George Fitzmaurice production; story and adaption by Ouida Bergere; money versus the finer qualities of love and human nature furnish the motif of the story. This picture is well worth seeing. The regeneration of certain idle rich men and women in the crucible of adversity is set forth in powerful detail.

WEST END — "Buried Treasure." PRINCESS — "A Slave of Vanity" with Pauline Frederick, Nigel Barrie and a competent cast; screen adaptation of the drama "Vivian" by Sir Arthur Wing Pinero; a Robertson Cole production; in this story Pinero shows the regeneration of a parasite to a woman, whose soul gradually develops until it reflects those things which we love best in the human character. Those who enjoy Miss Frederick's artistry will be charmed with the vivid picture she portrays of the woman who is rescued from her own selfishness by the divine spark of love; and also the fine manner in which she puts over the spirit of the message that Pinero meant to convey to the world through the medium of the play.

YOST — Melkojohn and Dunn vaudeville road show; "Paying the Piper."

WEST END — "Buried Treasure." PRINCESS — "A Slave of Vanity."

THURSDAY
TEMPLE — Thomas Meighan in "The City of Silent Men" with Lois Wilson and a selected cast; Paramount production; a psychological study of a man who was falsely imprisoned and the effect it had upon him throughout his life; there is plenty of heart interest in the unfolding of the plot. The prison scenes were filmed at Sing Sing. Some reviewers think this is the popular star's best work since "The Miracle Man." Other interesting features round out the Temple bill, always well worth viewing.

WEST END — William S. Hart in "The Whistle" with Myrtle Stedman and a good cast; including little George Stone, who will be remembered for his work with Hart in "The Poppy Girl's Husband"; story by May Wilmoth and Olin Lyman; adapted and directed by Lambert Hillyer; a story of industrial life in New England and Hart appears as a factory worker; while parental love is the dominant theme of "The Whistle," the entire action is designed to point out that one wrong does not right another. There are many touches of great charm and whimsical character in the piece.

PRINCESS — "Hearts and Masks" with Elinor Field, Francis McDonald, Lloyd Bacon and a good cast; story by Harold MacGrath; scenario by Mildred Cosidine; Federated production; comedy drama centering about a girl who sought adventure and found it, incidentally capturing a notorious crook in the one hand and a husband in the other and it is hoped, learning a few worthwhile lessons in the meantime.

YOST — Dorothy Dalton in "The Idol of the North," with Edwin August and a well-balanced cast; Paramount production; story by J. Clarkson Miller; scenario by Frank Beresford; a study in the psychology of woman; framed in all the rough-and-ready atmosphere of the Canadian Northwest, much of the action taking place in a dance hall in "Totem City," modeled after Dawson City of the gold-rush days; Miss Dalton has a part similar to the one in "The Flame of the Yukon" in which she became famous.

FRIDAY
TEMPLE — Thomas Meighan in "The City of Silent Men."

YOST — Dorothy Dalton in "The Idol of the North."

PRINCESS — "Hearts and Masks."

SATURDAY
TEMPLE — Thomas Meighan in "The City of Silent Men."

YOST — Dorothy Dalton in "The Idol of the North."

WEST END — William S. Hart in "The Whistle."

PRINCESS — Dorothy Dalton in "Chicken Casey."

RICHES LOOKED FOR BY S. A. GOLD MINERS

With hundreds of tons of gold ore blocked out for miners to work on, H. H. Kelly, T. P. Kingrey and Roy Hall were home today from Quincy, Cal., where they have been for the past two months engaged in working and supervising development work on property of the Kelly Mining corporation.

The three men were called here on business and Hall and Kelly probably will return to the mine in a few days.

The mill of the corporation was operated for a day and a half before the men came home operation being mostly for the purpose of testing out the machinery. The result was satisfactory.

Ore has been blocked out and when a sufficient quantity has been mined to keep the mill going it will be started. According to statements today by Hall and Kingrey the mine increases in wealth and promise as development work progresses.

BURGLAR SUSPECT SEEN AT LA HABRA

Orange county authorities were on the lookout today for a man 25 years old, weighing about 155 pounds, dark complexioned and smooth shaven, who yesterday robbed several houses in Whittier.

According to a report from Constable Way of Whittier, the burglar rifled several small savings banks. He is said to have taken the silver out of the banks and discarded the pennies.

The suspect was seen in La Habra about 2:30 o'clock yesterday. He is said to be wearing army breeches and leggings.

LAST RITES FOR DALE TALBOTT HELD HERE

Last sad rites were held Saturday afternoon for Dale Talbott, Santa Ana man, who was drowned in the Merced river in the Yosemite August 22.

Services were held at the Smith and Tuthill undertaking parlors and interment was in Fairhaven cemetery. There was a large attendance and there were many flowers.

The Rev. Otto S. Russell, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated. He spoke of Talbott as the quiet, unassuming sort of man who always helped the other fellow and said nothing about it. He told of Talbott's enlistment and service record.

"He was weighed in the balance and found not wanting," said the Rev. Russell.

Mrs. Tom Willets beautifully rendered, "Some Time We'll Understand." She was accompanied on the organ by Miss Ruth Armstrong.

Palbearers were Henry Lockett, Charles Van Wyck, W. Stanley Gebb, Maurice McElree, Tom Willets and Farwell P. Hull.

Dale Talbott was drowned a week ago today while swimming at Steamboat bay in the Merced river. He and W. Stanley Gebb left Santa Ana by auto for a two-week vacation at Yosemite and were on their way to Lake Tahoe. Gebb was the only person present when the drowning occurred. He said Talbott made no outcry.

Talbott was 26 years old. He was born December 4, 1894, at Medford, La., converted in the Baptist church at the age of 13, graduated from the Santa Ana high school in 1914 and enlisted in the army June 1, 1918.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Talbott, 526 South Broadway, and a brother of Mrs. J. E. Livesey Jr.

PLASTER VAMPS AT SHORE LOSE CUNNING

if a diving damsel is to be in the running when it comes to being seductive on the beach, experts point out.

Beauties Doff "Slips."

And then there is the wrinkle, evidently becoming increasing popular, of the silk "slip," to be worn when one is lounging on the beach and to be doffed when one is ready for a dip—doffed in favor of what is underneath, a skimpy little black natorial garment, with just enough of a skirtlet to satisfy Mrs. Grundy.

For when one is swimming, one really cannot be hampered by the swishing and sloshing of even the lightest of silk skirts.

And the beach siren of the summer of 1921 really does swim, though she does lool on the sand a great part of the time. "Don't go in the water, daughter," means nothing in the life of the present day seaside charmer. Sunbathing is the rule, rather than the exception.

Not that the beach at Balboa is given over entirely to the young enchantresses. There are old maidens, too—and their bathing apparel is nothing if not conservative. Persons with a fondness for the quizzical have been known to get "quite a kick" out of some of the surfing costumes at Balboa—fearsome and baggy affairs they are, with trousers reaching below the knees. Nothing vampsish about them, so it is declared.

Buy Substantial Wares.

As to the scantiness of the kiewpie doll business this summer, it was pointed out at Balboa that the summer visitors there had gone in for less frivolous things. The grocery stores, the eating houses and others with the more substantial wares to sell have been doing a land office business. Even our old friend, the purveyor of sizzling bow-wows, has been lining his purse handsomely while aiding the public to "get them while they are hot."

Altogether, it was said, the summer season at Balboa and at Newport has been satisfactory.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—That the next winter will be a cold one is the indication of weather data compiled by Dr. C. F. Brooks, formerly meteorologist of the Federal Weather bureau and now associate professor of meteorology and climatology at the Clark university.

An analysis of the weather records of over a century indicates that we are experiencing a series of alternations of severe and warm winters. Last fall, on the basis of his investigation, Dr. Brooks said that last winter would be warm. It was. And now he says that it is not unreasonable to expect that next winter will be a cold one.

The weather seems to be repeating itself. The present series of sharply alternating winters began in 1917-1918, with the cold weather of that year. The winter of forty-five years before, 1872-1873, inaugurated a series of winters that were severe, warm, severe, warm, etc., until 1882-1883.

HOLD FUNERAL FOR TOT KILLED BY FALL

Aching hearts this afternoon poured out their grief as funeral services were held at 2 o'clock at the Smith and Tuthill chapel for Anita Ender, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Ender, who Thursday afternoon of last week passed suddenly from the happy moments of reading to her dolls into the world of eternal happiness. The little girl, who was the sunshine of the Ender home, was seated on the rail on a second floor back porch reading to her dolls late Thursday afternoon when she lost her balance and fell to the ground. Her neck was broken.

Sympathizing friends of the family paid tribute in the final rites to one they loved. They did what they could to console the grief-stricken parents in the moment of deepest sorrow. The floral contributions were pretty.

The Rev. John Oliver, pastor of the First Methodist church, spoke comforting words to the grief-stricken remarks that were tender and forceful.

"Sometime We'll Understand" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" were sung sweetly by Mrs. H. M. Sammis, with Miss Ruth Armstrong accompanying her.

The body was interred in Fairhaven cemetery, the parents having decided to bury the body here instead of at Burlington, Ia., their old home city.

PARIS, Aug. 29.—It is the quiet life for Peggy Hopkins Joyce this time. She is living in an expensive suite in the Hotel Majestic, near the Etoile, with a maid. She rises at noon, lunches usually at the Ritz, motors in the Bois de Boulogne during the afternoon, and frequently dines at the Cafe de Paris. In the evening she attends the theater.

I saw Peggy at the Ritz yesterday afternoon. She was clad in an entirely black tailored suit and a long coat edged with fur. She wore an extremely short skirt, revealing a golden anklet worn several inches higher than French women wear them. Her hat was a black velvet turban with a little white tassel. The big ropes of pearls that were so conspicuous last year were absent, but a giant diamond-shaped ring still glitters on her fingers.

Peggy refuses to see anyone except a mysterious stoop-shouldered young man known as M. De Merion, a banker.

1200 PYTHIANS ENJOY PICNIC AT PARK

Knights of Pythias of Orange county who were present yesterday at the big county picnic of members of the order today were chuckling to themselves as they recalled amusing incidents of the day.

It was estimated that between 1200 and 1500 Pythians were present, practically all of the lodges of the county being represented.

The lodges co-operated in the entertainment program, the purpose being to bring the lodge brothers and their families into closer relationship and to pass the day at play.

Two baseball games and other picnic sports offered a variety of entertainment for old and young, many of the fathers and mothers going back to the days when they were kiddies by throwing conventionalities to the wind and indulging in the games and sports offered on the program.

Features were going all day that kept the picnickers engaged in pleasing pastime. The weather was a little warm but interfered in no way with the pleasure of the party.

The numbers at the park yesterday were increased by several family and community picnic parties and individuals who delight in passing the day or afternoon at the beautiful park. The throng was estimated at from 4000 to 5000.

MINISTER TELLS OF WIFE'S CASE

Rev. A. H. Sykes, former pastor of the Watkins Park Presbyterian church, Nashville, Tenn., says: "After seeing what Tanlac has accomplished in my wife's case, I am convinced that it is a medicine of great power and extraordinary merit. I do not think I have ever seen anything to give such prompt relief to health for ten months, suffering from stomach trouble and nervous breakdown.

"I frequently sought medical advice but Tanlac is the only thing that gave her any relief. After taking the medicine only a short time, she was able to sit up and help with the household duties. I think it only a short time until her health will be fully restored."

Tanlac is sold in Santa Ana by the Rowley Drug Co.

COUNTY MEN WILL BE AT VETS' FETE

steamer preparations are being made to charter a second. It is expected that nearly a thousand men from points along railroads leading into San Francisco will make the trip. In OD uniforms and overseas caps, with tin hats strapped over one shoulder ready for the monster parade to be staged by the division, the men from the north are planning to make the city of Los Angeles sit up and take notice. Though most of the crowd will be from the 363rd, there will be several hundred from other units of the division.

Veterans of the 363rd in Los Angeles have formed a committee of sixty to welcome their comrades from the north and plan to meet them at the boat with a band and a special train. Arriving in Los Angeles they will march four blocks to Reunion headquarters in the clubrooms of Los Angeles post of the American Legion and there disband. Saturday night there will be a 363rd banquet at which Mayor Rolph will be the principal speaker and Sunday ceremonies in Exposition Park which 25,000 or 30,000 people are expected to attend.

Colors and standards of the 362nd Infantry and the 348th Field artillery will be sent to the reunion of the Ninety-first division to be held at Los Angeles September 24 and 25, according to word received by reunion headquarters from Charles L. Sheridan, adjutant general of Montana.

Several hundred men from Orange county fought overseas with the Ninety-first division. Most of these men were with the 363rd and the 364th regiments.

BELIEVE OIL WORKERS WILL NOT WALK OUT

BREA, Aug. 29.—The prospect of a big strike in the oil fields of California seem to have gone glimmering, according to reports received daily, the latest news being that the Edens Syndicate and the Miller Syndicate and the Orange County Drilling company have signed a contract to recognize the workers collectively.

It is believed that many of the smaller companies who are in favor of government mediation are arranging to pool their interests and market their product the same as the Citrus association and similar bodies, thus enabling them to cut loose from the so-called oil trust upon whom they have had to depend to sell their oil, or to deal with their men.

The signing of the three companies mentioned above, along with three companies announced earlier, is taken to mean that there will not be a general strike at any rate.

Local oil workers and officers decline to be interviewed concerning the situation further than to say that "things are looking good," and that there is no fear of violence on their part.

The local union at its regular meeting last Thursday night was visited by R. H. Stickle, president of the International Oil Well, Gas Field and Refinery Workers, but local officers report nothing for publication.

SCHOOL PRINCIPAL IS CHOSEN;

WINTERSBURG AND SMELTZER.

Aug. 29.—Miss Lillian Rush has been chosen principal of the Springdale school by the school board, including E. Ray Moore, C. C. Bonebrake and Emil Kettler. She will teach the fifth, sixth and seventh grades of the school.

Miss Rush taught formerly in the school department of San Luis Obispo county, and at present is residing in Huntington Beach.

Miss Ethel Dwyer is entertaining as her guest Miss Lowdin, a friend from Long Beach, who returned home Wednesday evening with Miss Dwyer, who spent the day in Los Angeles, returning by way of the beach town.

Juniors' Party
The first year juniors of the Wintersburg Methodist Sunday school were pleasantly entertained at a party on Thursday afternoon at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Horace Moore, who was hostess of the occasion. A variety of outdoor games were engaged in by the children, assisted by Mrs. Moore, Mrs. W. F. Slater, their former teacher, and Mrs. H. O. Ensign.

Tempting refreshments of ice cream in cantaloupe, with cookies, was served during the afternoon.

The boys and girls enjoying the party were:

Bonnylyn Fox, Curtis Moore, Eugene Ensign, Alma Kanawyer, Margaret Bonebrake, Lee Morgan, Mable Gardner, Francis Smith, Bert Paugh, Russell Kanawyer, Linnie Nelson, all class members; Richard Morgan, member of a more advanced class, and the three small Ensign children were present, joining with the juniors in their good time.

Mrs. Lena Patterson left Thursday morning for Trabaca canyon, where she is spending a few days in company with a party from Talbert.

New Arrivals
Mr. and Mrs. Smith and family, who have rented the Ensign home, moved in Monday of this week. The Smiths are from Ramona Acres.

Miss Madeline Conover arrived Saturday from Los Angeles to remain a week as the guest of the Misses Gothard.

Walter Dilley and family moved this week to Garden Grove, where Dilley is employed at tractor work in orchards.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Graham motored to Puente Tuesday morning, and upon their return were accompanied by their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Lyons.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Clay of Los Angeles were guests Wednesday night and Thursday at the W. F. Slater home, and upon their return were accompanied by June Slater, who will visit at their home.

Miss Bessie Tenick was taken to the county hospital Thursday morning very ill with typhoid fever. Miss Tenick had been ill with the disease in the "walking" form for over a week and thought she had a gripe during that time.

To Go to South America
Mrs. Lloyd Edwards received a letter Wednesday from her sister, Mrs. Henry Garens, telling of their intention to leave within three months' time for South America, where Mr. Garens goes as a missionary of the Seventh Day Adventist church.

Garens graduated the first of this week from a hospital in Los Angeles, where he took part of the nurses' training which he expects to be of great benefit to him in his work in the mission field. The first part of the course he completed at the Loma Linda sanitarium. Mr. and Mrs. Garens are frequent visitors here and Mrs. Garens and children left the Edwards home only a few weeks ago, following a month's visit.

George Curtis and family left Tuesday for Ontario to visit a daughter of Mr. Curtis, who has been very ill at a hospital in that city. She is reported as better. The Curtis' returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Edwards had as guests at their home Saturday night and Sunday Mr. and Mrs. McKee, friends from Anaheim.

Frank Houser came last Tuesday to the Lloyd Edwards home to remain while assisting his brother-in-law in the overhauling of his caterpillar.

Visitors From Imperial
Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Atkins arrived Saturday from Imperial on a week's visit at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Sharrett.

On last Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Atkins accompanied their cousin, Miss Ethel Dwyer, on a motor trip to Los Angeles, where they were guests for the day of Mrs. Atkins' niece, Mrs. Kenneth Uford.

Mrs. W. F. Slater, daughter, June, and son, Homer, and Dorothy Ensign enjoyed last Wednesday afternoon on the sands at Huntington Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Fox were hosts at a farewell occasion given Tuesday in honor of the Rev. A. J. McKenzie, who left the same evening for his home at Chehalis, Wash., in company with his son and daughter, Normand and Elizabeth.

A tempting picnic luncheon on the sands at Huntington Beach was enjoyed at the noon hour and a dip in the plunge was taken in the afternoon.

The guests included: The Rev. Mr. McKenzie, Elizabeth and Normand McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Moore, Mrs. George Wardwell and daughter, Elizabeth, the latter two of Huntington Beach, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Fox and daughter, Bonnelyn.

Coming for Winter
Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Chism are expecting their grand-daughter, Miss Vivian Baker, to arrive within a few weeks to spend the winter at their home. Miss Baker is from Durango, Colo., and will attend the Huntington Beach high school this term.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Taylor entertained as dinner guests on Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Tom Thompson, of Huntington Beach, whose marriage occurred recently.

Professors and Mrs. Ensign accompanied Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Fox and daughter, Bonnelyn, on a motor trip to Newport Beach. The Ensigns have a house engaged at the beach town and will move down about September 6 to be in readiness for the opening of the school of which Professor Ensign will be principal again.

Mrs. Normand Clemens is expected to return on Sunday from the Community hospital, Santa Ana, where she recently underwent an operation.

Mrs. Lena Patterson was a member of a delightful party of friends who enjoyed a jolly evening together and a steak bake on the sands at Huntington Beach, Saturday evening.

The party members were: Mrs. Burdick of El Monte, Ernest and Mrs. Chester Glenn of Puente, Mr. and Mrs. Suttle of Costa Mesa, Mr. and Mrs. Perrigall of daughters, Mary, Doris and Dot; and Messrs. Suker and Barger of Huntington Beach.

HARPERVILLE
HARPERVILLE, Aug. 29.—Milo Allen and party of mighty hunters have returned from their jaunt to Kern county.

The party is very reticent, but enough has been obtained to know that Milo Allen is the only one of the party to say definitely a deer was seen. Measurings the others of the party are quietly whispering:

"Milo glimpsed a cow and calf and his imagination did the rest."

Arthur Schintzer has just finished irrigating his walnuts and oranges and is polishing up his "shooting irons" preparatory to an old-fashioned hunt. The captain is the only man in this vicinity who hunts rabbits from a tractor. It is said, but his lead is likely to be followed as he says it is "some sport" to hunt from a tractor.

One more new windmill and tank is the latest addition to the building boom of Harperville.

Nathe Harmon now has entirely recovered from his illness and is as good as new. Nathe says he has not felt better in years than he feels just now. His friends are wondering if there is not some relation between his present prime health and the rapidly-approaching game season, it is said.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Christensen and daughter, from Cochilla Valley and Albert and Carl Christensen were callers at the Rossett residence last Thursday evening, which was spent in an old-time neighborly chat and spiced with a little ice cream and cake.

Mesdames Nancy and Hortense Rossett were visitors at the Schrum, of Venice, last Friday. The ladies took with them Master Frederick Frank Rossett to enliven the visit.

Frank Hammon returned from Calexico last week and is now enjoying "roasting ears" from the Harperville corn fields. Bill Tiech has the champion ears for roasting. They are brayl odds the finest ears of corn in this section. He says it is Bermuda corn.

Clarence Pearson is exhibiting a pair of blistered hands. He says it is the result of picking his own oranges, more than 600 boxes. He has disposed of about all his holdings back in Detroit, Michigan, and purposes to make Harperville his permanent place of business.

Hermon Christensen is cleaning the weeds of the summer along his orange grove and the place presents a beautiful and cleanly appearance.

H. B. DeWitt, the "old man eloquent," of Harperville wants his many friends to know that while he has a new "flivver" that he is still hard at work.

Milo and Garfield Allen were seen holding a secret meeting, it is said, and the presumption is that as soon as the game laws open their jaws men.

520 TONS BEETS ARE SHIPPED IN 4 DAYS

TALBERT, Aug. 29.—The Planta dump had a shipment of 520 tons of beets during the four days the dump was open the past week, with about twelve haulers, and these irregular.

There are thirteen or fourteen more haulers whose beets will go to the factory from this dump who have not yet begun their harvest.

One and two cars of beets went out each day the past week at the Lamp dump, and the tonnage coming in now is heavier.

Mrs. Robert Wardlow, daughter, Muriel, and son, Donald, left Thursday for Santa Monica to spend a few days as guests at the Miller home, where Miss Gladys Wardlow has been visiting the past two weeks. All will return home within a few days.

Return to Fresno
Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ambrose and family, who have been house guests at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Charles Ward, left for Long Beach, Wednesday, and following a visit in that city, at the home of Mrs. Ambrose's cousin, were to leave Wednesday upon their return to Fresno.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward and Miss Gertrude Ambrose accompanied the party to Long Beach, Sunday.

Donald Harper and Ben Cox returned Tuesday from a camping trip to Laguna, and on Thursday left for the mountains to remain for the remainder of their vacation.

On the latter trip they were accompanied by Mrs. J. O. Harper, Ruth Harper, Mrs. Henry Harper and Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Smith and family, of this place, and Mrs. Lena Patterson of Smeltzer.

Two machines conveyed the party to their destination.

Vacation at Catalina
The Misses Adell and Agnes Gisher arrived home Wednesday evening from Catalina Island, where they have enjoyed a most delightful ten days' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ward motored to Downey Friday and attended the fair. As Downey is the former home of the Wards, they make it a yearly practice to attend the fair at least one day and renew the acquaintance of many old friends at this time.

Mrs. J. J. Courreges and children have returned from Los Angeles and was accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Henry Landin, who remained as her guest over night.

Miss Gertrude Ambrose returned the latter part of the week from Los Angeles, where she had been a visitor.

CITY TAKEN BY GREEKS IS SWEEPED BY FLAMES

LONDON, Aug. 29.—Eski-Shehr, the city in Asia Minor recently captured by the Greeks in their offensive against the Turkish Nationalists, is being swept by fire, says an Athens dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company.

The flames have been raging for several days and have destroyed the greater part of the town, it is said.

There will be "something doing." They were in secret consultation with E. M. Dozier, the well known quail hunter.

Tom Plant and Billy Young are still in San Diego county on business. They are a fine pair of salesmen.

APPORTIONMENT OF SENATORS

The movement to secure a constitutional amendment to limit the number of state senators that any one city can have seems to be gaining headway throughout the state.

It is declared that a number of eastern states have the system, and that it works well. Again, it is pointed out that the United States senate is made up of men selected not on population but upon political subdivisions of the country. The selection of state senators according to political subdivisions may in the end be adopted in California.

The Riverside Press, in discussing the matter, has the following:

"The San Bernardino Sun approves the principal of the plan suggested by the Press to limit the number of senators for the three large counties of the state—Los Angeles, San Francisco and Alameda, but urges that the provision should be embodied in a constitutional amendment. The Sun suggests a limit of four senators for any city in the state. That would give the three big counties of the state a somewhat larger representation in the senate than the plan proposed by the Press which is to give Los Angeles county five, San Francisco three and Alameda two.

What the Press would like to see done is some action that will ensure an apportionment for the next ten years that will protect the country against the big cities. The legislature will meet in special session before long to pass an apportionment bill and no amendment to the constitution can be adopted until November 1922, too late to apply to the coming special session. Go ahead with plans for a constitutional amendment to be placed on the ballot by initiative, but meantime why not pass an apportionment measure that would embody the principles of the proposed amendment? Then the legislature of 1923 would be elected on that basis.

"The writer takes it for granted that only one apportionment bill can be passed by a state following the decennial federal census; and that therefore the law which California will adopt at the coming special session would stand until the census of 1930. If this assumption is correct, then the importance of clipping the wings of the big cities without waiting for a constitutional amendment becomes obvious. Why accept intolerable conditions for the next ten years when we can remedy them by legislative act?

"A constitutional amendment, if adopted, would safeguard us for the future; but immediate relief can be secured by legislative enactment. If a law is passed that will put the control of both assembly and senate for the next ten years in the hands of Los Angeles, San Francisco and Oakland, there is no telling how that power will be used during that period and there is no telling how that control might be used to block or delay future legislation under a constitutional amendment.

"Better play safe by a fair apportionment bill now than to go ahead with an amendment to take care of the future."

CAUSES FOR CRIME WAVE

Following payment of approximately $16,000,000 embezzlement and burglary claims last year by thirty surety and burglary insurance companies, the president of a national surety company, gives what he believes to be the eleven principal causes of the present nation-wide crime wave.

Widespread disrespect for law, which is always an inevitable consequence of war, is first on the list.

Enlarged opportunities for crime, increased daring of war-drafted criminals, high living costs, lowered wages, unemployment, a mistaken and ignorant discontent and notion of injustice among many individuals, excessive speculation, loose accounting systems in many concerns, careless investigating methods in employment, lavish display and dangerously fallacious communistic theorizing are among other important factors enumerated.

Present increased crimes developed in various unfortunate business and economic situations which were caused by the war. These various national economic situations must be intelligently analyzed and clearly understood by every one in order to be completely and permanently remedied.

HELP FOR STOCKMEN

The fifty thousand live stock pool formed by bankers throughout the country to relieve the pressure on grower, grazer and cattle dealer has completed its organization as the Stock Growers Finance corporation, and has begun to function.

The chief business of the giant concern will be the re-discounting of cattle paper offered by bankers and cattle loan companies throughout the West which have loaned on live stock and which cannot otherwise get their money out, under conditions such as these, without forcing unduly the sale of the stock which secures it. No direct loans will be made by the corporation and the discount rate, it is announced, will be maintained at 7 per cent.

The big company intends to loan only upon paper secured by conservative mortgages on live stock and will accept no paper, which is not eligible for re-discount with a Federal Reserve bank. The advantage of this arrangement is that this great volume of capital becomes available for this specific purpose, whereas the Federal Reserve banks, having the whole business of the nation to serve, must fix limits to the maturities of the commercial paper which they accept.

The live stock industry, like practically every other, has always been largely conducted on a credit basis, and business conditions in these last months have hit it hard. This new corporation, projected by private initiative, and commanding national support, is calculated to help much in tiding it over. It will serve the live stock industry much as the Federal Reserve system serves the whole business structure of the nation, and it can hardly help but justify itself.

One wonders why similar machinery was never devised before.

ENGLISH AT CONFERENCE

There is a whisper, not verified as yet, that the official language of the disarmament conference is to be English; speeches and official minutes included.

Perhaps this news will be unwelcome in foreign circles, though no slight was intended. French has been the accepted language of diplomacy for generations, and is the language adopted for League of Nations assemblies. Consequently the suggestion of English for the most important conference of all is a surprise.

Americans would rejoice if the suggestion were affirmed. After years of being at a linguistic disadvantage Uncle Sam and his family would welcome a little straight United States.

It is doubtful whether the decision in favor of English would cause as much trouble for foreign diplomats as our representatives have commonly had with other languages. Americans are notoriously behind in the mastery of other tongues.

In any event the proposal is not without significance. From now on artistic souls who depict "The Angel of the New Day," had best show him holding an English dictionary as well as an olive branch.

STATE OF MIND CONCERNED

Every one is asking "When will business be better?" and almost everyone has a different answer. Among the more interesting of such answers is that one put out by the research department of the National Association of Credit Men, which enjoys unusually complete facilities for the gathering and collating of opinions.

Here are the major factors which its report cites as regarding the return of normal business: Waiting for lower prices, reluctance of labor to liquidate, failure of retailers to adjust prices, unemployment, slow crop movements, demoralized foreign exchange, high freight rates, uncertainty as to taxes, inability of public and railroads to buy.

It is worth noting that, of these causes, no less than four are directly traceable to a state of mind, and that the others may fairly enough be credited in some measure to it.

Women Slayers, Attention

Just to prove to her the gravity of her neglect to reduce her weight 10 pounds or more and fix up her face into something more suggestive of the beauty parlor's finished product, a Chicago jury found Mrs. Dora Waterman guilty of killing her husband.

With apparent desire, moreover, to convince her that she erred greatly in not providing herself with an affinity as a reason for the deed—she did the murder because her husband had abused her for more than a decade—the jury declared she must go to prison for 17 years.

Thus Chicago jurors have given the lie to charges that they will not convict a woman on a homicide charge. They also serve notice to feminine wielders of the knife and pistol and poison that beauty and scandal are required in a defense if it is to receive careful consideration and a resultant verdict of "not guilty."

Mrs. Waterman was fat and coarse and uninteresting. She did not prate tearfully of her love for her victim, nor point to the fact that she had to get rid of him in order to be happy with a soulmate. Her husband had beaten her times without number, threatened her life, made her existence miserable. So, in resisting his last attack, she slew him.

"Horrible!" cried the jury. They had been looking at the heavy, sullen and unpainted face of the defendant, which explains their use of that word. "Away with her to prison for 17 years—which will be the remainder of her life!" Justice shuddered a little, we fancy, at the decree. But justice has blundered eyes, so could not see that this convicted woman was no charmer of men, and therefore could not expect mercy at the hands of a jury bent on upholding the majesty of the law when mawkish sentiment was not at issue.

Coastal Waters Fouled

There is a petition before Congress to take some action to preserve seaside resorts in the United States from pollution of coastal waters by tar, petroleum, etc.

There is occasional complaint of such fouling along the beaches in Southern California, due either to oil waste from tankers or oil-burning steamships, or to drainage from oil wells or petroleum plants of some kind on the shore. It is at times a great nuisance to bathers, and if it continues and increases it may work much business harm to numerous Summer resorts.

There is also apprehension that oil waste seriously may injure coast fisheries, especially the supply of such shellfish as shrimp, oysters, clams and "lobsters."

Any kind of fish, it would seem, must be strongly adverse to swimming in water affected by oil of any sort.

But how can Congress take effective measures to put a stop to the trouble?

It would seem a very difficult matter, in any case, to fix responsibility and apply a remedy, particularly in the case of shipping.

Relief is Expected

A Pacific Coast man is director of the newly created Veterans' Bureau—Colonel Charles R. Forbes of Seattle, a man with typical Western vim and push, and a sincere sympathizer with disabled veterans. Recent legislation by Congress, which provided for the consolidation of bureaus and agencies into the Veterans' Bureau, and coordination of the work of relief for disabled former service men of the World War, has made it possible to expedite the providing relief for deserving veterans. Colonel Forbes gives assurance that he will push through all meritorious relief claims as rapidly as possible.

There are difficulties to be surmounted yet, it is true. But with divided authority at an end and with a single well organized bureau to handle these matters, it is possible to speed up the work. It will be gratifying to veterans and their friends to know that seemingly everything that is humanly possible to be done is being done to bring needed relief without further disheartening delays.

About This Time o' Year

Today's Talk

WHY NOT NOW?

A lovely letter came to me the other day thanking me for the help given through these talks. The writer said that it was his opinion that tributes should be paid to the living. I have been carrying that letter around in my pocket ever since.

Why wait to say nice things to people, anyway? I hope to live to see the time when people will erect monuments to the living. Of course I know the general impression is that should these tributes be paid while yet the man lived, he might later do something that would make people sorry they had paid such honor. Whereas with the one who has gone, the book is sealed.

But nevertheless, I believe in making this mortal frame of ours as happy as possible while it walks and breathes.

It was Helen Hunt Jackson, I believe, who said "I like not only to be loved, but to be told that I am loved—the realm of silence is large enough beyond the grave."

Why wait to express a generous thought or to do a helpful thing, when you know that you will receive infinitely greater pleasure than the one to whom you grant it?—so great is the law of compensation.

Why wait to put into action that thing which you have spent so long a time in thinking out? If you believe in it—go through with it. Even the most depressing failure has its lesson of success.

The Velvet Hammer

BY A. B. B.

The Spurgeon Realty company requires a skillful gent to see that tenants toe their mark and pay the monthly rent. It owns the largest building in this large and blooming town, which some fine day might blow away, but Bob can hold it down, for he's a solid citizen, we metrically state, who cuts a lot of local ice and has a lot of weight.

As chairman for the county when the war-loan drives were made, it seemed that raising money was his one and only trade. He organized the citizens and trained them for the task and sold as many bonds as any government could ask.

He learned the art of talking at a very early age and has developed it to an advanced and flossy stage. "It's William Jennings Bryan!" strangers frequently exclaim because Bob talks so skillfully and looks so much the same. If William Jennings Bryan did a little better job, his audiences might remark, "By George, that's just like Bob."

A DATE WITH THE SKY

I've got a date with the sky today;
The sun's got into my veins.
I'll slip my halter and leave my hay.
For my soul on its tie-rope strains—
Oh, the high blue roof of the canyon walls
And the wide blue tent of the plains!
Soul, come on! Let's hope and play.
I've got a date with the sky today.

I love all men and respect their starch,
Yet I never mope and pine.
Alone out under the wide blue arch,
Away from their pride—and mine,
I love all women—they're glorious,
But fiddledee! how they fuss, and fuss
In their own sweet pestering line!
World and women, go 'way, go 'way!
I've got a date with the sky today.

Up yellow east with the dawn I'll run
Round the hazy rims I'll scout,
Trail the old Aztecs into the sun
Or ride on a storm's gray snout,
Feet on the earth but my heart 'way high,
For a while grand day I'm going to die—
Stay dead till the stars come out—
Free in one breath to laugh and pray.
I've got a date with the sky today.

—July Sunset.

How Is Your Health?

By Uncle Sam, M. D.
Send health questions to Information Editor, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington, D. C. Give name and address and you'll receive a personal reply.

Many new facts about air in its relation to the body have recently been discovered by medical scientists.

Today, we know that as an aid to good health, air should not only reach the lungs but the skin as well. The value of fresh air is not due alone to the life-giving oxygen it contains. It has a combination of other important factors as well. Under ordinary living conditions the blood will absorb all the oxygen it requires. The need of the body for moving air, however, is very great indeed.

Extensive experiments in New York city among children in various schools have proved that windows open at all times result not only in better health signified by fewer absences and colds, but increase the cheerfulness, diligence and ability of the children, some 50 per cent.

Air is the first necessity for all living things. Therefore, to follow the "air-line" route to good health:

Let the fresh air in.
Go out after it.
Sleep out if you can.
Breathe deeply, regularly.

Ventilation, too, is an important rule in hygiene. The most important features of ventilation are: Motion, coolness, a proper degree of humidity or moisture in the air, and freshness.

There exists an extraordinary prejudice against air in motion, yet only a strong draft of cold air that too quickly chills the body is to be avoided. A gentle draft is one of the best friends the seeker after health can have. A lack of motion in the air affects unfavorably the circulation of the skin and prevents normal evaporation and heat loss.

No condition tends to colds and gripe and lowered vitality more than a crowded room in which excessive heat and humidity are radiated from the human bodies therein. The living temperature in most offices and factories and living rooms is far too high, and the air is stagnant and over-humid. An electric fan is needed more under such conditions than in the summer time when the windows are wide open. The temperature of living rooms and workrooms should not be above 70 degrees.

While sunlight air is the best air of all (for the light of the sun destroys germ life), almost all outdoor air is better than indoor air.

Chapter 126
SKINNY FOX'S BEAUTIFUL BROTHER
By Harvey Elliott

While speaking of fur bearing animals I want to tell you of some of the most wonderful of these. When people want real fine furs they consider the color, for color is one of the first things that makes beauty. The choicest color, as usually considered, is soft olive brown mixed with silvery hairs such as is found in the Russian sable. Then there is the shiny black with silver hairs such as appears in the Silver Fox.

We have been writing some about Skinny Fox. As you have seen him, he is a fellow with a rather sneaking disposition. He is a schemer with little regard for the rights of others. He needs to be watched. When he pretends to be the greatest friend he may prove to be the greatest enemy. The Fox is a little wild dog. When a dog is tame he may be the most faithful friend. But when he grows wild he is not a creature to be trusted.

But the most wonderful fur in the world is found on the Silver Fox. Usually Foxes are red. But occasionally there is born into this headed family a creature that is black. And when that black is tinged with silver hairs you have a combination of fur that has a world wide fame. It is the warmest, lightest, thickest, softest and most beautiful of all furs. It, however, does not wear as long as many other kinds of fur.

The Red Fox, of which our Skinny Fox is one, lives in many parts of our United States. The Silver Fox, however, seldom appears except in the coldest climates. It is seen most frequently in Northern Canada. Ernest Thompson Seton tells of one of rare beauty that appeared in Yellowstone Park and which was reported killed by a man who sold its fur for $500 and paid off a mortgage on his mother's farm.

The Red Fox is very common in the Yellowstone. You may not see one in a day's travel. But at night, as you sit by your camp-fire, you may hear a little bark in the bushes. This is likely the bark of a Fox. If you try to find him he will be gone before you get there. You can see him better in the winter time when the snow has covered all other food. Then these Foxes will come up to the hotels in search of the scraps that have been thrown out after the meals.

Skinny Fox and his relations like any kind of meat. He will eat other things we serve on our tables, but he especially likes juicy dainties such as rabbits, chickens, pheasants and prairie dogs.

We learn from Skinny Fox that a treacherous heart may live on the inside of a person's fine clothes.

A TERRIBLE ANSWER

A very sour-faced woman in the rear end of a street car was looking daggers at a man who was smoking, within his rightful territorial limits, just behind her. He saw her look of disapproval, but calmly smoked on. After a while she snapped:

"If you were my husband, I'd give you poison!"

Then the man coolly removed the pipe from his mouth, remarked, "and if I were your husband, I'd take it, and smoked on."

"Swearing?" roared the indignant father. "I'll teach him to swear!" And he rushed upstairs. For some minutes the indignant parental voice resounded through the house and then Jimmy's mother called:

"John, dear, I'm sure Jimmy has heard enough."

UNINTELLIGIBLE.

"Lay down, pup. Lay down. That's a good doggie. Lay down. I tell you."

"Mister, you'll have to say, 'Lie down.' He's a Boston terrier."—Nashville Tennessean.
